

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 5:58; sunset, 5:16.

Wm. Sill, 3218 Ellis av., tried suicide. Gas. Saved from death by his wife. Family troubles.

B. B. Duncan asked divorce from Marguerite. Says he married her while intoxicated.

Sam Atterberry, in suit for divorce, named three men. Wife denied wrongdoing.

G. C. Adler and J. W. Newey fined $5 for speeding in Evanston. Hurried to Northwestern "U" game.

Will of Fred Bushing, 2139 S. Western av., filed. Estate, $52,000, to wife.

J. P. Grubbs, Urbana, Ill., sued. Wife says he brought divorced wife to their house.

Sid Dago, 3516 Calumet av., arrested. Eleanor Long, 733 N. Trumbull, said he accosted her.

Att'y Frank Culver fined $10 and costs. Assaulted newspaper photographer who tried to get picture.

American Car and Foundry Co. to open plant in Gary. Will employ 4,000.

Wm. Borman, 2921 N. Halsted, sued wife. Named another man.

Nellie De Gora, 2740 Shields av., hit by motorcycle of Frank Ginsta, 1921 W. 18th pl.

Mrs. Anna Novak, 1838 S. Racine, held for murder. Baby Stanley, 3, died when she turned on gas in unsuccessful suicide attempt.

Rosa Atlas, 1102 N. Ashland av., midwife, fined $10. Didn't report babe's sore eyes to health dept at birth.

Tena Krockover, 1325 Wells, and Jennie Schiro, 1459 Sedgwick, candy factory girls, missing. Police asked to search.

Frank Bryerton, watchman, died in undertakers at 1207 W. Grand av. Heart disease.

Herman Reichardt, saloonkeeper, Forest Park, hit by divorce suit. Wife says she started him in business; ungrateful

Five hurt when laborer's pick hit dynamite cap in Wilson av. tunnel. Austin Coleman, 3217 S. Dearborn, lost eyes.

Mrs. John Early filed suit for divorce. Says her husband sharpened knives and grinned at her.

Seven identified jewelry taken from Adam Brockaski, 2039 Le Moyne, after arrest as burglar.

Jos. Kejna, 1421 Kostner av., tried suicide in lake. Rescued. "No luck," he says.

Gus Schroeder, 2028 Dakin, lost job at 229 S. Market. Went back; shot Harry Holler, 3328 Beiden av., and suicided.

Dorothy Cleveland, 318 N. Pine av., and Evelyn and Grace West, chums, overcome by gas while playing in bath room. Will recover.

Morris Sigel, newsdealer, 48th and Chicago avcs., fined $50 and costs. Stole papers.

Louis Becker, baker, 847 Maxwell, told police he was slugged twice. Refused to raise price of bread.

Jacob Sherlan, 3, 12 1335 S. California av., strayed from home. Found by cops.

Clyde Briegel, 6227 Dorchester av., tried suicide. Gun. Girl companion repulsed him. Will live.

Mrs. Sarah Roth sued Gertrude Gavin, 2961 Warren av., for $50,000. Says she took love of hubby, publisher "Wholesale Grocer."

Harry Ingals, 385 Park av., and Russell McGill, 220 N. Clarkson ct., held as freight car thieves in Evanston.

Mary Hazelton asked divorce from Everett. Says he choked her.

David Weisbaum, 301 W. Madison, held. Sold guns to Arnold Mesch and Elmer Schlueter on trial for murder.

Charles Emet, 16v8 N. La Salle, salesman, fined $10 and costs. Inmate of disorderly room.

Herman Ahrendt, Forest Park, killed his wife and shot himself. Family troubles. He will die.