

OH THUNDER!

OL' RABBIT, DEAR,
WAS FULL O' CHEER.

HIS HAT WAS TALL
AN' HE WAS SMALL.

HIS HAIR WAS LONG
AN' SHAGGY.

AN' HE WORE HIS TROUSERS BAGGY!

CAPTAIN COLEMAN TO PILOT DEUTSCHLAND ON RETURN

Baltimore, Aug. 1. — Owen Coleman, pilot who brought subsea freighter Deutschland safely into port, will take her out again. Plans of promoters call for him to pilot her down the bay before night. This was learned authoritatively early today, and it was understood that Coleman was then at the dock where the Deutschland and tug Timmins lie.

Shortly after the information concerning the pilot became known, tug Timmins and smaller launch Efoo started out toward mid-channel carrying a drag, apparently to pick up any mines or obstructions.

MANY MOURN MONROE DEATH

Reformed gamblers and ex-convicts today mourned the death of Harry Monroe, 63, who for 28 years ran the Pacific Garden mission, 67 W. Van Buren st. Monroe died yesterday from injuries sustained in street car accident.

Among the men Monroe converted were "Billy" Sunday, baseball evangelist, and "Mel" Trotter, also a widely-known evangelist. Sunday was converted in a stirring appeal Monroe delivered from a soap box on State street.

Pennsylvania farms last year paid out $39,953,029 in wages.
