

Ill get Fred Fulton and Frank Moran into the ring there for a finish bout. Fulton and his manager are on their way to New York to talk money.

The Rochester man has been after Moran for some time and is eager for the fight. Donlin and his backer, G. H. Browne, are looking ahead and are attempting to match the winner of the Fulton-Moran bout with Jess Willard for a title affair. The winner of the preliminary go would be the best qualified man to engage the champion, though neither would appear to have a real chance of nailing the title.

Fred Welsh and Johnny Kilbane are to fight in Toledo, O., at a date not yet fixed, Welsh to receive a guarantee of $12,000 and a privilege of a percentage of the gate receipts. This is the most interesting battle arranged between champions for some time.

Kilbane, top man of the bantams, is outgrowing his class. He has a punch and is a boxer of ability. He is credited with having a better chance against the lightweight champion than any other man in the country.

Ten exhibition games have been arranged for the Cubs with Oakland and San Francisco of the Pacific Coast league.

Sec'y Grabiner of the Sox has scheduled games with Houston and Fort Worth during the Sox training trip in Texas.

Chick Harley, Ohio State halfback, All-America choice of Walter Camp, is spending the holidays with his family here. Harley denies he will go to Yale, Pittsburgh in any other college but Ohio in 1917.

Jack Fournier writes he is practicing at home with an indoor batting contrivance which will make him better than a .300 hitter next year. He wants another crack at first base, but is doomed to disappointment unless he can improve his fielding. Manager Rowland may give the Frenchman a chance at a utility berth among the outfielders.

Gardini, Italian heavyweight, and Paul Martinson wrestle tonight at West Side Auditorium, Taylor street and Racine avenue. Two preliminaries will precede the main event.

Les Darcy is still receiving offers in New York to fight various parties in various places. So far he has accepted none, and has not indicated who he would like as his first opponent in America. A land of plenty is open to the Australian and, like all fighters, he may take a chance on the vaudeville stage.

Opportunity A. A. indoor baseball team wants a game for next Sunday with a strong team in any part of the city. Would like to hear from Second Turners. Address 1420 S. Sawyer av. or telephone Rockwell 4588, between 7 and 8 p. m.

Basketball Scores

I. A. C. 78, Keewatin 8.
Whiting Owls 38, First Nat'l 30.
Wilson Badgers 22, De P. Lyc'm 8.
U. of C. 34, Detroit "Y" 21.
C. H. I. 25, Evanston 20.
Hamlin Clippers 26, Og. Sharks 15.
Triangle Jrs. 35, Olympic 13.

Kansas City.

Dear Editor:

Charles
Warren Fairbanks,
Hughes' running mate, desires to retire into absolute obscurity, and to become a recluse
from all humanity.
Just imagine!

Republican

WAVE

Answer: He can't do it. He lost his chance when he failed to become vice-president.