

2c*NOON EDITION*2c

THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Newspaper, Daily Except Sunday

VOL. 6, NO. 176

Chicago, Tuesday, April 24, 1917

398

BRITISH APPROVE WAY U. S. PLANS TO WAR —FRENCH ARRIVE

Democracy and Harmony Mark Getting Together of Anglo-American War Leaders—Money First,
Then Food and Ships—French Emissaries
Arrive Today.

Washington, April 24. — French commission, coming here for conferences with American and English government officials, has arrived safely. Place of arrival is withheld.

The party is not yet in Washington and all information as to their movements or time of arrival is kept secret by censorship.

Washington, April 24. — British Foreign Sec'y Arthur J. Balfour and

Pres. Wilson, heads of Anglo-American war conferences, planned to spend today tabulating results of their first parley. Denying themselves to all callers, they spent several hours getting down to working basis for world conference.

Money and food were outstanding points for immediate consideration.

These have in part been disposed of. British commission backed up