PAVLOWA HAS NICEST LEGS, SAY NEW YORK CRITICS

New York, Sept. 18. — Take the legs of Anna Pavlowa, the body of Charlotte, Hippodrome skater; the hands of Elsie Ferguson, eyes of Jane Cowl, mouth of Billie Burke, hair of Margot Kelly, neck of Mary Garden, Martha Redman's nose, the chin of Mae Marsh, Dixie Conrad's shoulders and Ann Pennington's feet and you would have a perfect woman. At least, this is the opinion of majority of chorus girls at the Hippodrome. A ticket to the world's series was hung up as a prize for the best selection made from eleven stage stars to form an ideal composite woman.

Pavlowa's legs ran far ahead in the contest.

Annette Kellerman's body was a close second to Charlotte's, and Anna Held, Maxine Elliott and Julia Marlowe crowded Jane Cowl for the eye honors.

EXPECT NO MILK STRIKE

The Borden dairies signed up with the milk producers' ass'n yesterday, under a contract that will add about 10 per cent to the present cost of milk to dealers. High price of food in winter was given as the cause of the raise by the producers.

No opposition is expected from other dairies to a like raise and no strike is expected.

Long Branch, N. J.—Thieves got $50,000 in jewels when they looted home of Mrs. E. F. C. Young, neighbor of Pres. Wilson at his summer home.
