

2cLAST EDITION*2c*● STRIKE IMPERILS XMAS SHIPPING*THE DAY BOOKAn Adless Newspaper, Daily Except Sunday*

VOL. 6, NO. 66 Chicago, Thursday, December 14, 1916

396 HUMAN JUDGE SHOWS
UP "INTOLERANCE" OF SOCIAL REFORMERS

Judge Stelk of Domestic Relations Court Attacks
Methods of Social Worker—The Case of Mrs.
Puzian and the Good Samaritan—Reformers
Ask Woman's Arrest.

"Intolerance," that great drama in motion pictures that exposes the sham and heartlessness of professional charity workers and reformers, is beginning to drive its lesson home in the courts of Chicago.

To the court of domestic relations has been assigned Judge John Stelk.

He came to the court little known to newspaper readers. It appears that Stelk has sadly neglected the publicity value of "playing to the papers."

Before he was assigned to domestic relations that court had been overrun, operated and exploited by agents of the United Charities, high-