This rare work of nearly 2,400 pages, each volume weighing 1 1/4 pounds, beautifully bound in embossed leather, issued by Funk and Wagnalls of London and New York, is now on sale at the Desert News office. One hundred volumes have just been received. This is the work in the compilation of which Dr. James E. Talmage was engaged as one of the 200 editors. Its thoroughness is well illustrated by its treatment of the single word "Quorum," as follows:

"Quorum." 1. Such a number of persons of any deliberative or corporate body as is necessary for the legal transaction of business, unless otherwise ordered, a majority. 2. (Law) Certain designated persons or officers constituted as JUSTICES OF THE QUORUM, without the presence of some one of whom the others could not act. 3. Mor. Ch. COLONISTS IN A BLIZZARD

Terrible Experience of Companies 2, 3 and 4 - In Rain and Snow Nearly Sixty Hours.

Little Child Succumbs to Pneumonia - Fifteen Miles to Feeding Place.

Special Correspondence.

Kemmerer, Wyo., April 30.—This part of the country has experienced one of the severest blizzards ever witnessed in Wyoming, and caught the camps of the Big Horn colonists, twenty miles northeast of Kemmerer, totally unprepared for its terrible rigors.

William Dickson of Morgan City has just come in and stated to the "News" correspondent that it began to rain Friday noon and rained till Saturday noon, then turned into snow, and a blizzard of the worst kind continued till dark Sunday night.

As the company had no hay to feed their teams the animals suffered with hunger, as they had to be tied to the wagons to prevent loss. The horses at the end of the dispoles and chawed off some of the tent poles sticking out of the end of the wagons. The men thought to try and drive the horses to the close range, which was fifteen miles east, but were afraid the horses would perish before they could get them there, as well as the men.

One of the sad features of the trip was the death of a little child, the daughter of the little 5-year-old daughter of Leuther J. H. Dickson of Morgan, Utah, who died Sunday night at 10 o'clock, supposed to be of pneumonia, and is now lying in its casket here, and will be shipped back to Morgan for burial. The sorrow-stricken mother could not return with the child on account of having other small children to care for. Besides this the roads were almost impassable from the camp to Kemmerer. The drivers, driven from the axes of the buggy dragged the snow in many places. It took Brother Dickson nearly all day to get there, and had to wade through the snow, as one horse gave out.

J. H. Dickson, the father of the child, came to help the family on the road as far as Kemmerer, then went back to Woodruff, thinking the little daughter was getting along O. K. This information in obtained from the son of J. H. Dickson. Companies 2 and 4 are the ones that were in this storm. They expect if possible to get to the ranch spoken of by tonight where there is plenty of hay.

The actual fall of snow is about 18 inches, but is not so deep all over, as it is blown into drifts.

Brother Dickson says that no fear need be entertained by relatives, as they will get through all right.

Annual Banquet of the Pan-Hellenic Society.

WIT AND WISDOM RAMPANT.

Old College Days are Revived, and the Ladies' Literary Club Responds to Merry Song and Witty Speech.

Having recovered from the previous one, the members of the Pan-Hellenic society of Utah, held their second annual banquet, in the rooms of the Ladies' Literary club, last night.

There was a flood of wit and wisdom, an epigrammatic feast, and a profusion of beautiful flowers. In one end of the banquet hall, the New Grand orchestra occupied a platform, and discoursed beautiful music, while the devotees of the classic past regaled themselves.

During the evening the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: William Iglehart for Archon, George Smith for Grammatheus, A. H. Sawyer for King, J. A. Tierman, J. C. Thorne, Wisconsin, for Treasurer, J. C. Thorne, Wisconsin, for Executive Committee.

The reading of the list of those who were chosen provoked hearty applause, and a few for the Jolly "Yalies" were sung for all the new deities.

The toasts were especially fine, and elicited the heartiest applause. George L. Nye, the toastmaster, began the toasting by believing himself of a few appropriate remarks, and then introduced Dr. Critchlow, who highly amused the company by relating some of his philippic experiences, and making a few passing remarks on Dewey.

William Iglehart responded to the toast, "When Greek Meets Greek," and in a most interesting manner, and an effort on its part to obtain cleaner politics.

The Faculty" was defined upon by Professor George M. Marshall, and William D. Thompson edited the banquetees on the question of annexation and extension.

The speech of the evening was made by Edward E. Ferry, and every member served each his way to his domicile.

Franklin served the menu, which was as follows: Olympian Cocktail. Blue Point. Celery. Salted Almonds. Consomme en Tasse.

A Very Remarkable Remedy. "It is with a good deal of pleasure and satisfaction that I recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Druggist A. W. Sawtelle, of Hartford, Conn. "A lady customer, seeing the remedy offered for sale on my show case, said to me: 'I really believe that medicine saved my life the past summer while at the shore,' and she became so enthusiastic over its merits that I at once made up my mind to recommend it in the future. Recently a gentleman came into my store and complained of colic pains that he sank at once to the floor. I gave him a dose of this remedy which he took. I repeated the dose and in fifteen minutes he was on his feet, smilingly informing me that he felt as well as ever."

BETTER THAN THE KNIFE.

Pyramid Pile Cure Cures Piles Quickly Painlessly, Without Danger.

People go along for years, suffering with piles. They try this, and that, and the other thing, trying to get a physician to get them treated from a physician. They obtain temporary relief, maybe, but they are never quite cured, a little strain in the bowels, excessive fatigue, a little constipation, or a little diarrhoea, and the piles come back.

They don't seem to amount to much, but they banish sleep and appetite. No position is comfortable. There is intense local pain and that dreadful agonizing feeling of weight in the perineum.

Maybe in the early stages some of the many salves on sale will afford temporary relief. If the case is of long standing there is only one speedy and sure remedy. It is Pyramid Pile Cure. Even in light cases it is the safest thing you can use. Other applications may cure you, but they will be surgical operations, and their attendant dangers and discomforts are better than the knife.
