

ONE CENT-THE DAY BOOK-ONE CENT

JOLLY JINGLES

By Jim Manee

In explaining the trenches a soldier once said,
If you stand up too high you get shot in the head.
But if you lay low you'll get wet to the knees.
And after a rain you are likely to freeze.
You stand among bullets and shells and smoke,
A battle in trenches, he warns, is no joke.
For years you may pick lots of shot from your face:
Oh, the trench, in sarcasm's, a wonderful place.

P. S.—Indoor sports: Keeping tab on bullets as they whiz over your head!

REFUSE TO GIVE CITY A CHANCE TO VOTE ON JUDGES' RAISES

Ald. Chas. Merriam tried last night to give the people a chance to tell whether they want to hand the municipal court judges a 50 per cent increase in salary. The judges are already getting $6,000.

A raise of $9,000 was handed out by the council at the last meeting. It will cost the city about a quarter of a million more every year. Merriam wanted to amend the ordinance with a referendum clause to have it put on the ballot.

Merriam reminded the council that raises have been denied thousands of city employes who are making less than $3 a day. The city had an electricians' strike on its hands last year because it would not pay the union scale. To hand judges a 50 per cent increase, he said, was too much.

Ald. Utpatel, himself a candidate for the bench, boosted the $9,000 salary. Merriam lost out on the vote.
