CHICAGO POLICEMEN HELD FOR SHOOTING OF CHINAMAN

Chief Healey Orders Thorough Investigation of Coppers' Spree—Stars Are Taken Away—
Laundry Owner May Die From Wounds.

Two overbearing policemen of the type that labor-crushing concerns love to use in breaking their strikes staggered into the laundry of Charles Jung at 511 E. 37th st. this morning

When they wandered out again laughing and singing the poor Chinaman who owned the place lay on the floor of his store with a bullet through his intestines and several cuts in his head.

Frightened neighbors of the unfortunate Chinaman, who knew what a drunken policeman, dizzy with the power of his blue uniform will do, feared to venture from their homes, even though they heard the shot which laid Jung low.

But they called the Stanton av.
