ALD. LITTLER SHOWS I. C. HOGS LAKE FRONT

Chairman Harbors Committee Explains How Payne and Wacker Are Playing Railroads' Game—Council Refuses to Be Party to Deal.

More places to swim in the water and play in the sand along the lake shore are wanted by the people of Chicago. Things are too crowded now. Every one wants more beaches.

Why aren't there more beaches? Who or what is stopping the people of Chicago from getting to the lake shore?

Ald. Harry E. Littler, chairman harbors committee, gave his answer today. He said the Illinois Central is to blame. In its hog tactics of squatting on the lake front and shutting off the people who want to swim and play, the I. C. is a "nuisance," according to Littler, and John Barton Payne, the Illinois Central lawyer, who is president of the South Park board, and Charles H. Wacker, the real estate manipulator who sits as a director of the Calumet & Chicago Canal & Dock Co., when he is not playing president of the Chicago Plan com'n, are in wrong when they lay the blame for delay in lake front improvement on the city council instead of the I. C.
