

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 6:56; sunset, 5:12.

Leo Harder, 4201 S. Washtenaw av., shot and wounded. Chas. Gallcis, 4551 Maplewood av., held by police.

Frank Pulaski and family, 1841 N. Talman, driven to street by fire. $600 loss.

Two-weeks'-old baby found dead in rear of Chicago Surface Lines' blacksmith shops, 2341 Ogden av.

Twenty persons driven from tenement when fire broke out in home of Chas. Franz, 6931 Hermitage av.

Two-thirds of objectors to Michigan boulevard link have withdrawn, Ass't County Judge Pond announced.

$500 worth of clothing, face powder and rouge stolen from freight train in Archer av. yards.

Jos. Tabor, 5109 Lincoln av., mistook nicotine for whiskey. Dead.

Maximilian Bulske, bldg. contractor, sued for divorce by Irene Bulske. Cruelty charged.

Mrs. Lena Barr, 1828 Turner av., sued poolroom and restaurant owners to recover money lost in dice games by husband, Geo. Barr. Defendants: Bolotin & Klein, 3159 12th; Barney Ehrlich, 3253 12th, and Julius Anixter.

Augustus McClain, 2710 Indiana av., wants divorce from Gertrude. Says she left him because he snored.

Alfred O. Erickson, ex-ass't corp. counsel, ousted during slot machine quiz, exonerated by Percy Coffin, civil service head.

Jury exonerated Jas. Karas, caught carrying gun, and was criticized by Judge Kearns. Second jury called. Karas fined $100.

Fred A. Brown, sec'y to late State Sen. A. J. Olson, wanted in connection with shortage in Olson estate, now wanted for bigamy. Said to have three wives.

W. S. Snorf, sup't Chicago av. postal station, accused in anonymous letter of burning up cats, admitted he threw live rats into fire.

Eight hurt by falls on icy sidewalks.

John T. Rosebrook, 1918 N. Keeler av., employe Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road, missing.

Judge Fisher freed Philip Edelson, liquor dealer, and Anna May Leonard, 4101 Grand Blvd., accused by Mrs. Edelson of living together.

18,064 new voters registered yesterday. Total is now 828,079.

Council terminals committee approved Ald. Geiger's plan to electrify L. C. road.

Ruby Powell, Flint, Mich., young girl, swallowed poison on Madison street car. May die.

Chas. M. Hayes re-elected pres. of Chicago Motor club over John W. Maguire.

Holdup man killed by Policeman Laurel believed to have been Chas. Sengster, alias Lloyd Health.

Jas. M. Stevens, auditor, says firm of Von Franzius & Co. was $400,000 short in accounts Jan. 17.

North Central Business District ass'n, backed by North Shore millionaires, plan vigilance society to protect "gold coast" against burglars. Knocked police.

Herman Hauptman, 708 Oakdale av., found living with niece, Theresa Hauptman, 16. Said to have wife and family in Pittsburgh.

Judge Kearns fined three butchers $25 each on shortweight charges. They were: Geo. Debonis, 1605 Wabash; Isadore Kohn, 3459 Southport av., and J. J. Trinkle, 1612 Devon av.

Era Bond, Minneapolis millionaire, wanted in connection with auto thieves' trust charges, to be brought back here.

John F. Shakespeare given custody of baby born to him by Gladys Sandley, wife of Elmer Sandley.

Lonesome club gave dinner dance last night.

John J. Loftus, 32, 224 W. 60th, arrested on charge of embezzling $1,000 on complaint of Painters, De-