BOERS IN LISBON.

Madrid, April 1.—Dispatches from Lisbon are rigorously censored. Letters say the Boers who arrived at Lisbon on board transports Friday from Delagoa Bay were accorded a splendid reception, contrasting with the coolness of the popular reception of the mission headed by Earl Carrington, sent to Lisbon to formally notify King Charles of the death of Queen Victoria, and of the accession of King Edward VII to the throne. The hour selected for the landing was kept secret, but nevertheless a large crowd was present and acclaimed the travelers, a majority of whom were European volunteers. The party, numbering 700 persons, was escorted to their quarters in the forts in the vicinity of Lisbon. The Boer officers are allowed 60 reis and the rank and file are allowed 30 reis daily.
