SELF-STYLED U. S. SOCIALIST DELEGATES DECLARE TERMS

Stockholm, June 23. — Self-styled American Socialist delegates to German-called international peace conference today issued their statement of the "American position on peace." Foremost in plan was scheme for union of all free nationalities to rebuild war-stricken nations and general disarmament.

Great stress was laid on the "no annexations, no indemnities" principle. It further favored:

Return of all occupied territory, including German colonies seized by allies.

Poland, Alsace and Lorraine to decide by referendum vote on government they want.

Abolition of secret diplomacy.

Peace to be negotiated by specially-elected delegates of the people, not by representatives of governments.

GERMAN OFFENSE MOVES

Paris, June 23. — Germany's assault against French lines reached stage of general counter offensive movement today, with violent fighting around Vauxhallon, Flain, Royer, Froldmont, Chevigny, Chevreux and other points. Attack was everywhere fruitless, says French official statement.
