

Farr on complaint of Farr's wife, who lives at 736 E. 46th st. Farr and Mrs. Iring had been living together as man and wife.

At the detective bureau where Iring was taken on a charge of carrying concealed weapons he admitted, according to the detectives, Es-sick and Wertheimer, that he had followed Farr and his wife from Louisville with the intention of having death solve the triangle problem. While Iring was in his cell, Judge Wade allowed Farr and the woman to go free when Mrs. Farr refused to prosecute. But when he heard the story of the husband's arrest he indicated he would reopen the case.

The judge may also investigate a report that Farr is backed by powerful political influence on which he depended for freedom. Farr has frequently boasted of his political "pull" in loop cafes, according to several acquaintances.

Deputy Att'y Gen. Thos. Hogan accuses Farr of being a member of a ring of grafters who have fleeced young medical students out of about $10,000 on the promise of using influence to see that the students passed the state medical examination.

Yesterday State's Att'y Hoyne concerned himself with the doings of the dashing young Mr. Farr and prepared to present evidence to the grand jury to the effect that Farr had taken $500 from Don Hubbell, a medical student, on the representation that he would see that Hubbell passed the state "exams."

The incident in the Morals Court caused great excitement for a moment. Extra police were necessary to still the panic. Iring, in his explanation to the police, said that Farr had breezed into Louisville a few weeks ago and had met his wife. Farr was a dance fiend and by teaching Mrs. Iring a few new steps won a place in her heart. The runaway blowed.

RIOT AT WILSON BEACH AS GUARD HITS BOY — POLICE USE GUNS TO QUIET MOB

A riot was precipitated at Wilson beach today when a lifeguard struck a boy. The boy was said to be Richard A. Connell, son of a real estate dealer, 922 Leland av.

The crowd on the beach took the side of the boy, who, it is said, was hurt so badly that several stitches were required to close a wound over his eye.

The lifeguard demanded the arrest of the boy, but a policeman on the beach threatened instead to arrest the guard. The policeman fired over the lake to quell the excited mob.

GARMENT WORKERS REFUSE STRIKE SETTLEMENT

New York, July 26.—Amid wildest disorder the agreement, which it was hoped would settle the long drawn-out strike of garment workers was tentatively rejected at meeting of the strikers. Charges that the representatives of the strikers had sold them out in drawing up the agreement with the employers were made. Solomon Metz, chairman of Local No. 1, was forced to flee through a rear window to escape.

PRESIDENT EXPLAINS NEED OF GUARD ON THE BORDER

Washington, July 26.—That the services of the national guard are "a necessity to the United States" in "protecting the country," and not merely "for the purpose of drill," was explained in a letter written by Pres. Wilson to Mrs. Henry Smith of Winamac, Ind.

New York.—Thos. Mulhearn took an involuntary joy ride on a 50-ton steam roller. Something went wrong inside the machine and Mulhearn couldn't stop it until it had torn up three yards of sidewalk, smashed an iron fence and jumped into a cellar.
