CITY TO BE ROCKED BY NEW GRAFT QUIZ

Thompson-Lundin Crowd Anticipates Hoyne and Gets Busy—Police Captains to Walk the Plank—
Hoyne Searches Deeper.

BY JOHN A. MALLOY

The City Hall plans to beat State's Attorney Hoyne to a new graft quiz. Mayor Thompson announced today he favored a probe of the present slot machine gambling and that the matter was now in the hands of his civil service commission, headed by Cap. Coffin.

The administration stunt is to center the public attention on a trial of the police captains of the districts wherein the slot machines have flourished. In doing this he is satisfying the first reform organization that has presented evidence of any violation to him. The organization so honored is the Citizens' Ass'n of which Shelby M. Singleton is the active head.

The mayor expressed great fondness for Singleton today. "He's sincere," said the mayor. "He's got that fellow Lyle beat." The mayor is usually very cold and distant to reformers who bother him.

Behind the mayor's expressed devotion for Singleton and his order to
