

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 6:39; sunset, 5:29.

T. P. Sears, Fairfield, Ia., hit by street car. May die.

Ten auto trucks will replace horses and wagons for Salvation Army.

Mrs. Florence T. Reynolds, 4109 Drexel bldg., divorced from Harry H. Reynolds.

Dr. A. Christian Rasmussen, 300 W. North av., arrested. Charged with performing abortion on Mrs. Lydia Ahlberg, 1427 Hudson av.

Mrs. Ruth Rogers divorced from Lieut. Lionel Rogers, with British army "somewhere in France." Another woman.

Mrs. Louise Rust, 81, 3324 Lowe av., overcome by leaking gas. Died.

Police searching for man who stole $200 from Illinois State bank.

Mrs. Lucille V. Ingraham wants divorce from Ira Jay Ingraham and custody of 3-year-old child.

Appellate court ordered R. J. McGrath, ex-superior court clerk, to pay back $577, county money lost in La Salle street bank.

Safeblowers got $785 from Geo. Kraft & Co., 2552 North av.

John Craig, sales mgr., sued for divorce by Ora Bryant Craig. Desertion charged.

Saferobbers got $100 in Irwin Bros. market, 5831 S. State.

Roy G. Wade, locomotive engineer, sued for divorce by Mabel Wade. Cruelty charged.

Armed bandit got $13 from Thos. Watts, ticket agent Oak st. station, Northwestern "L."

Watch taken from Dr. A. F. Schuetler found in lot near home.

Robert L. Pitte, aged private banker, found living with Oak Park relatives.

Sol Lewinsohn, ex-bondsman, plans stage career.

Burglars clipped off hair of Mrs. Gertrude Ellis, 122 W. Ohio.

Drs. A. O. White, Hugh Machin, S. P. Blisman and L. F. Wallman hurt when car hit auto.

Sixteen women auto drivers enlisted in Red Cross.

Mayor revoked saloon licenses of Joe Poremba, 1730 W. 17th; Otto Rasche, 3600 S. Winchester av.; John Daniel, 1401 S. Keeler av., and Louis E. Franks, 1200 W. Lake.

Bruno R. Westphal, 210 E. Ontario, stepped into manhole in front of Ashland bldg. Badly bruised.

Mrs. Ida Delson, wife of Alexander Delson, wealthy knitter, sued Helen Nagy for $15,000, charging alienation of hubby's affections.

Eva and Margaret Meech and "Babe" Weber, N. Clark st. cabaret entertainers, arrested on charge of luring Frank Thorbet, 924 N. La Salle, to $450 robbery.

Mrs. Margaret Bahenroth, Evanston, filed divorce suit against R. L. Babenroth, former elder First Presbyterian church, Evanston.

Dr. Frederick C. Hanmore given divorce from Vera Clary Hanmore. Desertion.

Body of unidentified man found hanging from rafters in barn rear of 5915 S. Mason av.

Frank Parker, alleged auto thief, named police lieutenant at East Chicago av. station, in new graft confession.

Jos. Sacricki, Montgomery Ward employe, former army officer, robbed of $160 and wedding ring. Was to be married today.

Mrs. Louis Levy, Lakota hotel, routed burglar by flourishing gun.

—o—o—o—

TENNIS STAR GETS DIVORCE

Mrs. Grace Anthony Gardner, who won a place in society by her skill at tennis, won a divorce, $20,500 alimony and the custody of her 3-year-old child from Ralston H. Gardner, vice pres. of the Jas. T. Gardner railway supply concern. She said Ralston's habits ran to the "cave-manish." His idea of a wonderful time consisted in come home soured and knocking her around, she testified