BOARDING HOUSE IS KNOCKED OUT

Miners at Mercur Succeed in Gaining Eating Liberty After a Demonstration of Few Hours.

"To the Employees of the Mercur Gold Mines Company: The Mercur boarding house will be abolished from this date, Aug. 1, 1900. All men employed by the Consolidated Mercur Gold Mines company are privileged to board where they choose."

"H. A. COHEN, Pres. GEO. EDWARDS, Supt."

The above notice was posted up before noon today at the Mercur boarding house and in all the prominent places in the mining town, and the men will go to work as usual tomorrow morning.

Following the example of the men at Eureka, the mines of the Mercur company's property had gone out on strike against compulsory boarding at the regular boarding house.

"Notice to the Employees of the Consolidated Mercur Gold Mines Company: No one is compelled to board at the old Mercur company's boarding house, but since this company is under contract to assume the improvements made by Anson & Barnes in case of discontinuance of patronage by the employees of the Mercur mine, the directors of the Consolidated company trust that such of our employes as are not dissatisfied will continue to patronize said boarding house."

"H. A. COHEN, Pres. GEO. EDWARDS, Supt."

Everything seems now to have been arranged to the entire satisfaction of the men and the mine owners, although at one time it looked as if there might have been a protracted controversy over the matter.

Yesterdays afternoon over a hundred men met at the boarding house and by unanimous vote determined that they would remain out of the mines until they were given their freedom in the matter of selecting a boarding place.

This morning there was another meeting, this time in the public square, and speeches were made in English and Italian, urging the men to stand firm but to sedulously respect the law and the rights of all.

It is stated for their rights the miners had the sympathy (and if necessary the co-operation) of the men employed in other mines here, and a spirit of determination was exhibited from the very first.

HOUSE WINS OUT AT EUREKA.

Men are at Work Again and the Dissatisfied Ones Have Left the Town—Ore Shipments This Week Will be Heavy as Usual.

[SPECIAL TO THE "NEWS."] Eureka, Aug. 1.—Affairs at the Blue Rock boarding house have today assumed their normal condition. The men who first made the objection, and who were at once discharged by order of Manager Allen, have all left town and the other men are again at work.
