

whether running or not, and requiring mufflers.

Jerry Stundr, 7, 2100 Hastings, run over by coal wagon. May die. Wm. Moore, 321 N. Oakley av., driver, held.

Ben Block, 4951 Ashland av., held up in barn by two men. They got $10.

Anna Rumpf, 3629 N. Lawndale av., died in night school class of Sabur high school. Heart disease.

Mrs. Lawrence Heyworth, 7716 Lake Park av., shot burglar who escaped with loot.

John Peters, fireman, cut; several overcome, when fire destroyed grocery at 312 W. Madison. Loss $25,000.

Mrs. Jennie Bland, 1851 W. Van Buren, tried suicide. "Sweetheart," Peggy O'Day, 336 S. Winchester av., killed in bar fight.

WARRANT CHARGES SLEUTH WITH ASSAULT

A warrant was sworn out late yesterday by Harry B. Gabel, attorney, 11112 Michigan av., charging John Carton, Central Detail det. seg't, with assault and battery upon Geo. Youstra, 8430 Drexel av.

Gabel says Youstra was arrested and quizzed by the police as to the whereabouts of his uncle, Thos. Inns, wanted as a suspect in murder of Louis Lichtenstein.

"Youstra's nose was broken by a blow from Carton's blackjack," said Gabel, "and he was later given the 'third degree' ten times at the police station.

"When they turned him loose his clothes were saturated with blood down to his shoes and he was told not to talk or they would 'get his job' and have him fined in court."

Carton's police friends today denied that the charges against him had foundation.

Springfield.—Peoria city ordinance compelling vaccination of school children upheld by supreme court.

MILLER GIVEN CHANCE TO HAND OWNERS OF DIVE PROPERTY A JOLT

If City Prosecutor Harry B. Miller wants to hurt the property owners who rent their buildings for immoral purposes he now has the legal weapon with which to do it. The supreme court has upheld the Kate Adams law, which provides for the closing for a period of one year all buildings used for immoral purposes. The Committee of Fifteen are anxious to see just how far Miller will go.

Other decisions of supreme court: Conviction of Jos. Gordon of fraudulently altering ballot in 16th precinct, 18th ward, upheld.

City ordinance requiring common carriers to keep milk on ice in transit declared unconstitutional.

In case of Taylor-Critchfield Co. again Cook county treasurer, court held state board of equalization has no legal power to assess capital stock of printing establishments.

American Telephone & Telegraph Co. permitted to purchase stock of Interstate Independent Telephone & Telegraph Co.

Attorney Geo. Pfuhl, Chicago, disbarred.

Barney Meinick, Chicago, convicted of larceny, will go to prison.

Edw. McCombs, Chicago, must go to prison on serious charge.

Conviction of Chas. Simmons, Chicago, on manslaughter charge, reversed.

Court refused to issue mandamus sought by Peoples Gas Light & Coke Co. to compel restoration of 70-cent gas case to Judge Gibbons.

SKID SAVES $3,200

Four auto bandits robbed Wm. Groneman, 2014 Cutoff av., messenger for Lake View Trust & Savings bank, of $3,200. Their auto skidded. Hit curbstone. Bandits thrown out. Edw. Newberg, 1409 Sedgewick, caught. Others escaped. Money found in car