

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Mabel Weyl, trained nurse, missing from home of Anna L. Matthews, 5523 Dorchester av. Wore one-piece bathing suit when last seen.

American Flag Day ass'n protested against use of flag on Hughes posters.

Frank Binz, Henry Forte, George Lege and Salvatore Besses, escaped from Dunning.

Arthur Palmberg, 1153 N. Clark, fell from auto. Skull fractured. Dead.

John Rothrox, Wilmette chauffeur, fined $150 for assaulting policeman.

Marie O'Leary, 3530 W. 12th pl., won beauty contest at Harvard.

Sen. Walsh believes Democrats will carry Illinois.

Board of review hearing personal property and real estate tax assessment complaints.

Huston Thompson, ass't att'y gen., says Colorado women are for Wilson.

Two new cases of infantile paralysis reported.

Dr. Harry Cousins, Wesley hospital, and Mrs. Edith Matson hurt when auto skidded and hit tree near Aurora.

Jennie O'Neill, 4834 Langley av., hurt by street car.

Mrs. Alice Wollin, 645 Buckingham pl., hit by auto Sunday, died yesterday.

John Walter fined $25 for loitering around morals court.

Mar Shapiro, owner of amusement park concession, sued for divorce. Cruelty charged.

Chas. Trautman, 11, 7538 N. Clark st., hit by train. Dead.

Nels Olsen, painter, 3538 Moffat st., sued for divorce. Drunkenness and cruelty charged.

Guy O'Brien, who shot sweetheart, Ida Torkelson, Morris, Ill., held to grand jury. Released on $6,000 bonds.

Chas. Guile held to grand jury without bail on charge of murdering John Hess, 56 E. 13th st.

Andrew Bepper, 918 W. Randolph, held to grand jury for murder of Christ. Deubler, saloonkeeper.

Forty-first annual picnic of United Irish Societies held at Brand's park today.

Michael Deugerus, 1319 Taylor, crushed to death by elevator in Alliance Co.'s plant, 1924 Clybourn av.

Jos. James, 2410 Cullen av., in answer to divorce suit says wife moved their household goods to home of mother.

Ignas Cerniak sued for divorce. Charged with throwing dishes at wife. Wife wants injunction to restrain him from disposing of $18,000 property.

Forest preserve district commission to proceed with condemnation proceedings to acquire 790 acres in Wheeling, Northfield and Proviso townships.

Jas. Conlon, Maywood, became dizzy, fell to pavement. Fractured skull. Died later.

Mrs. Margaret Sheridan, 520 N. St. Louis av., sued Thos. Sheridan, stereotyper, for divorce. Charges cruelty.

Robert West, 553 S. State, arrested in Castle motion picture theatre on charge of annoying Mrs. Jos. O'Leary, 2455 Lowell av.

E. H. Winters, Lake Bluff druggist, and wife disappeared. Left fully stocked drug store.

Former Diversey beach attendants fall to appear to back up graft charges.

Ben Edelson, 1502 Elk Grove av., and Stanley Novak, 1017 N. Marshfield av., both 17, held on charge of killing Thos. Shapiro, 17, 2400 Grenshaw, near Toledo.

Joe Howard, vaudeville actor, reported married to Ethelyn Clark, stage partner. Last wife, Irma Killgallen, killed herself.

Morris Blumenthal, 1451 N. Rockwell, charged with receiving stolen property in connection with theft of