

DESERET EVENING NEWS
TODAY'S WEATHER REPORT.
(Observations taken at 6 a. m. Mountain time.)
Salt Lake City—Barometer, 29.84; current temperature, 42; maximum temperature, 45; minimum temperature, 40; wind, north, 4, which is normal. Accumulated excess of temperature since first of month, 55. Accumulated deficiency of temperature since January 1st, 2.9 inches. Total precipitation from 6 a. m. to 6 p. m., trace. Accumulated excess of precipitation since first of month, 31 inch. Accumulated deficiency of precipitation since January 1st, 2.9 inches. Local forecast for Salt Lake City and vicinity: Fair tonight and Tuesday; stationary temperature.

SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS...

CIRCULATION
TODAY 17,035
January 1, 1899, 10,280.
(Issued Tuesdays and Fridays.)

OUR AIM: 20,000 by the 20th Century!

NO QUOTATIONS. HOLIDAY.
LOCAL BRIEFS.

A social will be given in the Westminster church on the 24th inst. by the young people of the church.
William Gay, formerly of troop K of the Ninth cavalry, has re-enlisted in the regiment at Fort Douglas. He has been assigned to troop C.

The children at the Orphans' home were delighted yesterday by a visit from the members of the Junior Epworth League of the First M. E. church, who presented them with Easter gifts and flowers.

The Republican ladies are preparing for a housewarming at the Utah Republican club on Friday evening. A fine musical and literary program is being arranged, and a ten minute address by Hon. Thomas Fitch will be one of the features.

Carbon (Wyo.) Journal: On the 27th inst. Thos. Hanks will leave for New York in company with his brother from Utah, and will sail on the St. Louis May 2nd for Southampton, England, where he will visit relatives for a couple of weeks and then proceed to Paris to take in the exposition.

The ladies auxiliary of the Caledonian club will give an entertainment on Thursday evening next in the Federated Trades hall on Second South street. An excellent program will be rendered, consisting of readings, Scotch songs and dances. A good band will be in attendance.

Davis County Clipper: William Grant and some others expect to start for Canada about the 20th of this month. They will drive about 1,000 head of cattle for James Eldredge and some of his brothers. The Eldredge brothers have purchased about 6,000 acres of land in the Queen's country and will engage in ranching there on an extensive scale.

Teton (Idaho) Peak: George Swartz was heard from last evening. He is at Mrs. Mary's hospital in Salt Lake City. Dr. Baskett performed an operation on his leg, removing part of the bone and George says, "tell all my friends I am feeling fine this morning (Friday). The doctor says he removed the cause and there is no reason why I will not be all right soon." This is good news, and it is sincerely hoped that George will be able to come home in a couple of weeks.

Boise Statesman: The funeral of Miss Bessie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Bassett, occurred Friday from the family residence in Central addition. A great many friends of the family were present. The offices in the state house were closed during the funeral, and the cause of the attending the obsequies. Friends from the state house sent beautiful floral pieces which they had secured in Salt Lake. The public school class in which the deceased belonged attended in a body, all the young ladies dressing alike. The funeral services were read by Rev. P. P. Hammons. The deceased was the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bassett and was very popular with her acquaintances. She was born in Salt Lake, June 3, 1881.

ZION'S SAVINGS BANK and Trust Co. the oldest and largest savings bank in Utah, pays 4 per cent interest on $1 or thousands. Start an account.

UTAH COMMERCIAL AND SAVINGS BANK Interest paid on savings. W. P. Armstrong, pres. F. W. Madson, vice-pres. J. E. Caine, cashier.

UTAH COAL. Castle Gate and Winter Quarters, Lump, Nut and Slack. D. J. SHARP, Agent. 73 South Main Telephone, 423.

HE STOLE PAPERS. Louis Edgar, a 12-year old news boy, was taken into custody early this morning by Officer Miller for stealing papers from the office's front yards. The youth was stealing the papers along South State street, when the officer happened along and took him in. Louis was detained at the station for a few hours, and after giving him a good lecture Chief Hilton allowed him to go.

THE CONFERENCE OF GOVERNORS.

Arid Land Question to be Discussed on Wednesday.

THOSE WHO WILL ATTEND.

Object is to Agree on a Plan of Legislation for Recommendation to Congress.

The conference of governors of western States to discuss the arid land question will take place at the hotel Knutsford on Wednesday of this week. There will be present Governor Wells, Governors Richards of Wyoming, Lee of South Dakota, Smith of Montana and Poynter of Nebraska. It is not certain that Governor Thomas of Colorado will be here. At present he is in Butte and writes to say he will endeavor to conclude his law business in time to come. Idaho's governor has written to say that he has been so long away from home that he fears he will be unable to attend. California's executive has not been heard from yet, neither has any word been received from the governor of New Mexico, who is now on the coast. Governor Murphy of Arizona will make an effort to be here as also will the governor of Nevada. Oregon's governor cannot come, and Washington will be represented by proxy.

The object of the gathering is to agree on a plan of legislation for recommendation to Congress, looking to the reclaiming of the arid lands of the West and to make them of the best possible service to the people.

BROTHERLY KINDNESS.

How James and William Show it to Each Other.

William and James Lewis, brothers, who reside at 626 west First South street demonstrated their brotherly love for each other last night by indulging in a quarrel and winding up in a knock-down and dry-out fight. Neighbors hearing the brawl sent for the police and the patrol responded immediately. James was caught and incarcerated behind the bars but the other managed to escape. Judging by the appearance of James whose face resembles a plate of scrambled eggs, he seemingly got the worst of the encounter.

FOR AN INDIA CORN DAY.

Movement to Send a Million Bushels of Kansas Corn.

The Governor's Proclamation Setting Apart Days to Contribute for India's Starving Millions.

The people of Kansas have inaugurated a movement for securing funds wherewith to send 1,000,000 bushels of Kansas corn or its equivalent to the famine stricken people of India. Governor Stanley is chairman of the committee having this work in charge. Its secretary and business agent is T. J. Anderson and treasurer F. D. Coburn, secretary of the State board of agriculture.

By proclamation the governor has called upon the people of the State to make their contributions of corn on Saturday, April 28, which will be known as "India Corn Day." On Sunday, April 29, to be known as "India Relief Sunday," collections of money will be taken in all churches, Sunday schools and among other Christian organizations, and on Monday, April 30, to be known as "School Children's India Relief Day," collections will be taken up in all the public schools and colleges. The idea is that each person shall contribute for the very least the price of a bushel of corn, and that the funds secured shall be used to purchase corn to send at once where most needed.

This movement is the outgrowth of suggestions by Rev. Charles M. Sheldon in the columns of the Topics Daily Capital during the week he was its editor. Of course no one is barred from participation in this grand work of Christian benevolence to aid a famishing people simply because of non-residence in Kansas. Contributions in any sum, large or small, can be remitted to Treasurer F. D. Coburn, Topeka, Kan. The committee will promptly forward its receipt for such sums and every effort will be used to see that the funds are reaching people for whom they were intended.

HOTEL AND PERSONAL.

Rev. Father Kiely is ill at the Holy Cross hospital.

J. P. Hayes, representing the Nickel Plate road, is at the Knutsford.

David D. Erwin and Miss Edna L. Erwin are here from Muskogee, Mich.

Nat. Brown, landlord of the Murray Hill hotel at Omaha, is at the Knutsford.

Tr. J. H. Alpine of De Lamar, Nev., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. R. M. Wilkinson of this city.

A. S. Watson has returned from Nebraska, where he has been visiting for a month.

Mrs. H. C. Clawson and daughter, of Boise, Idaho, returned home yesterday, after a month's visit in Salt Lake.

Messrs. Willard and L. A. White of Boston stopped at the Knutsford last night on their way to Boise. They are promoters of the Fayette iron electrical plant.

L. A. Johnson, of Santa Barbara, California, is en route from Colorado to Oregon to look after some mining interests there, and stopped at the White House last night. Mr. Johnson is a fruit grower of California.

Cullen-W. A. Wright, Chicago; H. D. Auld, Salida, Colo.; C. E. Osterloh, Provo.

White-M. Vaughn, Leadville; C. D. Berry and wife, Dillon; A. C. Hatch, Heber; Sarah Christensen, Vernal; V. A. Smith, Park City; Chris. Baltzer, Brannan, Idaho.

Walker-Lori Peterson, Seattle; Nels Dalton, Fort Scott, Kansas; R. D. Simpson, Kansas City; Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Nelson, Draper.

Kenyon-Mr. and Mrs. I. Cohen, Milwaukee; Th. Olsen and family, Astoria; M. L. Todd, Butte; J. F. Ramsey, Chicago; Chas. R. Smolov, St. Paul; T. H. Day, Chicago; W. Woodworth, Denver; Fritz Weickert, Leipzig, Germany.

DEATH CAME ON HIS BIRTHDAY.

Took Pres. Fry from Mortality the Day He Was Sixty-Nine.

DIED AT MORGAN, HIS HOME

Was in Salt Lake at Conference Time and Contracted a Severe Cold—Sketch of His Business Career.

A telegram was received by President Show this morning announcing the death at Morgan of Elder Richard Fry, president of the Morgan Stake, Utah. No particulars regarding the cause of death were given but it is known that President Fry was in Salt Lake at Conference, and that he contracted a severe cold at that time from which he suffered considerably and with which he was compelled to take to his bed. President Fry had been a sufferer from asthma for years and it is expected that this trouble was much aggravated by the contraction of the cold and it is not unlikely that the malady was responsible for his demise. President Fry was known as a very good man and his death will be greatly mourned by his many friends but particularly by those over whom he presided.

The deceased was born at East Down, Devonshire, England, April 15th, 1831. It will thus be seen that he died on the sixty-ninth anniversary of his birth. He came to Utah in 1860, crossing the Atlantic on the ship Underwriter and settled at South Morgan in the same year, which place he made his home to the time of his death. He was one of the first settlers of that section and always one of the most industrious and highly respected citizens of the county.

On the first of July, 1877, at the time of the organization of the Morgan Stake, he was elected its first counselor to President William G. Smith. Later he himself became president of the Stake and held the position at the time of his demise. For fourteen years he was treasurer of Morgan county. He was also superintendent of the Morgan Co-op, a position that he filled for fifteen years. He leaves a family and many friends to mourn his departure. Information had not been received this afternoon as to the time of his funeral.

NINTH WARD CONFERENCE.

New Bishop Installed—A Large and Interested Assembly.

The Ninth ward meeting house was filled to overflowing on Sunday evening, and places had to be occupied by many persons in the annex. The entire building had been renovated and newly decorated just previous to the decease of the late Bishop S. A. Woolley, and presented a very neat and pleasant appearance. After singing by the choir, and prayer by Elder A. H. Woolley, the sacrament was administered.

President Joseph P. Smith addressed the congregation, speaking in high terms of the labors and character of the deceased Bishop, and urging his family and the people of the ward to emulate his virtues. The speaker then read from the Doctrine and Covenants, section 124, showing that the Lord, by revelation, on January 19, 1841, gave to the Church by name its presiding officers, presidents of quorums, etc. But these were all to be presented at the general conference of the Church for approval or disapproval.

President Smith explained the proper order in the nomination of a Bishop and his counselors and other officers in the Church. It was not to come from the body of the people, but from the presiding authorities under the inspiration of the Lord, and then it was for the people to signify whether they would accept the person thus selected. He advised union and harmony and acquiescence in the choice, made so that there might be no schism or obstruction in the Church.

President Angus M. Cannon stated that the choice of a Bishop, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Samuel A. Woolley, had been made by the Presidency of the Stake and High Council, with the approval of the persons thus selected. He advised the name of Elder Jabez W. West, who was then sustained by the ward by unanimous vote. He was invited to state whether he would serve, and also to name whom he desired to act as his counselors.

Elder West expressed his willingness to act in the office and to serve the Lord and the people to the best of his ability. He named Elder Albaron H. Woolley as his first counselor, and Elder John Holt as his second counselor.

President Cannon explained that it was the privilege of the Bishop to choose his own counselors, with the approval of the authorities of the Stake and of the Church, and presented the names thus selected. They were unanimously sustained by the vote of the conference.

President C. W. Penrose made a few remarks in cordial commendation of the faithful labors of Elders John Thorsen and Taylor L. Woolley as counselors to the late Bishop, and explained that when a Bishop or President died or was removed, the office of counselors to him naturally became vacant.

President Cannon then presented the statistical report, which was accepted and filed, and the rest of the ward authorities who were all unanimously sustained.

President Joseph P. Smith, assisted by the Presidency of the Stake, next ordained Jabez W. West a High Priest and a Bishop, and set him apart as Bishop of the Ninth ward; Albaron H. Woolley was ordained a High Priest and set apart as first counselor, and John Holt was ordained a High Priest and set apart as second counselor to Bishop West.

President Cannon gave some instructions to the Bishop as to their duties, and to the local officers and members as Latter-day Saints.

After singing by the choir the benediction was pronounced by President Joseph E. Taylor.

A Testimonial from Old England. "I consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the best in the world for bronchitis," says Mr. William Savory, of Worrington, England. "It has saved my wife's life, she having been a martyr to bronchitis for over six years, being most of the time confined to her bed. She is now quite well. It is a great pleasure to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be able to publish testimonials of this character. They show that great good is being done, pain and suffering relieved and valuable lives restored to health and happiness by this remedy."

PASSED THROUGH LIFE TOGETHER.

Aged Couple Meet Death Almost at the Same Time.

PNEUMONIA WAS THE CAUSE

While the Solemn Cortege is Flung Away from the Grave of the Husband, the Wife Passes Away.

It seldom falls to the lot of husband and wife to tread the rugged path of life together for nearly half a century and then step down into the dark valley of the shadow of death together, and be wafted into eternity on the same breeze. While the coffin, containing the body of John W. Clark was being laid in its receptacle at Mt. Olivet yesterday, the spirit of his wife was released from its weary tabernacle, and as her husband had preceded her but a few months into this world 76 years ago, so he led the way by a few hours, back to the mansion on high.

Their lives had run parallel, and when their paths merged together 39 years ago, their spirits also seemed to be assimilated into one, and when death laid its cold hand upon one, the other also succumbed through sheer sympathy. So long had they lived together, that what affected one was felt by both.

The aged couple immigrated to Salt Lake from England thirty-eight years ago, and after arriving here, Mr. Clark engaged in shoe-making, and by the dint of industry and frugality managed to gather about him considerable property. He erected a comfortable little cottage at No. 446 west North Temple street, which was illuminated with the light of love and contentment, until the spark of life went out.

A little over a week ago Mr. Clark was stricken with pneumonia, and he yielded rapidly to the ravages of that malady. His aged body having fought the battle of life for nearly three score years and ten, was unable to meet the added struggle. His wife also, was seized with the same malady, and the old couple whose devotion to each other was as tender as a poet's dream, were torn hearts being in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in making the old couple as comfortable as possible. Mr. Clark, however, was beyond the assistance of any human hand, and on Thursday afternoon passed away. The shock fell lightly upon his wife, who was peculiarly contented, as though she were conscious that she would soon follow him. And so she did, he had but gone to explore the way for her, and while the solemn cortege of the elderly couple, they were discovered in their pitiful plight by a little girl who went to the house to have her shoes mended. She told the neighbors of the situation, and the members of the Salt Lake lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Clark was a member, being apprised of the condition of their brother's, at once called in medical aid, and spared no pains in