JUDGE WADE'S ARREST MAKES HERO OF COP

Judge Says He'll "Get Job" of Officer Murphy—West Park Board and Citizens Say He Won't—Both Up for Trial Today—Wade Hires Wilkerson.

Officer James Murphy of the West Park police dep't, who had the nerve to "pinch" Municipal Judge Wade when he found him violating the speed law, will not want for friends if Wade carries out his threat to use all his power and political "pull" to drive Murphy from his $95-a-month job.

Both the judge and Murphy are to appear for trial before Judge Harry Moran in the speeders' court this afternoon. After Murphy had Wade arrested for speeding the judge turned around and had Murphy arrested for disorderly conduct in arresting a judge. Wade has retained Att'y Jas. Wilkerson, former U. S. district attorney, who just saved Will Orpet from the charge of murdering Marion Lambert. Murphy will be represented by Jacob LeBoskey, att'y for the West Park board.

Wade says regardless of what happens in court today he's going the limit with Murphy and will not stop until the policeman joins the great army of the unemployed. If Wade succeeds in doing this he will leave Murphy's sister and a small child of relatives, both now dependent on Murphy's wages, without support.
