

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 4:14; sunset, 7:28.

No pageants or special observance in celebration of the "sane Fourth." No need of it, say patriots who killed fireworks industry.

Clarence Smith, promoter, suicided with poison. In letters he blames wife No. 4.

Council finance committee appropriated $15,000 for gas committee to get expert advice on new gas rate deal between city and company.

City Treas. Sergei wants new $14,000 bookkeeping system in his office instead of that of Comptroller Pike.

17,400 awarded Mrs. Rob't Greenleaf as widow's estate. Husband millionaire stove man.

Health Com'r Robertson denies he used Municipal Tuberculosis Sanitarium auto for pleasure rides.

City suing Ponds Bitters Co., 833 Fulton. Alleges it contains too much alcohol.

Two employes U. S. Steel Co. lost lives in Gary. Flying piece of steel cut Perry Fitzhugh's jugular and John Anderson killed by fall.

"Scandalous and immoral picture taken from saloon of Joseph Gthellos, 210 Washington. Neighbors ask $100 fine.

Geo. Dickson, 324 S. Winchester, helper on auto truck, crushed to death between truck and Wells-Fargo loading platform at Plymouth et. and Taylor.

Body of man taken from river at 16th. Believed to be A. J. Johnson.

Louise Ashman, Maywood, suing Robert Breede, Melrose Park, for $10,000. Breach of promise.

6,085 attorneys in Chicago new law directory. 228 names added in last year.

Hamilton Investment Co. and C. C. Mudge defendants in $200,000 damage suit by trustee in bankruptcy for estate of Bollman Bros.' Plano Co.

Federal authorities granted continuance to labor leaders because of trials pending in criminal court.

Coroner's jury returned accidental death verdict in case of Serg't Lentz, killed by automatic gun he was cleaning.

Geo. Miller, 1830 Houston, held to grand jury. Charged with holdup and burglary.

Mrs. Anna Borek, 2809 S. California, belongs to 22 societies. Charged with contributing to delinquency of Stella Kulasha, 14, 2845 Sacramento. Allowed her to stay in her home. Placed on probation.

Probation office report for six months ending April 1 shows 1,709 placed on probation and 1,721 discharged.

Jas. Tyke, swimming instructor, Riverside pool, rescued Agnes Brandt year ago. Married yesterday.

Winnetka bathing beach, foot of Pine st., open June 18.

U. S. Veterans' legion in 13th annual encampment in Woodlawn perfected plans to muster six regiments under their banner.

Rake and shovel brigade to clean off Winona beach tomorrow morning.

Will Callahan, 739 Oakwood blvd., acquitted of serious charge by Miss Carolyn Kister, who ended life after alleged attack.

Fred Bunker, 56, yesterday married Mrs. Marretta Derr, 45. Both have married children who congratulated them.

Pres. James, III. "U," expected to say whether or not he will be candidate for governor on Republican ticket today.

Judge Kavanaugh told jury to find Jas. Tori guilty of murder and to sentence him to life. Shot rival.

Federal grand jury indicted four men for violating postal laws and one for drug act.

Capt. Streeter arrested on old charge. He denounces plots against him.

Thos. Saunders accidentally broke neck in Bridewell hospital.