

MILLION ACRES, MILLION SHEEP.

Utah Men on Critical Situation in the Fight for Range.

MEET WITH WYOMING MEN.

Territory Becoming Restricted and Large Concerns Talk—Will Blood be shed Before the Matter is Settled?

An interesting struggle is going on in Wyoming over the distribution of public lands for sheep-grazing purposes. Public lands for sheep-grazing in Utah...

WILD SCRAMBLE.

There is a wild scramble among the sheep-growers of Wyoming for good grazing land. The wool growers of Carbon, Sweetwater and Uinta counties...

OCDEN BANK STOCK CASE.

Supreme Court Grants a Writ of Error on Petition of Plaintiff.

MR. MACKAY TALKS.

Mr. Mackay of Uinta county stated that the wool growers of his county, and several other counties...

COMMITTEE APPOINTED.

It was finally decided to appoint a committee to see if an agreement could be reached. The following were named as such committee: John Mackay, Uinta county; William Daley, Carbon county; James Young, Sweetwater county; C. E. Wantland, committee at large.

FOR COMPROMISE.

While the Carbon county people are asking for all the range west of Table creek as a compromise, they would be willing to accept a lease to Table rock. On the other hand, the western people are asking that they be given the range on Red desert, but would be willing to compromise on Tipton.

WAS NO AGREEMENT.

No agreement being possible, the report of the committee was, on motion, passed on the table. A resolution was then thinking the visiting wool growers to come to an agreement regarding this important matter, and expressing the hope that whatever action may be eventually taken the harmonious relations that have heretofore existed...

might be continued always. One member suggested that all the sheepmen in the three counties go into a pool and lease all the lands, but there were not many who thought such an arrangement would be practical.

Mr. Kinney remained in town another day after all the others had gone home and endeavored to have the matter adjusted, but without any definite result.

ESTATE OF K. DONNELLAN.

Ed. W. Duncan Asks to be Released as Guardian of the Young Man.

About three years ago Col. J. W. Donnellan petitioned the probate court for the appointment of a guardian for his son Kenneth, who, it was stated, was mentally incapable of transacting business; that he had contracted debts, which his father had paid, and that he allowed himself to be victimized by evil designing persons, against whom he was seemingly unable to protect himself.

MR. BYNUM THE ISSUE.

The senator was discussing the case of William D. Bynum of Indiana, named for appraiser of New York. It was a place which, under the law, goes to the Democrats, and the Democrats, and in fact, all the opposition to the Republicans in the Senate, oppose him.

WILL GO TO MERCUR.

Rev. C. A. Edwards Accepts a Call to First M. E. Church There.

SMALL BLAZE LAST NIGHT.

Considerable alarm was occasioned last night by a fire which started in S. C. Ewing's chicken coop at the rear of the Cullen. The blaze extended to some rubbish near McCoy's stable and made a great deal of smoke.

FOR THE PRINTERS.

Representative Heatwole of Minnesota is a friend of the printers. He has introduced and is urging the passage of a bill prohibiting the government from printing or engraving on stamped envelopes anything save the stamp.

British Unprogressiveness.

London, April 19.—The Times today begins a series of articles on "American Engineering Competition," written by a special correspondent, who dilates upon the "indifference displayed by British manufacturers toward the immense developments in America" and upon the certainty of a "serious rivalry" which will be the result of the home demand in the United States.

Strike May be Ended.

New York, April 19.—The contracting firm of Coleman, Breuchard & Coleman, may after all, end the strike at the Cornell dam and its curbs by adding $16 a day to its pay roll, as it has made known its willingness to give the laborers closed up hand drills $1.50 a day of ten hours, the compromise rate asked by the strikers.

SENATORIAL COURTESY

MAJORITY NOT DICTATORIAL

Not Having Two-Thirds of Senate It Frequently Needs Democratic Votes—Opposition to Bynum.

Special Correspondence. Washington, April 18.—Probably in no other legislative body on earth is there such a necessity to maintain a certain amount of courtesy and forbearance as in the United States Senate.

UNDERGROUND THUG'S DEN

Policemen Discover One in a Basement Vault in Chicago.

Reached by a Subterranean Passage—How the Police Fell in—Men Arrested and Fined.

Chicago, April 18.—An underground thug's den has been discovered by the police in the heart of the business district. The retreat, which shows signs of an occupancy of several months, is a basement vault in the ruins of the A. C. McClurg book store.

CLERGYMEN COMING.

Will Plan for Missionary Work All Over the World. New York, April 19.—The White Star liner Teutonic, due here today from Liverpool, has on board a large number of clergymen who are coming here to attend the Ecumenical conference on foreign missions, which meets in Carnegie hall on March 21.

Eight Hour Bill.

Washington, April 18.—The House sub-committee on labor, in charge of Gardner eight-hour bill, reached a decision today on the final form of the bill and on several amendments, all of which will be reported to the full committee on labor next Friday, when it is expected that final action will be taken.

TO-DAY!

"To-morrow, didst thou say? asked Cotton: 'Go to, I will not hear of it. Wisdom disclaims the word, nor holds society with those that own it. 'Tis Fancy's child, and Folly is its father."

TO-DAY!

The time to do is TO-DAY. Procrastination has brought to the grave thousands who should be living.

BRITISH IN A TIGHT FIX.

Governor of Gold Coast Colony Appealing for Relief. Kumassi is Closely Invested by Ashantis, and the Situation is Very Grave.

Accra, Gold Coast Colony, West Africa April 18.—News has been received here that Kumassi is closely invested and that the situation will become exceedingly grave if relief is delayed.

A British officer who is in command of an important station north of Kumassi says the relief is so far from coming soon it will be impossible to hold out.

The first relief force is expected to arrive at Kumassi today and it will attempt to force the cordon.

Natives here are convinced that British influences are operating against the British.

VANDERBILT'S BIG ESTATE. Filing of Papers Debated to Avoid the War Tax.

New York, April 18.—The appraised valuation of the estate of Cornelius Vanderbilt amounts to about $60,000,000. Excluded from the residuary estate which is held in trust for Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt, the valuation of properties, calculated from the amount of inheritance tax, is only $2,000,000.

This inheritance tax amounts to $200,000, which has been paid and receipted for by Comptroller Coler.

The estate of Cornelius Vanderbilt was supposed to have been worth $100,000,000, but the late Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt's death last September, Chauncey M. Depew estimated that the entire estate was worth $90,000,000, but it is estimated that this was a most conservative estimate and made only to assist those attempting to get some idea of the amount of the residuary estate coming to Alfred.

According to the terms of the Vanderbilt will, in addition to the $1,250,000 received from the trust fund left by his father, Alfred received a direct inheritance from his father of $1,000,000.

Because of the government war tax the filing of the report of the appraisers in the surrogate's office has been deferred. This tax is 3 1/2 per cent on all estates above $100,000.

Action in the Supreme court of the United States is pending testing the constitutionality of the federal transfer tax.
