HENRY FORD TELLS WHY HE IS FOR WILSON AND THE EIGHT-HOUR DAY

Detroit Manufacturer, a Lifelong Republican, Believes That President's Policies Are Responsible for the Peace and Prosperity of America.

BY HARRY B. HUNT,

Day Book Staff Correspondent.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 27. — Henry Ford, Republican, will cast his vote for Woodrow Wilson, Democrat, at the presidential election Nov. 7, because:

As a business man, vitally concerned in the continued prosperity of America, he believes Wilson's policy of equal rights between capital and labor, with a fair field for all and special privileges to none, will do more to keep factories busy and payrolls full than any revision of the tariff—the only definite promise of the Republican candidate.

As a peace-loving American citi-
