

MINING, BUSINESS AND STOCKS.

PRICES WERE HIGHER TODAY

Ajax and Yankee Con. Advanced on the Exchange.

GRAND CENTRAL FIRMER.

Valco Flattens Out—Con. Mercier Active—Samarco Stronger—Star Con. Active.

TODAY'S METALS: SILVER 62 3/4 LEAD $4.00 CASTING COPPER 15 1/4

The selling value of the sales on the mining exchange today was $12,614.25, which represented the sale of 18,650 shares of stock.

Grand Central was active at from $5.60 to $5.65, while Star Consolidated opened at 60 and closed at 60 1/2.

Swansea was not quite as strong as usual being traded in at a little below $4, the price at which it has stood for some time past.

Yankee Consolidated shows a decided improvement and much activity.

Con. Mercier was unusually active today at $4.65, while Ajax led 200 shares at $2 and Dalton & Lark was traded in at $6.

Samarco was firm today, probably on account of the roaster material coming in more rapidly.

Bullion-Beck was much stronger today.

Closing quotations were posted as follows:

BRISK IN UNION PACIFIC.

First Block Sold on Wall Street Today was 2,500 Shares.

Other Stocks Show Marked Strength—Live Stock Prices Mixed—Production Lower.

New York, Oct. 15.—The favorable effect of Saturday's bank statement was shown in the opening dealings in fractional advances all around.

In many of the most prominent stocks 1,000 share lots were taken and the first transaction in Union Pacific was for 2,500 shares.

The market absorbed the large profit taking sales without much impression on prices during the greater part of the first hour.

Conspicuous strength was shown by the traction, People's gas, sugar and tobacco, the latter rising 1/4.

Some of the metal stocks gained a point and some minor stocks improved.

Announcements of additional gold imports helped the advance.

The market failed to give way materially on bear sales and the bull professional became aggressive.

Sugar went above 120, carrying other specialties. American Smelting rose 1/4.

Round amounts of the railroads were taken at advancing prices.

In the final upward spurt the best prices of the day were made.

The notable strength shifted to new stocks, Reading first preferred rising an extreme 3/4.

Pennsylvania, Lackawanna and New Jersey Central made their gain 1/4.

Chicago & Northwestern, 1/4; Great Northern preferred, 1/4, and St. Paul and Omaha, 1/4.

Union Pacific came into the movement later at an advance of two points on very large buying.

Northern Pacific, New York Central, Southern Railway preferred and Louisville and Nashville were also conspicuous.

There was a realization in stocks which had advanced earlier, which cut into their highest prices.

The closing was very active at the top, with only a few exceptions.

Bonds were moderately active and irregular.
