

REWARD FOR ELECTION LAW BREAKERS OFFERED

Thomas H. Everitt of People's Power league, Schiller bldg., announced today $100 reward will be paid for information leading to arrest and conviction of any election official or other person for violation of election laws in the 27th ward next Tuesday.

"We have many reasons to expect strong-arm work in this ward," said Everitt. "Phone soon as you hear of crooked work under way. Call Randolph 793, a detective agency we have engaged, or the People's Power league, Central 6083."

POLITICAL NOTES

Ross A. Woodhull, Democratic candidate for alderman of the 8th ward is receiving the support of the South Chicago Building Trades Assembly. Woodhull's chances have been increased through the stubborn fight he is making for the opening of the municipal market, which was completed one year ago and never opened.

Robert M. Chambers, independent candidate for a long term alderman of the 23d ward, is making heavy attacks on Ald. Wallace, charging him with neglect of the interests of the ward.

SMUGGLING CASE FIZZLED

"Any negro who owns more than 30 cents' worth of real jewelry is suspected," declared Joe Jordan, a negro song writer who has been at loggerheads with the federal authorities over $30,000,000 worth of gems he owns. Jordan tried to sell a $10,000 necklace and the police were notified. An investigation showed him to be worth about $100,000.

BORDEN MILK TO JUMP

We fail to see the April Fool's day joke here. Starting April 1 the Borden Farm Products division will advance the price of milk 1 cent. On and after that date the company will charge 10 cents a quart and 6 cents a pint.

This action has been necessitated because of the increased price of milk demanded by the producer, says John J. Fitzpatrick, general manager.

TELEGRAPH BRIEFS

New York.—She believed him when he said he was getting $75,000 a year; also when he said he lost his job just after they were married; now Mrs. Ella Weinberg wants $10 a week for support.
