

BILLIE BURKE HAS A "BABY MINE" ALL OF HER OWN

New York, Oct. 24.—Remember when Billie Burke starred in "Baby Mine"? She made a big hit with the public and play must have made a big hit with her.

For now Billie Burke has got a "Baby Mine" of her own. Monday our old friend, Mr. Stork, called at the Ansonia hotel and left a little daughter with Mr. and Mrs. Florenz Ziegfeld, Jr. The Mrs. in stage life is Billie Burke and the Mr. in business life is the well-known theatrical manager. Both mother and child are doing nicely.

One of papa's orchestras should strike up "Somebody's Coming to Our House," in the past tense.

VILLA STORMING CHIHUAHUA, SAY JUAREZ REFUGEES

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 24.—Hundreds of refugees fleeing Chihuahua City streamed into Juarez during night and early today bring confirmation of reports of Villa's presence outside Chihuahua City and an attack on Northern Mexico capital is expected at any moment.

Mexico City, Oct. 24.—Several of most prominent military and civilian leaders of Mexico today pledged Gen.

Carranza their support in coming presidential election, following meeting at home of Gen. Pablo Gonzales in Tacubaya last night.

BOTH OLD PARTIES BEGIN DRIVE FOR WOMAN VOTE

New York, Oct. 24.—Four million women's votes aren't to be sneezed at this presidential year.

The two big parties admitted this frankly today, and said they're turning every possible attention to wooing the suffragette ballots.

Each side claimed the majority of the women would be for them, but each was just as frank in admitting that it's hard to tag women voters and that there'll be much independent voting.

As the Republican woman's branch put it: "The women will not vote as their husbands, brothers and sweet-hearts do."

The Democratic camp said: "Suffrage will not be a determining factor. Women will reason for themselves and vote as they see fit, though we believe they will see that Wilson is their best hope."

They are very earnest folk—these women campaigners. A few around headquarters of both parties looked as though this hunt for the elusive vote might be a fad, but for the most part they had their coats off and were hustling.

Democratic women are busy mailing out literature to prove that the children's bureau, the commission in industrial relations, the child labor bill, and even the federal reserve act and rural credits measure, are big arguments why Wilson should have the women's vote.
