

WILLIAMS SAID HE WAS GUILTY.

Entered Fenton Residence, Pleads Guilty to Another Offense.

GOT MIXED UP ON NAMES.

After Plea is Taken Discovered that Defendant had been Arraigned for a Namesake's Crime.

George Williams, a morphine fiend, appeared before Judge Narrell this morning for arraignment on the charge of housebreaking. Williams pleaded guilty, not to the crime for which he was held to answer by Justice Timmony, but to an information charging Frank Williams with the same offense.

A NEW HOTEL PROJECT.

Fred Wey and Some Montana Men Buy a Fine Site.

It is Situated Near the Union Depot Grounds and Faces Pioneer Square Park—Will Build at Once.

A number of projects of more or less importance that have been held in abeyance pending final action on the Union Depot plan, are now being closed up.

JUDGE TIMMONY'S COURT.

Frank Rogers was accused of being hopelessly intoxicated yesterday and today.

AMUSEMENTS.

It has only been three months since "Pudd'head Wilson" was seen in Salt Lake, and that fact added to insufficient advertising, is responsible for the small turnout at the Theater last evening.

LATE LOCAL NEWS.

Frank Beckstead, a native of Canada, now of Salt Lake City, was admitted to citizenship by Judge Cherry this afternoon.

Sheriff Thomas Cleary of Chouteau county, Montana, is in the city on private business. This afternoon he was being driven around the city by Arthur L. Thomas, Jr.

The State board of corrections, composed of Gov. Wells, Thomas Kearns, M. B. Sowles and Elias A. Smith, held its regular monthly meeting at Warden Dow's place today.

Arthur Pratt, supervisor of the census for Utah, has sent to the applicants for positions as enumerators blank forms for them to fill up and return. The forms are so arranged as to test the ability of the applicants fairly.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock was the time set for United States Indian Agent H. P. Myton of the Uintah and Ouray agencies, White Rocks, to open bids for the grazing of cattle or sheep on the surplus lands of the Uintah reservation in Utah.

The remains of Roy Mayne will reach Salt Lake from Sumpter, Oregon, over the O. S. L. tomorrow morning. The funeral services will be held from the residence of his brother, A. H. Mayne, No. 115 south Fifth East, at 2 p. m. Interment will be at Mt. Olivet.

Geo. Austin, agricultural superintendent of the Utah Sugar company, was in town last night. He has been visiting the beet growers and says he is especially pleased with the careful manner in which the farmers have prepared the ground preliminary to the spring planting of the beet seed.

YOUNG GIRLS IN COURT.

Eva Jaspersen Thought to be Insane—The Other Sent to Orphan's Home.

Eva Jaspersen, charged with incontinence and truancy, appeared before Judge Norrell today to show cause why she should not be sent to the State industrial school for reformation.

There was quite a laugh among the court officials when the mistake was discovered, and it was agreed among them not to say a word to the newspaper reporters, and they didn't.

SENT TO THE ORPHANS' HOME.

Ida Shimming is the name of another young girl who appeared before the court today upon the charge of petty larceny. Her offense consisted of stealing a bicycle of the value of $40.

The following orders in probate matters were made by Clerk Blair today: Estate of John M. Ball, deceased; C. M. Ball appointed administrator, under a $4,000 bond; Frank Hoffman appointed to represent minor heir, Jennie B. Ball.

JURORS ACCEPTED.

The following named persons were called in Judge Cherry's court today: Menon, W. W. Wainstaff, Samuel B. Jackson, Walter J. Sloan, Eli M. James, H. C. Bleadale, John D. Lewis, Henry Quayle and Henry J. Wieseier. Joseph Woodmansee could not be found, and Hyrum Thompson, a city employe, was excused on his own motion.

Case Nearly Concluded.

The $10,000 damage suit of Loren Dickert against the Salt Lake City Railroad company is still occupying the attention of Judge Cherry and a jury in the civil branch over by Third district court. The plaintiff rested his case this forenoon, when the defense was given its innings. This afternoon it was thought the case would reach the jury before court adjourned this evening.

Suit on Notes.

The American Mining and Trust company is suing A. L. Simondi in the

WATCH WELL YOUR HOUSES

Another Bold Daylight Robbery Has Been Committed.

Richard W. Madsen's Home Entered

Yesterday Afternoon and $200 of Property Stolen.

Another family is suffering from the visit of daring robbers. Between 4 and 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the home of Richard W. Madsen, No. 647 East First South street, was ransacked by thieves and about $200 worth of jewelry and silverware purloined.

ORDINANCES BECOME A LAW.

Mayor Thompson today approved the ordinances passed at last evening's Council meeting, making it unlawful for junk and second-hand dealers to buy personal property of minors and for tobacco dealers to sell narcotics to boys under eighteen; also the ordinance re-creating the office of food inspector.

A NEW HOTEL PROJECT.

Fred Wey and Some Montana Men Buy a Fine Site.

It is Situated Near the Union Depot Grounds and Faces Pioneer Square Park—Will Build at Once.

A number of projects of more or less importance that have been held in abeyance pending final action on the Union Depot plan, are now being closed up.

JUDGE TIMMONY'S COURT.

Frank Rogers was accused of being hopelessly intoxicated yesterday and today.

AMUSEMENTS.

It has only been three months since "Pudd'head Wilson" was seen in Salt Lake, and that fact added to insufficient advertising, is responsible for the small turnout at the Theater last evening.

LATE LOCAL NEWS.

Frank Beckstead, a native of Canada, now of Salt Lake City, was admitted to citizenship by Judge Cherry this afternoon.

Sheriff Thomas Cleary of Chouteau county, Montana, is in the city on private business. This afternoon he was being driven around the city by Arthur L. Thomas, Jr.

The State board of corrections, composed of Gov. Wells, Thomas Kearns, M. B. Sowles and Elias A. Smith, held its regular monthly meeting at Warden Dow's place today.

Arthur Pratt, supervisor of the census for Utah, has sent to the applicants for positions as enumerators blank forms for them to fill up and return. The forms are so arranged as to test the ability of the applicants fairly.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock was the time set for United States Indian Agent H. P. Myton of the Uintah and Ouray agencies, White Rocks, to open bids for the grazing of cattle or sheep on the surplus lands of the Uintah reservation in Utah.

The remains of Roy Mayne will reach Salt Lake from Sumpter, Oregon, over the O. S. L. tomorrow morning. The funeral services will be held from the residence of his brother, A. H. Mayne, No. 115 south Fifth East, at 2 p. m. Interment will be at Mt. Olivet.

Geo. Austin, agricultural superintendent of the Utah Sugar company, was in town last night. He has been visiting the beet growers and says he is especially pleased with the careful manner in which the farmers have prepared the ground preliminary to the spring planting of the beet seed.

YOUNG GIRLS IN COURT.

Eva Jaspersen Thought to be Insane—The Other Sent to Orphan's Home.

Eva Jaspersen, charged with incontinence and truancy, appeared before Judge Norrell today to show cause why she should not be sent to the State industrial school for reformation.

There was quite a laugh among the court officials when the mistake was discovered, and it was agreed among them not to say a word to the newspaper reporters, and they didn't.

SENT TO THE ORPHANS' HOME.

Ida Shimming is the name of another young girl who appeared before the court today upon the charge of petty larceny. Her offense consisted of stealing a bicycle of the value of $40.

The following orders in probate matters were made by Clerk Blair today: Estate of John M. Ball, deceased; C. M. Ball appointed administrator, under a $4,000 bond; Frank Hoffman appointed to represent minor heir, Jennie B. Ball.

JURORS ACCEPTED.

The following named persons were called in Judge Cherry's court today: Menon, W. W. Wainstaff, Samuel B. Jackson, Walter J. Sloan, Eli M. James, H. C. Bleadale, John D. Lewis, Henry Quayle and Henry J. Wieseier. Joseph Woodmansee could not be found, and Hyrum Thompson, a city employe, was excused on his own motion.

Case Nearly Concluded.

The $10,000 damage suit of Loren Dickert against the Salt Lake City Railroad company is still occupying the attention of Judge Cherry and a jury in the civil branch over by Third district court. The plaintiff rested his case this forenoon, when the defense was given its innings. This afternoon it was thought the case would reach the jury before court adjourned this evening.

Suit on Notes.

The American Mining and Trust company is suing A. L. Simondi in the

Lydia E. Pinkham's

Vegetable Compound cures the ills peculiar to women. It tones up their general health, eases down overwrought nerves, cures those awful headaches and regulates menstruation.

It does this because it acts directly on the female organism and makes it healthy, relieving and curing all inflammation and displacements.

Nothing else is just as good and many things that may be suggested are dangerous. This great medicine has a constant record of cure. Thousands of women testify to it. Read their letters constantly appearing in this paper.

Somewhat varied reports have been circulated concerning the Seven Devils country as a coming mining center. The following article dated from Welset, and published by the Spokane Spokesman-Review may have some interest locally, containing as it does what appears to be a good description of the formation of the country. The article is as follows:

ORE AND GANGUE OCCURS IN CHUTES—MINERALIZATION OF VEINS IN LINES PARALLEL WITH GRANITE CONTACT.

FORMATION IS IDENTICAL.

When a new mining district comes into prominence the people on the outside desire to know what is the formation, in order in a measure to judge as to the probable outcome of development. There has been for years much contention as to the value of the mineral belt so pronounced in this, Washington county, and many have held that its merit was ephemeral.

JUDGE TIMMONY'S COURT.

Frank Rogers was accused of being hopelessly intoxicated yesterday and today.

AMUSEMENTS.

It has only been three months since "Pudd'head Wilson" was seen in Salt Lake, and that fact added to insufficient advertising, is responsible for the small turnout at the Theater last evening.

LATE LOCAL NEWS.

Frank Beckstead, a native of Canada, now of Salt Lake City, was admitted to citizenship by Judge Cherry this afternoon.

Sheriff Thomas Cleary of Chouteau county, Montana, is in the city on private business. This afternoon he was being driven around the city by Arthur L. Thomas, Jr.

The State board of corrections, composed of Gov. Wells, Thomas Kearns, M. B. Sowles and Elias A. Smith, held its regular monthly meeting at Warden Dow's place today.

Arthur Pratt, supervisor of the census for Utah, has sent to the applicants for positions as enumerators blank forms for them to fill up and return. The forms are so arranged as to test the ability of the applicants fairly.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock was the time set for United States Indian Agent H. P. Myton of the Uintah and Ouray agencies, White Rocks, to open bids for the grazing of cattle or sheep on the surplus lands of the Uintah reservation in Utah.

The remains of Roy Mayne will reach Salt Lake from Sumpter, Oregon, over the O. S. L. tomorrow morning. The funeral services will be held from the residence of his brother, A. H. Mayne, No. 115 south Fifth East, at 2 p. m. Interment will be at Mt. Olivet.

Geo. Austin, agricultural superintendent of the Utah Sugar company, was in town last night. He has been visiting the beet growers and says he is especially pleased with the careful manner in which the farmers have prepared the ground preliminary to the spring planting of the beet seed.

YOUNG GIRLS IN COURT.

Eva Jaspersen Thought to be Insane—The Other Sent to Orphan's Home.

Eva Jaspersen, charged with incontinence and truancy, appeared before Judge Norrell today to show cause why she should not be sent to the State industrial school for reformation.

There was quite a laugh among the court officials when the mistake was discovered, and it was agreed among them not to say a word to the newspaper reporters, and they didn't.

SENT TO THE ORPHANS' HOME.

Ida Shimming is the name of another young girl who appeared before the court today upon the charge of petty larceny. Her offense consisted of stealing a bicycle of the value of $40.

The following orders in probate matters were made by Clerk Blair today: Estate of John M. Ball, deceased; C. M. Ball appointed administrator, under a $4,000 bond; Frank Hoffman appointed to represent minor heir, Jennie B. Ball.

JURORS ACCEPTED.

The following named persons were called in Judge Cherry's court today: Menon, W. W. Wainstaff, Samuel B. Jackson, Walter J. Sloan, Eli M. James, H. C. Bleadale, John D. Lewis, Henry Quayle and Henry J. Wieseier. Joseph Woodmansee could not be found, and Hyrum Thompson, a city employe, was excused on his own motion.

Case Nearly Concluded.

The $10,000 damage suit of Loren Dickert against the Salt Lake City Railroad company is still occupying the attention of Judge Cherry and a jury in the civil branch over by Third district court. The plaintiff rested his case this forenoon, when the defense was given its innings. This afternoon it was thought the case would reach the jury before court adjourned this evening.

Suit on Notes.

The American Mining and Trust company is suing A. L. Simondi in the

THE MERITS OF THE SEVEN DEVILS

Mineral, Heath and Seven Devils District Compared.

FORMATION IS IDENTICAL.

When a new mining district comes into prominence the people on the outside desire to know what is the formation, in order in a measure to judge as to the probable outcome of development. There has been for years much contention as to the value of the mineral belt so pronounced in this, Washington county, and many have held that its merit was ephemeral.

Somewhat varied reports have been circulated concerning the Seven Devils country as a coming mining center. The following article dated from Welset, and published by the Spokane Spokesman-Review may have some interest locally, containing as it does what appears to be a good description of the formation of the country. The article is as follows:

ORE AND GANGUE OCCURS IN CHUTES—MINERALIZATION OF VEINS IN LINES PARALLEL WITH GRANITE CONTACT.

FORMATION IS IDENTICAL.

When a new mining district comes into prominence the people on the outside desire to know what is the formation, in order in a measure to judge as to the probable outcome of development. There has been for years much contention as to the value of the mineral belt so pronounced in this, Washington county, and many have held that its merit was ephemeral.

JUDGE TIMMONY'S COURT.

Frank Rogers was accused of being hopelessly intoxicated yesterday and today.

AMUSEMENTS.

It has only been three months since "Pudd'head Wilson" was seen in Salt Lake, and that fact added to insufficient advertising, is responsible for the small turnout at the Theater last evening.

LATE LOCAL NEWS.

Frank Beckstead, a native of Canada, now of Salt Lake City, was admitted to citizenship by Judge Cherry this afternoon.

Sheriff Thomas Cleary of Chouteau county, Montana, is in the city on private business. This afternoon he was being driven around the city by Arthur L. Thomas, Jr.

The State board of corrections, composed of Gov. Wells, Thomas Kearns, M. B. Sowles and Elias A. Smith, held its regular monthly meeting at Warden Dow's place today.

Arthur Pratt, supervisor of the census for Utah, has sent to the applicants for positions as enumerators blank forms for them to fill up and return. The forms are so arranged as to test the ability of the applicants fairly.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock was the time set for United States Indian Agent H. P. Myton of the Uintah and Ouray agencies, White Rocks, to open bids for the grazing of cattle or sheep on the surplus lands of the Uintah reservation in Utah.

The remains of Roy Mayne will reach Salt Lake from Sumpter, Oregon, over the O. S. L. tomorrow morning. The funeral services will be held from the residence of his brother, A. H. Mayne, No. 115 south Fifth East, at 2 p. m. Interment will be at Mt. Olivet.

Geo. Austin, agricultural superintendent of the Utah Sugar company, was in town last night. He has been visiting the beet growers and says he is especially pleased with the careful manner in which the farmers have prepared the ground preliminary to the spring planting of the beet seed.

YOUNG GIRLS IN COURT.

Eva Jaspersen Thought to be Insane—The Other Sent to Orphan's Home.

Eva Jaspersen, charged with incontinence and truancy, appeared before Judge Norrell today to show cause why she should not be sent to the State industrial school for reformation.

There was quite a laugh among the court officials when the mistake was discovered, and it was agreed among them not to say a word to the newspaper reporters, and they didn't.

SENT TO THE ORPHANS' HOME.

Ida Shimming is the name of another young girl who appeared before the court today upon the charge of petty larceny. Her offense consisted of stealing a bicycle of the value of $40.

The following orders in probate matters were made by Clerk Blair today: Estate of John M. Ball, deceased; C. M. Ball appointed administrator, under a $4,000 bond; Frank Hoffman appointed to represent minor heir, Jennie B. Ball.

JURORS ACCEPTED.

The following named persons were called in Judge Cherry's court today: Menon, W. W. Wainstaff, Samuel B. Jackson, Walter J. Sloan, Eli M. James, H. C. Bleadale, John D. Lewis, Henry Quayle and Henry J. Wieseier. Joseph Woodmansee could not be found, and Hyrum Thompson, a city employe, was excused on his own motion.

Case Nearly Concluded.

The $10,000 damage suit of Loren Dickert against the Salt Lake City Railroad company is still occupying the attention of Judge Cherry and a jury in the civil branch over by Third district court. The plaintiff rested his case this forenoon, when the defense was given its innings. This afternoon it was thought the case would reach the jury before court adjourned this evening.

Suit on Notes.

The American Mining and Trust company is suing A. L. Simondi in the

Lydia E. Pinkham's

Vegetable Compound cures the ills peculiar to women. It tones up their general health, eases down overwrought nerves, cures those awful headaches and regulates menstruation.

It does this because it acts directly on the female organism and makes it healthy, relieving and curing all inflammation and displacements.

Nothing else is just as good and many things that may be suggested are dangerous. This great medicine has a constant record of cure. Thousands of women testify to it. Read their letters constantly appearing in this paper.

Somewhat varied reports have been circulated concerning the Seven Devils country as a coming mining center. The following article dated from Welset, and published by the Spokane Spokesman-Review may have some interest locally, containing as it does what appears to be a good description of the formation of the country. The article is as follows:

ORE AND GANGUE OCCURS IN CHUTES—MINERALIZATION OF VEINS IN LINES PARALLEL WITH GRANITE CONTACT.

FORMATION IS IDENTICAL.

When a new mining district comes into prominence the people on the outside desire to know what is the formation, in order in a measure to judge as to the probable outcome of development. There has been for years much contention as to the value of the mineral belt so pronounced in this, Washington county, and many have held that its merit was ephemeral.

JUDGE TIMMONY'S COURT.

Frank Rogers was accused of being hopelessly intoxicated yesterday and today.

AMUSEMENTS.

It has only been three months since "Pudd'head Wilson" was seen in Salt Lake, and that fact added to insufficient advertising, is responsible for the small turnout at the Theater last evening.

LATE LOCAL NEWS.

Frank Beckstead, a native of Canada, now of Salt Lake City, was admitted to citizenship by Judge Cherry this afternoon.

Sheriff Thomas Cleary of Chouteau county, Montana, is in the city on private business. This afternoon he was being driven around the city by Arthur L. Thomas, Jr.

The State board of corrections, composed of Gov. Wells, Thomas Kearns, M. B. Sowles and Elias A. Smith, held its regular monthly meeting at Warden Dow's place today.

Arthur Pratt, supervisor of the census for Utah, has sent to the applicants for positions as enumerators blank forms for them to fill up and return. The forms are so arranged as to test the ability of the applicants fairly.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock was the time set for United States Indian Agent H. P. Myton of the Uintah and Ouray agencies, White Rocks, to open bids for the grazing of cattle or sheep on the surplus lands of the Uintah reservation in Utah.

The remains of Roy Mayne will reach Salt Lake from Sumpter, Oregon, over the O. S. L. tomorrow morning. The funeral services will be held from the residence of his brother, A. H. Mayne, No. 115 south Fifth East, at 2 p. m. Interment will be at Mt. Olivet.

Geo. Austin, agricultural superintendent of the Utah Sugar company, was in town last night. He has been visiting the beet growers and says he is especially pleased with the careful manner in which the farmers have prepared the ground preliminary to the spring planting of the beet seed.

YOUNG GIRLS IN COURT.

Eva Jaspersen Thought to be Insane—The Other Sent to Orphan's Home.

Eva Jaspersen, charged with incontinence and truancy, appeared before Judge Norrell today to show cause why she should not be sent to the State industrial school for reformation.

There was quite a laugh among the court officials when the mistake was discovered, and it was agreed among them not to say a word to the newspaper reporters, and they didn't.

SENT TO THE ORPHANS' HOME.

Ida Shimming is the name of another young girl who appeared before the court today upon the charge of petty larceny. Her offense consisted of stealing a bicycle of the value of $40.

The following orders in probate matters were made by Clerk Blair today: Estate of John M. Ball, deceased; C. M. Ball appointed administrator, under a $4,000 bond; Frank Hoffman appointed to represent minor heir, Jennie B. Ball.

JURORS ACCEPTED.

The following named persons were called in Judge Cherry's court today: Menon, W. W. Wainstaff, Samuel B. Jackson, Walter J. Sloan, Eli M. James, H. C. Bleadale, John D. Lewis, Henry Quayle and Henry J. Wieseier. Joseph Woodmansee could not be found, and Hyrum Thompson, a city employe, was excused on his own motion.

Case Nearly Concluded.

The $10,000 damage suit of Loren Dickert against the Salt Lake City Railroad company is still occupying the attention of Judge Cherry and a jury in the civil branch over by Third district court. The plaintiff rested his case this forenoon, when the defense was given its innings. This afternoon it was thought the case would reach the jury before court adjourned this evening.

Suit on Notes.

The American Mining and Trust company is suing A. L. Simondi in the Advertisement for H. Dinwoodey Furniture Co. featuring 'JUST IMPORTED' Arab Lace Curtains, Brussels Net Curtains, and various furniture coverings. Includes contact information for the company.

Advertisement for 'RACE HORSES TO BE SOLD' at auction, listing 'William H. Clark's Valuable Equines Will Go at Auction' and 'A New York dispatch this morning says the large stable of race horses owned by the late Wm. H. Clark, will be sold at auction at the Morris Park track May 5.'

Advertisement for 'SOLDIERS' ORGANIZATION' in this city, mentioning 'Philippine War Veterans Establish a Society' and 'Object of the Organization is to Perpetuate Friendship—Constitution Adopted—Officers Elected.'

Advertisement for 'YALE WANTS CONCESSIONS' from the University of California in reference to the Meets, mentioning 'A dispatch from Berkeley, Cal., today says: Track Manager Deane of the University of California has received a letter from the Yale track manager in reference to the dual meet to be held on May 5th.'

Advertisement for 'MONTHLY SPARRING MATCHES' and 'If the Rowan-McDonald Bout is a Financial Success', mentioning 'The sparring exhibition tonight will undoubtedly be witnessed by a good sized crowd of sports.'

Advertisement for 'TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY' with 'Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets', mentioning 'All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.'

Advertisement for 'KNOWN THE MONEY WAS STOLEN' and 'Witness Tells of the Keller & Co. and Dean & Co. Swindles', mentioning 'New York, March 14.—The trial of James B. Kellogg of the firm of E. S. Dean & Co. was resumed today.'

Advertisement for 'TICKET BROKERS' and 'BUY YOUR OUT RATE TICKETS FROM A. T. MOON & CO. 237 South Main Street.', mentioning 'STOCKS, INVESTMENTS AND BONDS.'

Advertisement for 'NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS' and 'Office of Board of Public Works, Salt Lake City, March 14th, 1900.', mentioning 'Sealed proposals will be received at this office until 1 o'clock p. m., Saturday, March 18th, for the work of excavating a trench 100 feet long, 12 feet wide, and 4 feet deep, for the purpose of laying a water main along the line of the city engineer's office.'

Advertisement for 'HUMOROUS' and 'The Waitress: "It looks as if the new boarder is going to stay." The Mises: "I noticed that he helped himself twice to the prunes."—Harper's Bazar.', mentioning 'Nixon: "Would you call Dickson a contrary man?" "Contrary? Why, that man would try to boggan up hill!"—Harper's Bazar.'

Advertisement for 'HUMOROUS' and 'Mrs. Dimpton: "I want you to get another doctor right in a hurry." "Dimpton: "What's the matter with this one?" "Mrs. Dimpton: "What do you suppose he said about baby? He told me he'd treat him like a human being!"—Harper's Bazar.'

Advertisement for 'HUMOROUS' and 'Dean: "You knew the money was used by Goslin in the Sam Keller company?" "Yes." "And he knew it was stolen?" "Yes." "And he was stealing money through the Keller company?" "Yes." "Then the Sam Keller company was a thieving concern as well as the Dean company?" "Yes." "Regarding the purchase by Keller & Weinmann, the witness said he never knew there was such a person as E. S. R."

Advertisement for 'HUMOROUS' and 'Dean: "You knew the money was used by Goslin in the Sam Keller company?" "Yes." "And he knew it was stolen?" "Yes." "And he was stealing money through the Keller company?" "Yes." "Then the Sam Keller company was a thieving concern as well as the Dean company?" "Yes." "Regarding the purchase by Keller & Weinmann, the witness said he never knew there was such a person as E. S. R."

Advertisement for 'HUMOROUS' and 'Dean: "You knew the money was used by Goslin in the Sam Keller company?"