

APPOINTMENTS AT SALT LAKE BEACH

Full Roster Will be Made Up in a Few Days.

WILL McALISTER, CASHIER.

Some of the New Features in the Operation of the Popular Lake Resort This Season.

Manager McAlister of Salt Lake Beach reports that everything is getting into satisfactory shape for the opening of the resort at the end of this month.

When seen this morning he was going over the list of names of applicants who had applied for positions at the beach during the season.

He has been simply inundated with applications and expects to decide on the personnel of his staff by the beginning of next week.

At the present time beyond the appointment of his son William McAlister as cashier and Matthew Miller as foreman of the floors no further important positions have been filled.

Mr. McAlister has severed his connection with the postoffice at Logan and is expected to arrive in Salt Lake within the next few days.

Although Manager McAlister has not yet appointed an excursion agent he has, nevertheless, already secured him a dozen choice excursions for the beach.

It is the intention of those at the head of affairs to inaugurate a vigorous policy this season and with this end in view Manager McAlister has been in correspondence with a number of good attractions which will in all probability be featured at the beach during the coming summer.

All the conditions for the privileges have been let. The exclusive right to sell beer has been awarded to the Utah liquor company, while Carl Osterlich has the merry-go-round and shooting privileges, and Jake Greenwood the moving pictures.

There will be no sickle-in-the-slot gambling devices allowed at Salt Lake this season and an efficient corps of deputies will see that the beer business is kept within decent bounds.

The bottle counter has been moved away from the center of the lower floor and tucked away in a corner so that this feature will be less conspicuous than heretofore.

Salt will operate the lunch counter, restaurant and the soda fountain and confectory stands. A competent man will be selected to take charge of these features.

In the meantime the afternoon train is being well patronized and for the past two weeks from 50 to 75 passengers have been hauled out to the beach every day.

COLONIST EXCURSIONS.

Southern Pacific Smashes All Records Prior to This Season.

San Francisco, Cal., May 9.—The Southern Pacific passenger department has completed its statistics on the west bound coastwise movement which began February 1st, and concluded on May 8th.

During this time the number of colonist cars came from the East, both direct and second hand, was 24, as against 8,905 second class passengers in the same period in 1900.

Of these 16,000 were colonists or traveled on colonist rates.

PUTS IN PENSION SYSTEM.

Illinois Central to Care for its Retired Employees—The Details.

President Fish and General Manager Harahan have advised their signatures to and thereby made operative the plan for pensioning employees of the Illinois Central road, who hereafter may be retired on pension after ten years of service.

In order to carry out the scheme a pension fund of $250,000 has been provided, says the Chicago Tribune, and each year the company will set apart a sum not to exceed $100,000 for the payment of the pensions allowances for the year. The administration of the fund is placed in the hands of a board consisting of C. A. Beck, W. J. Harahan, C. E. Krebs, William Benschaw, A. W. Sullivan, J. F. Wallace and Dr. John E. Owens.

The amount of the pensions is based on the number of years of service. Employees of all departments, except surgical and legal, are eligible, the idea being to benefit only the men who have given their whole time to the road.

The manner of calculating the amount of the pension is to average the monthly pay the man has received during the last ten years of his service, and then allow him one per cent of that average for each year he has served. For example if the man has been in the employ of the road for forty years and his average pay for the last ten years is $1,000, he will receive $100 a year.

AN HONEST Tired Feeling

There is an "honest tired feeling" caused by necessary toil and cured by natural rest.

But very different is "that tired feeling" from which so many complain and which may even be classed as a disease.

That tired feeling takes you to bed tired and wakes you up tired.

You have no appetite, have bilious taste, dull headache, are nervous and irritable, blue, weak and discouraged.

In such conditions Hood's Sarsaparilla does a world of good.

It begins in the right place—in the blood, purifying it and imparting vitality, then its tonic effect is felt by the stomach, kidneys and liver; appetite comes back, all waste is removed naturally, headaches cease, that tired feeling departs and you feel like a new person.

This has been the experience of thousands.

It will be yours if you take

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Sold by all druggists. Prepared by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Help others to help themselves. What better deed? Then why not tell your friend who is ill just what our Sarsaparilla has done for you or some member of your family?

You have seen the weak and pale, the nervous and debilitated made hearty and strong by its use. You know that it makes the blood rich and pure and completely removes that terrible feeling of exhaustion. You know it lifts up the despondent and gives hope to the discouraged.

Knowing these things, why not extend the helping hand?

"I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla in my family for a great many years, and always with satisfactory results. I recommended it to a neighbor whose child had the scrofula for a long time. The child was quickly cured, and of course the parents were greatly delighted."—N. K. DEAN, Spencer, Ind.

Ask your doctor what he thinks of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. The probability is he has prescribed it a great many times and knows just what it will do. Then ask him if he does not think it is precisely the medicine you need this spring.

has been $100 a month, then his pension would be 40 per cent of $100, or $40 a month. Many of the present employees of the road will come in for pensions that amount to more than 40 per cent of their salaries. In the road some time ago celebrated its fiftieth birthday and there are many employees who have been with the company almost half a century.

The age limit is fixed at 70 years, at which age all officers and employees must be retired. Those between the ages of 61 and 70 years who have become incapacitated may be retired on a finding from the board. This is an advance over the rules of other roads, which place the ages for retirement for incapacity at from 65 to 68 years.

Locomotive engineers and firemen, conductors, flagmen, and brakemen, train baggagemen, yardmasters, switchmen, bridge foremen, section foremen, and supervisors will be retired at the age of 65 years, their occupation being considered the more arduous.

These roads shall be retired on a finding from the board for ten years. Other roads with pension departments require a service of thirty years. It is the general opinion that the pension means not only the Illinois road proper, but any other roads which it may have acquired or controls. The employees of the East will be entitled to the time they worked before the Illinois Central absorbed the properties.

Another Ogden Rumor.

"Railroad men in Ogden believe that the Rio Grande Western train dispatchers' office may be removed to Ogden in the near future," says the Standard. "It seems the consensus of opinion that the general offices will be removed from Salt Lake to Denver; that instead of enlarging the shops in Salt Lake the Colorado shops of the D. & R. G. will be enlarged. This they say, will be the natural consequence of the harmonizing of the Missouri Pacific and two Rio Grande lines into one system."

At the general offices of the Rio Grande Western this morning the above rumor was disseminated and designated as a "pipe dream."

SPIKE AND RAIL.

C. O. Whittemore is expected to return from Pioche on Saturday.

Vanderbilt as yet is not represented on the Union Pacific board.

Over seventeen miles of track have been laid on the Nevada grade by the Ogden Short Line company.

Donald Rose, of the Illinois Central, has returned to after a protracted business trip to Chicago and St. Louis.

The falls to lay the track of Col. Devo's road between Nampa and Emmett are expected to arrive in a few days.

Nineteen officers of the Thirty-ninth regiment came in on Rio Grande Western No. 6 this morning from San Francisco and leave for the East on No. 2.

President Fred D. Underwood, of the Erie, states that Chicago will always continue to be the railroad dividing line in the transcontinental systems of the country.

The Oregon Short Line announces special rates east on the occasion of the annual teachers' excursion June 11 and 12. Tickets are good returning until September 1.

An Associated Press dispatch which came in late yesterday afternoon gave the name of the late George Buchanan as "George Q. Cannon," as director of the Union Pacific.

The Denver chamber of commerce has filed a complaint with the industrial commission at Washington complaining of a freight rate discrimination against the city on the part of the railroad companies.

Deputy Sheriff John Fusz, of Bannock county, Idaho, has resigned to accept an engine on the Utah Pacific.

In addition to his office, Mr. Fusz is president of the Pocatello city council. His family will move to Salt Lake.

The eastbound Southern Pacific passenger was four hours late last night owing to the connecting road on the engine breaking at a point west of Torrance yesterday afternoon. The broken ends of the rod played havoc with the cab and the fire the train could be stopped. No one was hurt.

WITH THE JUSTICES.

Yesterday afternoon T. J. Montgomery, manager of the Grand Pacific hotel, was held by Justice Dana T. Smith on a charge of resisting an officer. His bonds were placed at $100. It is alleged that he struck Constable Allen when the latter attempted to move some furniture which was claimed by W. J. McNamara.

TO SET ASIDE BACON BANKRUPTCY

That is the Determined Effort Now Being Made—Want Assets Turned Over to a Trustee—Talk of Prosecution for Perjury.

"We intend to petition the United States court to reconsider the bankruptcy case of James H. Bacon and to annul the order of discharge from bankruptcy, granted him," said Attorney Dinniny this morning. "Of course law suits are never certain until they are settled but I think there is no doubt that Mr. Bacon did conceal certain assets and that a motion to set aside the discharge from bankruptcy will be granted. If such a motion is not granted, if such a motion is not granted, if the motion is granted the judge or jury may order the assets turned over to the trustee and also deal harshly with Mr. Bacon for perjury in swearing to incorrect schedules. Our case is complete and I have no doubt that the testimony will prove our claims. The next step is to petition the federal court to set aside the discharge from bankruptcy. Hereafter Baldwin will be considered the testimony given in the examination sufficient proof that Mr. Bacon has assets, now in his possession, that should have been turned over at the time he went into bankruptcy, can order that they be turned over to the trustee. I think that the American Mining and Trust company was incorporated for the express purpose of concealing Mr. Bacon's assets. We don't have to take the statements of a man prosecuted for fraud as absolute evidence but conclusive facts."

At yesterday's hearing before Referee Baldwin, Mr. Bacon was the chief witness examined and the attorney for the creditors directed the examination with a view to bring out the facts concerning Mr. Bacon's connection with the American Mining and Trust company upon which the entire case rests.

Mr. Bacon testified regarding his ownership of certain properties including 245 shares of American Mining and Trust company stock. He said that this stock, as well as his other property, had been acquired by bona fide purchase since his discharge from bankruptcy. Mr. Bacon's testimony consisted chiefly of denials.

During the afternoon session, which lasted until after 5 o'clock, Mr. Bacon was on the stand. At one time late in the afternoon a question by Attorney Dinniny precipitated a war of words:

"When you were convicted of a charge in the United States courts what security did you put up for your bondsmen?"

Bacon was exceedingly angry at the question and with much heat said: "You would not dare ask me that question on the street. I proved conclusively that I was wrongfully convicted."

Attorney Dinniny said he said: "I'd ask you about it anywhere."

"But not more than once" retorted Mr. Bacon, meaningly.

Referee Baldwin called them to order and Mr. Bacon said that some friends in the east had given an indemnifying bond. The testimony was concluded and will be transcribed. It will take some days and until it is finished will further action be taken.

THE THEATER WALL FALLS

Adobe Lean-to, Used for Scenery Room, Collapses.

The Main Edifice is Not Affected, and the House Will Open Tonight as Usual.

At about 2 o'clock this morning, the northwest corner of the adobe lean-to, built as a scene room to the Salt Lake Theater, fell into the alley with a crash. The supposition is that the wall had been weakened by the heavy recent storms. It came down without any warning and for a moment spread dismay to the night operator of the telephone building adjoining, who thought that building was collapsing. Manager Peyer was promptly telephoned and he spent a great part of the remainder of the night at the building, cutting off communication through the alley, having the walls propped up and taking other measures to see that no further damages resulted.

A visit to the property this morning shows that the lean-to will probably have to come down entire. The west portion of it is now being supported almost entirely by the unused scenery, which is stored there. There is a chance, however, that the east part of the lean-to, which is the green room of the house is located, is not impaired. The main part of the theater is not in the least affected. This building was erected in 1861 and '62 and is as solid as it could well be made, its foundation being four to six feet thick up to the ground and the next twenty-five feet being two feet and six inches in width, of solid stone, above that the walls are of adobe. The lean-to was constructed several years after the main building was completed and has been used as a green room and a scenery room ever since. The necessary repairs will be made at once and the accident will not affect in any way tonight's performance.

The sudden collapse of the wall caused a number of highly exaggerated reports to be sent out of Salt Lake early this morning. A response to one of them came from a manager of Henry Miller at Denver who stated that he had heard that the entire building had tumbled down, and that it would be necessary for his company to play at another theater. Manager Peyer hastened to reply that the building proper was as solid as the everlasting hills and that Mr. Miller and his company could play within its walls as safely as any time in the past.

The board of directors of the Theater met this morning and decided to promptly make whatever repairs were necessary to the damaged part of the lean-to.

AMUSEMENTS.

Harry Carson Clarke and his company arrived in town this morning. At 12 o'clock Mr. Clarke called a rehearsal on the stage of the theater for the benefit of Miss Levy and Miss Clawson, the

JEWELRY FAKIR IS TAKEN IN.

Goes to Huntsville and Comes to Grief.

CITIZENS GET REAL ANGRY.

After Purchasing a Number of Gold Bricks They Discover the Fraud and Land Their Man.

(Special to the "News.")

Ogden, May 9.—J. Cromwell a cheap jeweler and cigar fakir claiming to have hailed from Salt Lake was brought in from Huntsville today by Sheriff Layne and put in jail where he is awaiting a hearing. Cromwell was giving a performance last evening consisting of step dancing, banjo picking and similar features, aided by two young men he had in his employ.

At the close of the show he began auctioneering his jewelry, guaranteeing it to be genuine. The result of the flashy jewelry and the meddlesome tongue of the auctioneer was that he in a short time had relieved the crowd of $50. One of the purchasers subjected the article bought to a close examination and found that it was almost worthless. He spread the good news, and ere long the enthusiasm had seized hold of all those who had been duped, and their friends whereupon they ran in a body to the house where the stranger was staying, and part of the crowd guarded his room while others went to telephone for the police.

Layne, Cromwell as soon as he got to his room put a couple of guns in his pocket and was going to make his way out with his will when a citizen's committee waited on him and insisted on his holding a reception until Sheriff Layne arrived.

When the sheriff got there he found the room surrounded by a crowd of very indignant citizens.

Cromwell was then taken into custody and brought to Ogden. The two young men who had assisted him with his show were allowed to go, on the promise that they would not haunt that neighborhood in the future.

Cromwell said that he has lived in Salt Lake for the last eight months, and that he has been selling his jewelry all over the state.

George C. and Charlotte Folkman died at her home in Plain City this morning of paralysis. The funeral will be held from the ward meeting house Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

TROUBLE OVER MARCOTT.

Sheriff Naylor Confronted by Every Possible Hindrance in His Business.

Marcott Said to Have Become Engaged to a Wealthy Girl Living in Los Angeles.

L. W. Marcott, the alleged forger, whom Sheriff Naylor went to Los Angeles last Sunday to bring here for trial, is putting up a game fight and will throw every obstacle he can in the sheriff's way. It is said that he has become engaged to a wealthy girl in Los Angeles, and naturally he will feel sore at the strong arm of the law reaching in to snatch his prize from him when the goal of his monetary schemes is almost within his grasp. His first move was to check the sheriff's game was to get a writ of habeas corpus returnable tomorrow. This chance favored him by taking the Governor's name to Los Angeles, so when Sheriff Naylor went to Sacramento to apply for extradition papers he was informed that the chief executive was not at home. He wired these troubles to Chief Deputy Eldridge last night, and County Attorney Christensen telegraphed in answer that the sheriff should lose no time in seeing the governor and county commissioners. In answer to another message the county attorney wired the sheriff this morning that he had been advised to ascertain whether the prosecutor or attorney was a friend of Marcott. The sheriff was also asked to state where the writ of habeas corpus was returnable.

County Attorney Christensen will go to California himself to handle the case if it appears that he can save money to the state by prosecuting in person.

INTERESTING CASE.

Attorney Ed. McGurrin returned from Farmington last night where he has been picking up information for what promises to be an interesting suit over an alleged fraudulent acquisition of a homestead. He sent the complaint to Farmington this morning to be filed with the clerk of the Second district court.

The suit is brought by Sarah Ann Hughes, an English born woman of the "Mormon" faith, to recover from Wm. Cottrell, her son-in-law, the possession of the house and lot in Farmington which her husband owned shortly prior to his death, and which she claims was conveyed by her husband, William Hughes, to Cottrell on April 3, 1895. A few days before the old man died, upon the advice of a doctor, Mr. Hughes says that this was done at her son-in-law's advice, who said that they would save money by conveying the property to him, and he conveyed a life estate in the premises to the invalid old man, who then, says his wife, weak in mind and body. According to Mrs. Hughes, everything was a straight cut and delivered the instrument to her son-in-law. Afterwards Cottrell executed a deed of lease from himself and wife to the old couple, William and Sarah Ann Hughes. The lease was for the term of their lives, and it is said that Cottrell fraudulently misrepresented that the deed was a conveyance of the property to Hughes for his life and to his widow after his death.

When the old man died on September 5, 1894, his wife first learnt of the alleged suit. She is said to be much feeling against Cottrell for his action and sympathy with his aged mother-in-law.
