SKELETON OF CHIEF HEALEY'S PAST IS RATTLED

Hoynes Drops Broad Hint Regarding Healey's Record as Railroad Agent—Mayor Thompson's Name May Be Dragged Into Vice Probe—Politicians Hit.

Chief Healey's record as a special agent of a steam railroad prior to his connection with the Chicago police dep't became the subject of speculation today following a rather broad statement from State's Att'y Hoynes.

Replying to Healey's charge that Hoynes had "been after" him since he was first appointed chief, Hoynes said:

"It is entirely true that as soon as I heard Healey was to be appointed chief of police and also heard who his secretary was to be and learned of his police connections I protested to Mayor Thompson and some of his friends. I discovered that Healey proposed to restore to the detective
