The coroner's inquest in the Mamie Erdman inquest was continued yesterday afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock.

John N. Burt testified that he had written up the affidavit which was sworn to by Norman Hanson. The witness said that Norman Hanson had told him that he had testified falsely while on the witness stand...

Norman Hanson, the betrothed of Miss Erdman, was next called. He said that he had signed the affidavit and that he knew what it contained and that Attorney Halverson and others had intimidated him with threats which made him testify as he did when he was on the witness stand before...

Deputy Sheriff Bailey next testified that Mrs. Lucas, the wife of the late Ogden House, had told him that in her (Mrs. Lucas's) conversation with her (Mrs. Erdman's) father had said that her daughter was married. Wm. Moyes testified to similar facts. Mrs. Lucas having told him the same story, the inquest then took an adjournment until 10 o'clock this morning.

DEATH OF MRS. RICHARDSON. Mrs. Elizabeth Richardson, wife of the late Robert Richardson, died at the family residence rear of 651 Twenty-sixth street, yesterday, February 12, 1900, at 2:30 p. m., at the ripe age of 76 years, 3 months and 8 days.

Another Veteran Gone. Luther G. Porter, one of the early settlers of Weber county, passed to the great beyond yesterday, February 12th, at the age of 70 years. Mr. Porter was at one time a big land owner in this city and for many years he operated the Taylor flour mill.

Some Soaps. Aren't worth much more than a dollar a barrel. You can buy a quarter a barrel and make your own soap, but who wants to make soap to use and yet that's about what you get unless you know the soap. We know every piece of soap that comes here. Know that purity is stamped on every cake. No matter what kind you want, Castile, Glycerine or the fancy perfumed kinds, its pure. We wouldn't sell you impure drugs to put into your stomach. We won't sell you impure soap to put into the pores of your skin. Soaps come all prices up to 41 per cake.
