

FIRST CONGRESSWOMAN IN U. S. DESIGNS OWN HATS; IS A GOOD COOK

MISS
JEANNETTE-RANKIN

Helena, Mont.—Politics are not to be the only interests of Miss Jeannette Rankin, first congresswoman in the United States, just elected on the Republican ticket in Montana.

Miss Rankin makes her own garments, designs her own hats and does her own cooking.

The congresswoman's platform is: National woman suffrage, child welfare, tariff revision, nation-wide prohibition and greater publicity in congressional records.

Miss Rankin is a graduate of the University of Montana and of the School of Philanthropy in New York city. She is small, slight and has light brown hair. She has been active in the political and suffrage affairs in Montana for several years.

TO HIT AT RENT DODGERS

School land lessees who have not paid their rent for 18 months will be attacked in eleven suits to be filed this week by Att'y A. R. Shannon, acting for the board of education.

Owners of McVleker's theater, Saratoga hotel, Crilly bldg. and eight other properties in that one downtown block will be called on to pay $350,000 rent owing the people of Chicago.
