

TWO CENTS—THE DAY BOOK—TWO CENTS

ANNOUNCEMENTS

SATURDAY

Wallace A. A. will hold annual spring dance at Celtic Dancing Academy, 61st and Cottage Grove, 8 p. m.

SUNDAY

Woman's City club, 13th ward branch, Garfield park refectory, Boys' Clean Life club, 2:30 p. m. Municipal concert, 3:30 p. m. Social afternoon at clubrooms, Mon., 2 p. m.

Universalist Church of Redeemer, Robey and Warren av., Fred A. Moore, minister, "Above the War," 10:45 a. m.

Edwin B. Beckwith speaks on "Scientific Evidence of Subtler Worlds" at Theosophy meeting, Besant hall, 116 S. Michigan av., 3:30 p. m.

Excelsior Literary and Social club and N. W. Public Speaking club debate on "Resolved, That Illinois Shall Be Dry in 1918," at Eckhart park assembly room, Chicago av. and Noble, 8 p. m.

Prof. Donald McQueen lectures at Marquette hall, 6654 S. Halsted, 2:30 p. m. Subject: "Biggest Scrap in America."

Society of Anthropology meets at Corinthian hall, Masonic Temple, "Women, Love and Marriage," by W. W. Summers.

Workers' Inst. Educational league, 1006 S. Ashland Blvd., 7:30 p. m. Subject: "Nationalism," by Swinsky and Horvitz.

Hippolyte Havel, editor Social War, speaks on "Militant Labor's Day, May 1," at Dill Pickle Forum, 12 Tooker pl., 8 p. m.

J. Epinoff, Russian lecturer, speaks on "The General Conditions in Russia," at 1371 Blue Island av., 2 p. m.

"The Influence of the Catholic Church on Marriage and Divorce," by H. Percy Ward, Corinthian hall, Masonic Temple, 11 a. m.

Roland Brownlee, 16, Evanston, missing. May have enlisted.

"I PRONOUNCE YOU, ETC."

By Jim Manee

This marrying game is a right funny thing.

If you'll stop to figure it down,
The bride at the time she is getting the ring

Has two girls to hold up her gown,
But the gent in the case comes
straight down the aisle,

He's shy as to any kind lenders
Of help in regard to holding his clothes;

That's left to a pair of suspenders.

P. S.—The less said the better.

MINISTER HELD UNDER BONDS

Rev. Leon H. Sweetland, since Feb. 21 president of Montana Wesleyan University and before then pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, Maywood, was today freed on $1,000 bonds by Ass't County Judge Cooke so that he might preach his formal farewell to Maywood tomorrow.

Sweetland is charged with having contracted to purchase a house and lot from Mrs. Gertrude Miller, Maywood, and failing to abide by the terms of his contract. Before he left Chicago, April 12, Mrs. Miller caused an attachment to be issued for his auto and furniture. But before it could be served Sweetland's auto and furniture were safe in Montana.

Four men chased by watchman as they tried to enter grocery of Carl C. Marzano, 6110-12 S. Kedzie av.

NEW YORK STOCKS. — General list fractionally off. Close irregular.

WEATHER FORECAST

Rain and continued cold tonight and Sunday; fresh to strong northeast to east winds. Temperature Friday: High, 44; low, 36.