

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Herman Smith, 21, Hammond, newly married, killed himself. Believed temporarily insane.

Fifty special police employed by Forest Park during Speedway races unpaid. Threaten action.

S. Rayborn, 1216 Indiana av.; E. Fay, 1139 Van Buren, and Thos. Marton, 2920 Cottage Grove, arrested for alleged attempted holdup.

H. H. Monroe, 93, father of Mrs. Potter Palmer and Judge Monroe, dying.

Wilmette granted contract to pave Sheridan road to John A. McGarry & Co.

Dr. John B. Murphy left no will. Widow will probably have disposal of estate.

Dr. St. Clair Drake warns against "baby contest," for fear of infantile paralysis plague.

Charles Firench, school trustee, had leg amputated in New York as result of auto accident.

John J. Calvey, former bellboy, appointed manager of Auditorium hotel.

M. A. Duchine, 3617 Sunnyside av., arrested on charge of flirting with Agnes Palafik, 1835 Thomas.

Marquette Park residents want more trees, lawns and playgrounds.

Injunction to restrain Henry Pein from exercising duties as chief of police of Melrose Park denied.

20,000 attended United Irish Societies picnic at Brand's Park. Roger Casement honored.

George William Eggers appointed acting director of Art institute.

Milton Gordon, 119 S. Irving av., had foot crushed in elevator shaft at Ryan Mineral Soap Co. plant, 809 N. La Salle.

Loretta Murray, 4 months, 929 Margate terrace, smothered to death while sleeping in couch.

George Kandlik, 2838 Dickens av., appointed ass't corporation counsel.

Edw. Fenton, 43, 6844 S. Ashland av., overcome by gas.

Pedro Fabrique, 240 E. Huron, held up two men. They were caught after chase.

Mrs. Vera Trier, 2204 Roscoe, who left baby and husband, back home. Tired of cabarets.

John Fredericks, indicted as auto thief, shot and wounded by police. Bridewell hospital.

Harold Pawlitzki, 8, 3128 Clybourn av., killed by auto. Harry Michelson, 2414 Fletcher, chauffeur, arrested.

Henry Fielding, 435 Wells st., and Rena Woods, St. Luke's hospital, held up near Art Institute. $7.40 taken.

John Glowacki, believed to have knowledge of Bror Johnson murder, indicted on six charges of robbery.

Prof. Robert W. Stevens, Chicago Univ., says music can be tasted.

$13,482,485 spent for educational purposes by school board during past year.

George Kriechbaum wants to buy blood to save life of wife now in Michael Reese hospital.

Mabel Weyl, 5523 Dorchester av., who disappeared clad in one-piece bathing suit, found in South Clark street cell. Arrested for shoplifting. Paroled.

Louise Johnson fined $200 for impersonating policewoman.

40,000 tax complaints heard by board of review.

Eugene Gardner, accused of bringing Mrs. Geo. Leiferman from Muncie, Ind., for immoral purposes, to be tried Aug. 24.

John Jackson pushed through window at 39 S. Dearborn when he asked for chew of tobacco. E. O. Hoffman, 3641 Ellis park, accused.

Mrs. Thomas Bagley, wife of Board of Trade operator, divorced.

Mrs. Agurtner, 19 W. Huron, sued for $10,000 by Mrs. Margaret La Vern. False arrest charged.

Barney Hart, 311 S. Winchester, av., E. O'Connell and S. Amardi, 546 Taylor, arrested on suspicion after