

FIFTY-FIRST YEAR.

TRYING TO GROWD OUT ROOSEVELT.

Old Politicians Want the Popular Soldier-Governor to Say He Won't be Vice President.

Philadelphia, June 18.—From a speech...

error Roosevelt and he is strong in his denunciation of the effort to force the nomination upon the governor.

PHILADELPHIA, June 18.—From a speech...

PEOPLE WANT ROOSEVELT.

The leaders are being serenaded and the hotel-corridors are jammed with the shouting, struggling crowds.

MCKINLEY AS LEADER.

In the hotels, the delegates were busy holding state meetings, selecting the committee and distributing badges.

A CONFERENCE HELD.

Philadelphia, June 18.—Towards 11 o'clock today Governor Roosevelt held an active work to stem the tide of nomination in favor of his nomination.

ROOSEVELT NEVER REFUSED.

"But I have never asserted," argued Governor Roosevelt, "that I would decline if nominated. I do not want to make it a question of whether I can make if the convention fails to listen to my protest."

HANNA OBJECTS TO ROOSEVELT.

It transpired that during the conference in Roosevelt's room, Senator Hanna combated the popular impression that Roosevelt is the only man who can be nominated and said:

KANSAS WANTS ROOSEVELT.

A delegation from Kansas, headed by the candidate for United States senator, J. B. Burton, called, and the governor chatted with him.

TRIPP'S FRIENDS ANXIOUS.

A delegation from South Dakota which called upon Governor Roosevelt about noon, got perhaps the clearest statement from him that has yet been put in quotation marks.

ARGUMENTS IN HAWORTH CASE

Commenced This Afternoon by County Attorney Streeper.

WILL SOON REACH JURY.

Will be Submitted on Tuesday Night or Wednesday Morning—More Expert Testimony Today.

ISPECIAL TO THE "NEWS." Farmington, July 18.—In all probability the Haworth murder case will go to the jury on Tuesday night or Wednesday morning.

The testimony was all in before the noon recess was taken today and at 1:30 p. m., County Attorney Streeper commenced the opening argument for the State.

He will be followed by Attorneys Weber and Hamilton for the defense and E. M. Allison will close for the State.

This morning the State called Dr. E. I. Rich of Ogden to the stand. He testified that on May 8th he had an interview with Haworth, in the jail, and at that time found him to be perfectly sane.

The defense agreed that Dr. E. C. Rich would testify to the same effect if called, so the examination of that witness was made unnecessary.

By stipulation it was agreed that B. F. Grant, of Salt Lake, delivered lectures in the Third ward, at Ogden, on January 13th and March 8th, 1899. The point in this is that witness for the defense testified Haworth had been at a lecture delivered by Mr. Grant on the night of the murder.

H. G. Grant, a horse dealer of San Francisco, was called by the State to testify to a certain conversation had with Reaves at Redding, Cal., on the day before the latter's arrest. This was objected to by the defense on the ground that it was not proper rebuttal, the same question not having been asked Reaves.

The court sustained the objection, but permitted the State to recall Reaves, who, on the stand, denied having had such a conversation.

Grant was then called and stated that the day before the arrest, he asked him why he didn't return to Utah. Reaves said that he would come only if he did the "d—mromons" would put a rope around his neck and kill him.

"Why so," inquired the witness, "because I was with Nick on the night when he killed the old man."

The defense undertook to get the witness to modify this statement and asked if Reaves did not say simply that he was with Nick on the night when the old man was killed, but Grant stuck to his statement.

Dr. Scott was called by the defense to reply to some statements made by Dr. Glavin, the famous Idaho expert, but this was ruled out and both sides rested.

The arguments are now in progress.

FOR ASSISTING BROWN TO ESCAPE

Frisco Saloon Man is Entertained by a Woman.

A liquor dealer from Frisco, Utah, presented himself at police headquarters Saturday evening and poured forth a tale of woe.

He said that he had been entertaining a young woman, who took his $150 gold watch to remember him by. The victim outlined the day's program, which included the races, the lake, and finally ending up at Fairney's roadhouse on State road.

At that place, he said, his female companion took his watch while he was indulging in slumbers. The woman has been located as a denizen of Commercial street.

INFORMATION WANTED.

Daniel Guilfoyle, of Dover, New Hampshire, writes to the "News" enquiring after the whereabouts of one Thomas Guilfoyle who left his New England home in 1850 with the avowed intention of going west.

He would now be about 48 years old. Any information that can be given to Daniel Guilfoyle will be highly appreciated.

OLDEST MEMBER OF THE CHURCH.

A letter has been received by the "News" from Mrs. Lucy D. W. Allen, written by herself in her eighty-fifth year, and without the aid of spectacles, claiming to be the oldest living member in the Church, having been baptized on November 15, 1850.

The prosecution thought it would use proverb among Silver Republicans in Utah: "No more paramount issues for me. If any man wants my vote he has got to be on my ticket."

All the delegates of course are for McKinley for President, and in case Roosevelt will accept the nomination they are for him for Vice President, though they are unwilling to force it upon him against his will.

Governor Wells has strong leaning in favor of Judge Bartlett Tripp for Vice President, on account of his friendship for Utah and the West, and thinks the other delegates from Utah will support Tripp if he develops strength enough in other western States to warrant it.

Much interest centers in the meeting to take place at noon today at the Utah headquarters, when the delegates will decide who is to be national committee-man from Utah. It is believed there will be a deadlock.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 18.—After a two hours' meeting, the delegates called an urgent session of the committee.

The vote stood Wells, Kearns and Loose for O. J. Salsbury; Brown, Sutherland and Hanson for W. S. McCowan.

Mr. Loose is quoted as being the author of a saying which is regarded as a

CHINA OPENS WAR ON OTHER NATIONS.

Seventeen Forts at Taku Fire on the Warships and Are Quickly Silenced and Captured.

Magazine Exploded—British Have Four Men Wounded and a Gunboat Damaged—Japan and Russia Landing Large Forces—No Word from Pekin—Foreign Legations There are Taken—Ninth U. S. Infantry Ready to Sail, but Delayed by a Typhoon—International Troops Reported Back at Tien Tsin—Troops Sent From British India—Russia Demands Indemnity.

Washington, June 18.—The navy department has been informed by Admiral Kempff that the Taku forts have fired on the foreign warships and after a brief engagement surrendered.

London, June 18.—A dispatch from Chefoo under today's date says: "The forces of the combined fleets occupied the Taku north forts yesterday after exploding a magazine. The British gunboat Algerine was damaged, and two of her officers and four men were wounded."

"Japan and Russia are reported to be landing a large force of troops. "All is quiet here."

KEMPF SENDS THE FIRST NEWS.

London, June 18, 5:15 p. m.—The dispatch of the Associated Press from Admiral Kempff, dated Washington, containing the admiral's report of the engagement at Taku was the first news Lord Salisbury received of the capture of the Taku forts.

The British government was aware that an engagement was proceeding, but it was ignorant of the result, and the greatest satisfaction is evinced.

The officials of the foreign office say no word has been received from the British minister at Pekin, Sir Claude MacDonald, since June 12, and the government is ignorant as to whether the legations at the Chinese capital have been captured or not. The admirals on the spot are relied on to overcome all trouble. Admiral Seymour, the British commander, not being hampered by orders, and any requests which he may make will be promptly met.

GERMANY REPORTS.

Berlin, June 18, 1:30 p. m.—The German consul at Chefoo cables that an engagement is proceeding at Taku between the Chinese forts and the foreign warships.

SEVENTEEN FORTS ENGAGED.

London, June 18.—Shanghai is the front again with the statement that the Taku forts have been occupied by the international troops. According to a dispatch the arrival of the Japanese fleet upon the warships, whereupon the fleet replied in kind and silenced the Chinese guns. The international forces subsequently landed and seized the forts.

The news of this engagement is stated to have been brought to Chefoo by a Japanese warship, but the date of the occurrence is not given. According to a dispatch the Chinese bombardment of the forts was a failure, and the Japanese fleet replied in kind and silenced the Chinese guns. The international forces subsequently landed and seized the forts.

FOREIGN LEGATIONS TAKEN.

An official dispatch from the German consul at Chefoo, received in Berlin, confirms the arrival of a Japanese torpedo boat with the following message: "The Japanese torpedo boat reports that the legations at Pekin have been taken."

A later dispatch from the same consul in Berlin this morning states that an engagement is proceeding to Taku between the Chinese forces and the foreign warships.

Berlin also has official information from Shanghai referring to the interruption of telegraph lines. No trustworthy news whatever is obtainable of the events transpiring in Pekin.

NINTH U. S. INFANTRY EN ROUTE.

Washington, June 18.—The war department confirms the report that the Ninth infantry has been ordered from Manila to China. Colonel Liscom commands the regiment, which has its headquarters at Manila, about two hours' distance by rail from Manila. War department officials say that the regiment probably is already aboard the transport and ready to sail for China.

HELD BY A TYPHOON.

Washington, June 18.—The war department has received the following cablegram from Gen. MacArthur at Manila, dated yesterday: "Ninth infantry, Col. Liscom, ordered to Shanghai on Logan; transport Port Albert; probably start 24th. Typhoon delay movement."

COMMUNICATION REOPENED.

New York, June 18.—The Great Northern Telegraph company has issued a notice to the Commercial Cable company to the effect that the lines to the Far East are in order again.

The central cable office of the W. U. T. Co. this morning issued the following: "Telegraphic communication with Taku and Tien Tsin has been re-established via the Siberian and Helamoro routes."

The Commercial Cable company also makes a similar announcement.

INTERNATIONAL TROOPS RETURN.

London, June 18, 4:58 p. m.—The admiralty office has received the following official dispatch from Chefoo under today's date: "The Japanese man-of-war Teiyashi has just arrived from Taku. She reports that the commander-in-chief and troops are back at Tien Tsin."

BRITISH TROOPS TO THE FRONT.

Simla, June 18.—In consequence of the gravity of the Chinese situation, the seventh Bengal infantry has been ordered to proceed to Hongkong.

RUSSIA DEMANDS DAMAGES.

London, June 18.—A dispatch from Shanghai says Russia has demanded fifty million taels indemnity for the damage done to the Chinese railroads in which Russians are interested.

FIGHT LASTED SEVEN HOURS.

Berlin, June 18.—The German consul at Chefoo telegraphs that a Japanese torpedo boat from Taku has brought the following: "The Chinese laid torpedoes in the Taku river and collected troops from the forts. The foreign commanders assembled on the Russian flag-ship and addressed an ultimatum to the commanders of the Taku forts, summoning them to withdraw their troops before 2 o'clock June 17. At 1 o'clock the guns of the forts opened fire to which the Russian, British, French and Japanese warships replied. The bombardment lasted seven hours. Two British ships in the river, between the forts, are reported to have been sunk. The telegraph line and railroad between Tien Tsin and Taku was destroyed. Communication by water is also threatened."

KEMPF WANTS INSTRUCTIONS.

Washington, June 18.—The navy department has acknowledged the receipt of two cablegrams received from Admiral Kempff, dated Washington, containing the admiral's report of the engagement at Taku was the first news Lord Salisbury received of the capture of the Taku forts.

The British government was aware that an engagement was proceeding, but it was ignorant of the result, and the greatest satisfaction is evinced.

The officials of the foreign office say no word has been received from the British minister at Pekin, Sir Claude MacDonald, since June 12, and the government is ignorant as to whether the legations at the Chinese capital have been captured or not. The admirals on the spot are relied on to overcome all trouble. Admiral Seymour, the British commander, not being hampered by orders, and any requests which he may make will be promptly met.

GERMANY REPORTS.

Berlin, June 18, 1:30 p. m.—The German consul at Chefoo cables that an engagement is proceeding at Taku between the Chinese forts and the foreign warships.

SEVENTEEN FORTS ENGAGED.

London, June 18.—Shanghai is the front again with the statement that the Taku forts have been occupied by the international troops. According to a dispatch the arrival of the Japanese fleet upon the warships, whereupon the fleet replied in kind and silenced the Chinese guns. The international forces subsequently landed and seized the forts.

FOREIGN LEGATIONS TAKEN.

An official dispatch from the German consul at Chefoo, received in Berlin, confirms the arrival of a Japanese torpedo boat with the following message: "The Japanese torpedo boat reports that the legations at Pekin have been taken."

UTAHANS AT PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Republican Delegation and Others—Delegates for McKinley and Roosevelt, if the Latter Wishes—C. E. Loose and Silver Republicans—National Committeeman.

[SPECIAL TO THE "NEWS."] Philadelphia, Pa., June 18.—The regular delegates to the convention are all here. Governor Wells and Messrs. Kearns and Loose are comfortably housed at the Continental, while Senator Brown and Messrs. Sutherland and Hanson are at the Flanders. Other Utah people in evidence are State Chairman Walton, Judge Bartch, Mr. P. H. Lannan, and Alternates Clark, Homer and Mrs. Jones.

The Utah headquarters are at the Continental, and Governor Wells, who presides there, was busy all day yesterday making the acquaintance of visiting delegates and newspaper men.

The morning papers all have brief sketches of Utah's delegates, Messrs. Kearns and Loose coming in for the largest share of attention because of their pronounced silver views four years ago, and their perfect alignment with the Republican party.

Mr. Loose is quoted as being the author of a saying which is regarded as a proverb among Silver Republicans in Utah: "No more paramount issues for me. If any man wants my vote he has got to be on my ticket."

All the delegates of course are for McKinley for President, and in case Roosevelt will accept the nomination they are for him for Vice President, though they are unwilling to force it upon him against his will.

Governor Wells has strong leaning in favor of Judge Bartlett Tripp for Vice President, on account of his friendship for Utah and the West, and thinks the other delegates from Utah will support Tripp if he develops strength enough in other western States to warrant it.

Much interest centers in the meeting to take place at noon today at the Utah headquarters, when the delegates will decide who is to be national committee-man from Utah. It is believed there will be a deadlock.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 18.—After a two hours' meeting, the delegates called an urgent session of the committee.

The vote stood Wells, Kearns and Loose for O. J. Salsbury; Brown, Sutherland and Hanson for W. S. McCowan.

Mr. Loose is quoted as being the author of a saying which is regarded as a proverb among Silver Republicans in Utah: "No more paramount issues for me. If any man wants my vote he has got to be on my ticket."

All the delegates of course are for McKinley for President, and in case Roosevelt will accept the nomination they are for him for Vice President, though they are unwilling to force it upon him against his will.

Governor Wells has strong leaning in favor of Judge Bartlett Tripp for Vice President, on account of his friendship for Utah and the West, and thinks the other delegates from Utah will support Tripp if he develops strength enough in other western States to warrant it.

Much interest centers in the meeting to take place at noon today at the Utah headquarters, when the delegates will decide who is to be national committee-man from Utah. It is believed there will be a deadlock.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 18.—After a two hours' meeting, the delegates called an urgent session of the committee.

The vote stood Wells, Kearns and Loose for O. J. Salsbury; Brown, Sutherland and Hanson for W. S. McCowan.

Mr. Loose is quoted as being the author of a saying which is regarded as a proverb among Silver Republicans in Utah: "No more paramount issues for me. If any man wants my vote he has got to be on my ticket."

All the delegates of course are for McKinley for President, and in case Roosevelt will accept the nomination they are for him for Vice President, though they are unwilling to force it upon him against his will.

Governor Wells has strong leaning in favor of Judge Bartlett Tripp for Vice President, on account of his friendship for Utah and the West, and thinks the other delegates from Utah will support Tripp if he develops strength enough in other western States to warrant it.

Much interest centers in the meeting to take place at noon today at the Utah headquarters, when the delegates will decide who is to be national committee-man from Utah. It is believed there will be a deadlock.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 18.—After a two hours' meeting, the delegates called an urgent session of the committee.

The vote stood Wells, Kearns and Loose for O. J. Salsbury; Brown, Sutherland and Hanson for W. S. McCowan.

Mr. Loose is quoted as being the author of a saying which is regarded as a proverb among Silver Republicans in Utah: "No more paramount issues for me. If any man wants my vote he has got to be on my ticket."

All the delegates of course are for McKinley for President, and in case Roosevelt will accept the nomination they are for him for Vice President, though they are unwilling to force it upon him against his will.

Governor Wells has strong leaning in favor of Judge Bartlett Tripp for Vice President, on account of his friendship for Utah and the West, and thinks the other delegates from Utah will support Tripp if he develops strength enough in other western States to warrant it.

Much interest centers in the meeting to take place at noon today at the Utah headquarters, when the delegates will decide who is to be national committee-man from Utah. It is believed there will be a deadlock.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 18.—After a two hours' meeting, the delegates called an urgent session of the committee.

The vote stood Wells, Kearns and Loose for O. J. Salsbury; Brown, Sutherland and Hanson for W. S. McCowan.

Mr. Loose is quoted as being the author of a saying which is regarded as a proverb among Silver Republicans in Utah: "No more paramount issues for me. If any man wants my vote he has got to be on my ticket."

All the delegates of course are for McKinley for President, and in case Roosevelt will accept the nomination they are for him for Vice President, though they are unwilling to force it upon him against his will.

Governor Wells has strong leaning in favor of Judge Bartlett Tripp for Vice President, on account of his friendship for Utah and the West, and thinks the other delegates from Utah will support Tripp if he develops strength enough in other western States to warrant it.

Much interest centers in the meeting to take place at noon today at the Utah headquarters, when the delegates will decide who is to be national committee-man from Utah. It is believed there will be a deadlock.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 18.—After a two hours' meeting, the delegates called an urgent session of the committee.

The vote stood Wells, Kearns and Loose for O. J. Salsbury; Brown, Sutherland and Hanson for W. S. McCowan.

Mr. Loose is quoted as being the author of a saying which is regarded as a proverb among Silver Republicans in Utah: "No more paramount issues for me. If any man wants my vote he has got to be on my ticket."

All the delegates of course are for McKinley for President, and in case Roosevelt will accept the nomination they are for him for Vice President, though they are unwilling to force it upon him against his will.

Governor Wells has strong leaning in favor of Judge Bartlett Tripp for Vice President, on account of his friendship for Utah and the West, and thinks the other delegates from Utah will support Tripp if he develops strength enough in other western States to warrant it.

UTAHANS AT PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Republican Delegation and Others—Delegates for McKinley and Roosevelt, if the Latter Wishes—C. E. Loose and Silver Republicans—National Committeeman.

[SPECIAL TO THE "NEWS."] Philadelphia, Pa., June 18.—The regular delegates to the convention are all here. Governor Wells and Messrs. Kearns and Loose are comfortably housed at the Continental, while Senator Brown and Messrs. Sutherland and Hanson are at the Flanders. Other Utah people in evidence are State Chairman Walton, Judge Bartch, Mr. P. H. Lannan, and Alternates Clark, Homer and Mrs. Jones.

The Utah headquarters are at the Continental, and Governor Wells, who presides there, was busy all day yesterday making the acquaintance of visiting delegates and newspaper men.

The morning papers all have brief sketches of Utah's delegates, Messrs. Kearns and Loose coming in for the largest share of attention because of their pronounced silver views four years ago, and their perfect alignment with the Republican party.

Mr. Loose is quoted as being the author of a saying which is regarded as a proverb among Silver Republicans in Utah: "No more paramount issues for me. If any man wants my vote he has got to be on my ticket."

All the delegates of course are for McKinley for President, and in case Roosevelt will accept the nomination they are for him for Vice President, though they are unwilling to force it upon him against his will.

Governor Wells has strong leaning in favor of Judge Bartlett Tripp for Vice President, on account of his friendship for Utah and the West, and thinks the other delegates from Utah will support Tripp if he develops strength enough in other western States to warrant it.

Much interest centers in the meeting to take place at noon today at the Utah headquarters, when the delegates will decide who is to be national committee-man from Utah. It is believed there will be a deadlock.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 18.—After a two hours' meeting, the delegates called an urgent session of the committee.

The vote stood Wells, Kearns and Loose for O. J. Salsbury; Brown, Sutherland and Hanson for W. S. McCowan.

Mr. Loose is quoted as being the author of a saying which is regarded as a proverb among Silver Republicans in Utah: "No more paramount issues for me. If any man wants my vote he has got to be on my ticket."

All the delegates of course are for McKinley for President, and in case Roosevelt will accept the nomination they are for him for Vice President, though they are unwilling to force it upon him against his will.

Governor Wells has strong leaning in favor of Judge Bartlett Tripp for Vice President, on account of his friendship for Utah and the West, and thinks the other delegates from Utah will support Tripp if he develops strength enough in other western States to warrant it.

Much interest centers in the meeting to take place at noon today at the Utah headquarters, when the delegates will decide who is to be national committee-man from Utah. It is believed there will be a deadlock.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 18.—After a two hours' meeting, the delegates called an urgent session of the committee.

The vote stood Wells, Kearns and Loose for O. J. Salsbury; Brown, Sutherland and Hanson for W. S. McCowan.

Mr. Loose is quoted as being the author of a saying which is regarded as a proverb among Silver Republicans in Utah: "No more paramount issues for me. If any man wants my vote he has got to be on my ticket."

All the delegates of course are for McKinley for President, and in case Roosevelt will accept the nomination they are for him for Vice President, though they are unwilling to force it upon him against his will.

Governor Wells has strong leaning in favor of Judge Bartlett Tripp for Vice President, on account of his friendship for Utah and the West, and thinks the other delegates from Utah will support Tripp if he develops strength enough in other western States to warrant it.

Much interest centers in the meeting to take place at noon today at the Utah headquarters, when the delegates will decide who is to be national committee-man from Utah. It is believed there will be a deadlock.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 18.—After a two hours' meeting, the delegates called an urgent session of the committee.

The vote stood Wells, Kearns and Loose for O. J. Salsbury; Brown, Sutherland and Hanson for W. S. McCowan.

Mr. Loose is quoted as being the author of a saying which is regarded as a proverb among Silver Republicans in Utah: "No more paramount issues for me. If any man wants my vote he has got to be on my ticket."

All the delegates of course are for McKinley for President, and in case Roosevelt will accept the nomination they are for him for Vice President, though they are unwilling to force it upon him against his will.

Governor Wells has strong leaning in favor of Judge Bartlett Tripp for Vice President, on account of his friendship for Utah and the West, and thinks the other delegates from Utah will support Tripp if he develops strength enough in other western States to warrant it.

Much interest centers in the meeting to take place at noon today at the Utah headquarters, when the delegates will decide who is to be national committee-man from Utah. It is believed there will be a deadlock.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 18.—After a two hours' meeting, the delegates called an urgent session of the committee.

The vote stood Wells, Kearns and Loose for O. J. Salsbury; Brown, Sutherland and Hanson for W. S. McCowan.

Mr. Loose is quoted as being the author of a saying which is regarded as a proverb among Silver Republicans in Utah: "No more paramount issues for me. If any man wants my vote he has got to be on my ticket."

All the delegates of course are for McKinley for President, and in case Roosevelt will accept the nomination they are for him for Vice President, though they are unwilling to force it upon him against his will.

Governor Wells has strong leaning in favor of Judge Bartlett Tripp for Vice President, on account of his friendship for Utah and the West, and thinks the other delegates from Utah will support Tripp if he develops strength enough in other western States to warrant it.

Much interest centers in the meeting to take place at noon today at the Utah headquarters, when the delegates will decide who is to be national committee-man from Utah. It is believed there will be a deadlock.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 18.—After a two hours' meeting, the delegates called an urgent session of the committee.

The vote stood Wells, Kearns and Loose for O. J. Salsbury; Brown, Sutherland and Hanson for W. S. McCowan.

Mr. Loose is quoted as being the author of a saying which is regarded as a