BRAIN FOOD.

Is of Little Benefit Unless it is Digested. Nearly everyone will admit that as a nation we eat too much meat and too little of vegetables and the grains.

For business men, office men and clerks, and in fact everyone engaged in sedentary or indoor occupations, grains, milk and vegetables are much more healthful.

Only men engaged in a severe outdoor manual labor can live on a heavy meat diet and continue in health.

As a general rule, meat once a day is sufficient for all classes of men, women and children, and grains, fruit and vegetables should constitute the bulk of food eaten.

But many of the most nutritious foods are difficult of digestion and it is of no use to advise brain workers to eat largely of grains and vegetables where the digestion is too weak to assimilate them properly.

It is always best to get the best results from our food that come simple and harmless digestive should be taken after meals to assist the relaxed digestive organs, and several years of experience have proven Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets to be a very safe, pleasant and effective digestive and a remedy which may be taken daily with the best results.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets can hardly be called a patent medicine, as they do not act on the bowels nor any particular organ, but only on the food eaten, and they supply what weak stomachs lack, peptic diastase and by stimulating the gastric glands increase the natural secretion of hydrochloric acid.

People who make a daily practice of taking one or two Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal are sure to have perfect digestion, which means perfect health.

There is no danger of forming an indigestion habit, for the tablets contain absolutely nothing but natural digestive organs, and several years of experience have proven Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets to be a very safe, pleasant and effective digestive and a remedy which may be taken daily with the best results.

Ask your druggist for a fifty cent package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and after a week's use note the improvement in health, appetite and nervous energy.

ST. ANTHONY, IDAHO.

Rapid Growth of the Town—Now the County Seat.

Special Correspondence. St. Anthony, Idaho, March 23.—St. Anthony is the present county seat of Blaine county and is situated on the banks of the great Snake river.

There is not a town in the West which has made such rapid strides in improvements and business as St. Anthony. There is going to be a great agitation in the county about county seat affairs.

Rekberg is going to pull hard to get the county seat located here, but St. Anthony will hold it. The principal part of the business men here are from the East.

TRIBUTES OVER A DEAD ELDER.

Impressive Services at the Funeral of a Mormon Missionary.

IN CHRISTIANIA, NORWAY. Fellow Laborers of Elder Henry W. Berg Pay Tribute to Life and Character—Body Coming Home.

Christiania, Norway, March 6.—Memorial services were held in honor of Elder Henry W. Berg at Christiania, Norway, March 5, 1900, in the Latter-day Saints assembly rooms, which were tastefully draped in harmony with the occasion.

The following Elders from Zion were present: H. A. Pedersen, president of the Christiania conference; Edward Larsen, Emil Peterberg, Geo. A. Torgesen and Parley P. Jensen.

The services commenced by singing the Norwegian hymn No. 159, prayer was offered by Elder T. Jensen, the choir then rendered very feelingly the inspired words of "Oh my Father, Thou that Dwellst."

After which Elder Emil Peterberg, the former traveling companion of the dead missionary, spoke. He said that Elder Berg was one of the most promising young men that it has ever been his privilege to meet.

He had many times heard him bear a strong and faithful testimony to the Gospel, he doubted not but could understand the ways of God, we would see that Elder Berg had been called away for a wise and holy purpose.

Elder Parley P. Jensen said he had not personally known Elder Berg, yet he knew his work in days of yore, and was glad he had met one of his sons out in the world proclaiming the everlasting Gospel.

He said he had been acquainted with the deceased's father in days of yore, and was glad he had met one of his sons out in the world proclaiming the everlasting Gospel.
