The engineering committee recommended the passage of H. B. No. 4, the bill to establish the state rail road and transportation being adopted.

The committee on enrollment reported that they had found H. B. No. 31, amending section 10, chapter 23 of the militia laws of 1862, correct, and it was afterwards signed by the speaker in the presence of the House.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

H. B. No. 30, by Chisholm—An act respecting and extending the powers of the state of the district attorney to make arrests pertaining to the estates of deceased minors, minors and incompetents, persons in times when there is a vacancy in the office of the court, and when he is not absent from the county seat. Passed.

H. B. No. 37, by Hartford (by report)—An act making an appropriation of $100,000 for the use of the state board of agriculture. Committee on agriculture.

H. B. No. 38, by Logan—An act regarding railroad corporations in making arrangements over their respective roads, when necessary, for public or private purposes. This was temporary withdrawn at the request of the speaker.

H. B. No. 39, by Weller—An act respecting sections 8 and 10, chapter 1, laws of 1862, which are giving the Mayor of cities the first and second streets in a quadrangle. Committee on agriculture.

H. B. No. 40, by Ferguson, of Salt Lake—An act for the protection of title to property from states, cities, towns, corporations and municipalities. This was passed.

All the operating bills in the House passed today, Utah presented, in the person of Joseph A. L. Jones, a member of Congress, stating that representatives of the chamber had drawn a bearing on H. B. No. 38, with reference to the creation of a transportation committee.

The petition recited that there were entitled that if the measure passes, as it now reads, it would do a great and serious injustice to that section of the country. Referred to committee on railroads.

A petition to the same effect, signed by E. C. M. L., George M. Scott & Co., and the leading firms of the city, set forth the following:

"We petition respectfully represent that the are shippers and business men residing and doing business in Salt Lake City. That a bill for an act increasing (among other things) to $100,000 the amount of money to be now paid, before your honorable bodies, and that, in the opinion of the undersigned, and as we believe, in the experience and opinion of nearly all business men, the appointment of a committee to be raised to raise a question, is not desirable."

We believe it has been the experience in states where such committees have been appointed, that no good results have followed, and that it would be better to let the law stand, than to arbitrary judgment of anybody or herself. That with laws requiring reasonable charges, and against discrimination between persons, and of no changes for the service under such circumstances and conditions, as further legislation is needed.

This petition was also referred to the committee on railroads, together with one from Ogden business men, and one from Provo, all attacking Morrison's bill.

NOTES.

Egan's bill for railway crossings is in step in the right direction.

Most of the legislative committees have their hands full of business.

The election contest proceedings came on this evening before the House.

Through Senator Allison's influence it is discovered that his election gives him the presiding chair in the proceedings of the Senate.

The new House bill relating to steam holders seems to have some friends among legislators, those did the other measure introduced.

Among the visitors to the Senate today was the Hon. Chase, W. Peirce, who, as a member of several successive delegations to the Territory, has had much to do with chapter 100 legislation.
