

ROOSEVELT, FEARLESS AND ABLE.

Glimpse of the Man Who Has Become the Nation's Chief Executive—Proud He is an American—Won Fame and Honor by Hard, Honest Endeavor.

PRESIDENT THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

New York special to the Chicago Record Herald—Theodore Roosevelt, Vice President of the United States, and President in the event of the death of President McKinley, was born in this city, October 27, 1857.

He looks younger than 40. He is athletic. His eyes are blue and clear, his hand cordial in greeting, and his teeth, which his manner of speech habitually discloses, are marvelously regular and white.

What he is he owes to himself. His ancestry made New York City history. It was Dutch and French-Burgundian. It was God-fearing and laborious. It had opinions and it clung to them.

He tried a plunge into New York politics. In his city district was a Republican machine combination that showed no disposition to recognize his desire to become a member of the legislature. He fought the machine and defeated it.

In 1884 he appeared before the nation. He was a delegate to the national convention of that year. His health troubled him and he sought a new life at Chimney Butte, Dak., where he grazed cattle and led the life of a cowboy.

He lost money on his cattle venture, but he returned to New York a strong man physically, and made the race for mayor of that city. He was defeated, but he laughed. He understood that the corrupt elements of this city would not tolerate him, but he waited. Meanwhile he wrote books—books on hunting, books on western life, books on eastern cities. His style in literature was vigorous and pleasing. His books sold well and the magazines made great demand for his writings.

Once at Washington, he commenced an enforcement of the law of the most vigorous kind. He made himself disliked among the spoilsmen of both parties, but he held to the line of his duty. He took the law as he found it, lived true to his oath of office and made the measure respected in many quarters where it had been sneered at before.

From Washington he passed to a police commissionership in this city. His peculiar ability to work and work on tight lines gave the corrupt police force such a shaking up as it had never had before. He was police commissioner in every sense of the word, unbrilliant, unapproachable, fair to the fair-minded, severe on the criminal. His books continued to sell in increasing number, and the public, through the press, began to have a broader view of him.

When the Spanish-American war came he was assistant secretary of the navy by the authority of President McKinley. He had much to do with the organization of the navy for the conflict, and it has always been believed that his influence largely contributed to the sending of Admiral Dewey to Hongkong, and thence to Manila Bay.

When war became a certainty, Mr. Roosevelt resigned his position in the navy department, and, with General Leonard Wood, organized the First Volunteer Cavalry, better known as the Rough Riders. General Wood was colonel of this regiment and Mr. Roosevelt lieutenant colonel. The members of the regiment came from the first families in the East, from ranches in the West, came from wherever good horsemen, daring men and good shots could be secured.

The regiment was the most unique of its kind ever organized, and was much scoffed at in the beginning. Before it had been two days in Cuba the wisdom of its organization was plainly seen. The men were fitted for any kind of campaigning. Their colonel and lieutenant colonel took what they took. The regiment practically foraged itself, and was first in the field and first to be baptized with fire.

Mr. Roosevelt was its colonel before the end of the war, and pronounced by the foreign military attaches who observed his conduct in the field as one of the first military officers of the day. He was in Santiago at the surrender, brought his regiment back to the United States and distinguished it at Montauk Point in the fall of 1898. It contributed among the volunteer troops more to the success of the American arms in Cuba than any other regiment formed.

The colonel became governor of New York immediately after his return to this country. As governor he stood for radical taxation legislation and state control of the trusts. His term was marked by a pronounced fight on his part against the New York Republican machine. He did not seek the vice presidential nomination last year, but had it forced upon him, and he accepted it at the last moment. During the campaign he made a trip of over 21,000 miles, speaking for the ticket, and was received everywhere with popular acclaim. Since his inauguration he has presided over one extra session of the Senate, and made several trips throughout the country attending public functions. He was in Chicago within the last ten days as the guest of Governor Yates.

As the real Theodore Roosevelt, authentic things that he has said give ample revelation as to what manner of a character he will bring to the presidency. "I naturally disapprove of the half-conscious spread-eagle Americanism which is ever exerting itself at the wrong moments. I dislike it, of course, when it is put forward as a plea to excuse moral shortcomings of a kind usually connected with public affairs. Nevertheless, in spite of this abuse, I am sure that no man can well play his part in our life who is not honestly American in heart, belief and instinct."

"If one wishes to find a typical American one may consider Francis Parkman. He always appealed to my admiration, because he made his life work largely of the description of that frontier warfare between our backwoodsmen and their foes which has been of such incalculable importance in our land's history."

"In speaking to my own countrymen there is one point which I wish to lay especially stress on, that is, the necessity for a feeling of broad, radical and intense Americanism. If good work is to be done in any direction, above all, the one essential for success in every political movement which is to do lasting good is that our citizens should act as Americans, not as Americans with a prefix and qualification—not as Irish-Americans, German-Americans, native Americans—but as Americans pure and simple."

"HYPHENATED AMERICANS."

"It is an outrage for a man to drag foreign politics into our contests and vote as an Irishman or German or other foreigner, as the case may be, and there is no worse citizen than the professional Irish dynamiter or German anarchist, because of his attitude toward our social and political life, not to mention his efforts to embrace us with foreign powers. But it is no less an outrage to discriminate against one who has become an American in good faith, merely because of his creed or birthplace."

"These utterances reveal the man. He has written much. The titles of some of his best works are: 'The Making of Benton,' 'Life of Gouverneur Morris,' 'Ranch Life and the Hunting Trail,' 'The Winning of the West,' 'History of New York City,' 'Essays on Practical Politics,' 'The Wilderness Hunter,' 'Hero Tales from American History,' 'Naval War of 1812.' He is an intimate of Jacob Rits, the tenement slum reformer of this city; of Frederick Holly, secretary at the Hague conference, and of Senator Henry Cabot Lodge. His habits are simple, his life most strenuous. He does not know the meaning of the word 'idle' or of 'misapplication.' He has often been called a 'typical American.' The phrase fits him."

Mrs. McKinley Rested Easily. Milburn House, Buffalo, Sept. 14.—Dr. Washin came from the house at 9:40. He said that Mrs. McKinley had rested well during the night and was feeling quite strong. She bears up wonderfully well in her grief and some of the apprehension as to her passing away. The cabinet will meet at 10 o'clock to discuss the arrangements for the funeral. The autopsy on the body of the President will take place at 11 o'clock.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—"This settles it," said Chief of Police O'Neill when informed of the President's death. "We will hold every anarchist prisoner we have. No judge will release them, and we will keep them as long as we choose. We have no evidence of a conspiracy now but its details must be ferreted out and if we find one we will not be compelled to hunt for any of the prisoners we have now and who might have been released tomorrow."

There was a meeting of the Red Caps in Buffalo as late as September 2nd.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—"This settles it," said Chief of Police O'Neill when informed of the President's death. "We will hold every anarchist prisoner we have. No judge will release them, and we will keep them as long as we choose. We have no evidence of a conspiracy now but its details must be ferreted out and if we find one we will not be compelled to hunt for any of the prisoners we have now and who might have been released tomorrow."

Chicago, Sept. 14.—"This settles it," said Chief of Police O'Neill when informed of the President's death. "We will hold every anarchist prisoner we have. No judge will release them, and we will keep them as long as we choose. We have no evidence of a conspiracy now but its details must be ferreted out and if we find one we will not be compelled to hunt for any of the prisoners we have now and who might have been released tomorrow."

Chicago, Sept. 14.—"This settles it," said Chief of Police O'Neill when informed of the President's death. "We will hold every anarchist prisoner we have. No judge will release them, and we will keep them as long as we choose. We have no evidence of a conspiracy now but its details must be ferreted out and if we find one we will not be compelled to hunt for any of the prisoners we have now and who might have been released tomorrow."

Chicago, Sept. 14.—"This settles it," said Chief of Police O'Neill when informed of the President's death. "We will hold every anarchist prisoner we have. No judge will release them, and we will keep them as long as we choose. We have no evidence of a conspiracy now but its details must be ferreted out and if we find one we will not be compelled to hunt for any of the prisoners we have now and who might have been released tomorrow."

Chicago, Sept. 14.—"This settles it," said Chief of Police O'Neill when informed of the President's death. "We will hold every anarchist prisoner we have. No judge will release them, and we will keep them as long as we choose. We have no evidence of a conspiracy now but its details must be ferreted out and if we find one we will not be compelled to hunt for any of the prisoners we have now and who might have been released tomorrow."

Chicago, Sept. 14.—"This settles it," said Chief of Police O'Neill when informed of the President's death. "We will hold every anarchist prisoner we have. No judge will release them, and we will keep them as long as we choose. We have no evidence of a conspiracy now but its details must be ferreted out and if we find one we will not be compelled to hunt for any of the prisoners we have now and who might have been released tomorrow."

Chicago, Sept. 14.—"This settles it," said Chief of Police O'Neill when informed of the President's death. "We will hold every anarchist prisoner we have. No judge will release them, and we will keep them as long as we choose. We have no evidence of a conspiracy now but its details must be ferreted out and if we find one we will not be compelled to hunt for any of the prisoners we have now and who might have been released tomorrow."

Chicago, Sept. 14.—"This settles it," said Chief of Police O'Neill when informed of the President's death. "We will hold every anarchist prisoner we have. No judge will release them, and we will keep them as long as we choose. We have no evidence of a conspiracy now but its details must be ferreted out and if we find one we will not be compelled to hunt for any of the prisoners we have now and who might have been released tomorrow."

Chicago, Sept. 14.—"This settles it," said Chief of Police O'Neill when informed of the President's death. "We will hold every anarchist prisoner we have. No judge will release them, and we will keep them as long as we choose. We have no evidence of a conspiracy now but its details must be ferreted out and if we find one we will not be compelled to hunt for any of the prisoners we have now and who might have been released tomorrow."

Chicago, Sept. 14.—"This settles it," said Chief of Police O'Neill when informed of the President's death. "We will hold every anarchist prisoner we have. No judge will release them, and we will keep them as long as we choose. We have no evidence of a conspiracy now but its details must be ferreted out and if we find one we will not be compelled to hunt for any of the prisoners we have now and who might have been released tomorrow."

Chicago, Sept. 14.—"This settles it," said Chief of Police O'Neill when informed of the President's death. "We will hold every anarchist prisoner we have. No judge will release them, and we will keep them as long as we choose. We have no evidence of a conspiracy now but its details must be ferreted out and if we find one we will not be compelled to hunt for any of the prisoners we have now and who might have been released tomorrow."

Chicago, Sept. 14.—"This settles it," said Chief of Police O'Neill when informed of the President's death. "We will hold every anarchist prisoner we have. No judge will release them, and we will keep them as long as we choose. We have no evidence of a conspiracy now but its details must be ferreted out and if we find one we will not be compelled to hunt for any of the prisoners we have now and who might have been released tomorrow."

Chicago, Sept. 14.—"This settles it," said Chief of Police O'Neill when informed of the President's death. "We will hold every anarchist prisoner we have. No judge will release them, and we will keep them as long as we choose. We have no evidence of a conspiracy now but its details must be ferreted out and if we find one we will not be compelled to hunt for any of the prisoners we have now and who might have been released tomorrow."

Chicago, Sept. 14.—"This settles it," said Chief of Police O'Neill when informed of the President's death. "We will hold every anarchist prisoner we have. No judge will release them, and we will keep them as long as we choose. We have no evidence of a conspiracy now but its details must be ferreted out and if we find one we will not be compelled to hunt for any of the prisoners we have now and who might have been released tomorrow."

Chicago, Sept. 14.—"This settles it," said Chief of Police O'Neill when informed of the President's death. "We will hold every anarchist prisoner we have. No judge will release them, and we will keep them as long as we choose. We have no evidence of a conspiracy now but its details must be ferreted out and if we find one we will not be compelled to hunt for any of the prisoners we have now and who might have been released tomorrow."

ANARCHIST PRISONERS.

Chief O'Neill of Chicago Says They Will be Held.

UNSAFE TO LET THEM GO.

There was a Meeting of the Red Caps in Buffalo as Late as September 2nd.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—"This settles it," said Chief of Police O'Neill when informed of the President's death. "We will hold every anarchist prisoner we have. No judge will release them, and we will keep them as long as we choose. We have no evidence of a conspiracy now but its details must be ferreted out and if we find one we will not be compelled to hunt for any of the prisoners we have now and who might have been released tomorrow."

Chicago, Sept. 14.—"This settles it," said Chief of Police O'Neill when informed of the President's death. "We will hold every anarchist prisoner we have. No judge will release them, and we will keep them as long as we choose. We have no evidence of a conspiracy now but its details must be ferreted out and if we find one we will not be compelled to hunt for any of the prisoners we have now and who might have been released tomorrow."

Chicago, Sept. 14.—"This settles it," said Chief of Police O'Neill when informed of the President's death. "We will hold every anarchist prisoner we have. No judge will release them, and we will keep them as long as we choose. We have no evidence of a conspiracy now but its details must be ferreted out and if we find one we will not be compelled to hunt for any of the prisoners we have now and who might have been released tomorrow."

Chicago, Sept. 14.—"This settles it," said Chief of Police O'Neill when informed of the President's death. "We will hold every anarchist prisoner we have. No judge will release them, and we will keep them as long as we choose. We have no evidence of a conspiracy now but its details must be ferreted out and if we find one we will not be compelled to hunt for any of the prisoners we have now and who might have been released tomorrow."

Chicago, Sept. 14.—"This settles it," said Chief of Police O'Neill when informed of the President's death. "We will hold every anarchist prisoner we have. No judge will release them, and we will keep them as long as we choose. We have no evidence of a conspiracy now but its details must be ferreted out and if we find one we will not be compelled to hunt for any of the prisoners we have now and who might have been released tomorrow."

Chicago, Sept. 14.—"This settles it," said Chief of Police O'Neill when informed of the President's death. "We will hold every anarchist prisoner we have. No judge will release them, and we will keep them as long as we choose. We have no evidence of a conspiracy now but its details must be ferreted out and if we find one we will not be compelled to hunt for any of the prisoners we have now and who might have been released tomorrow."

Chicago, Sept. 14.—"This settles it," said Chief of Police O'Neill when informed of the President's death. "We will hold every anarchist prisoner we have. No judge will release them, and we will keep them as long as we choose. We have no evidence of a conspiracy now but its details must be ferreted out and if we find one we will not be compelled to hunt for any of the prisoners we have now and who might have been released tomorrow."

Chicago, Sept. 14.—"This settles it," said Chief of Police O'Neill when informed of the President's death. "We will hold every anarchist prisoner we have. No judge will release them, and we will keep them as long as we choose. We have no evidence of a conspiracy now but its details must be ferreted out and if we find one we will not be compelled to hunt for any of the prisoners we have now and who might have been released tomorrow."

Chicago, Sept. 14.—"This settles it," said Chief of Police O'Neill when informed of the President's death. "We will hold every anarchist prisoner we have. No judge will release them, and we will keep them as long as we choose. We have no evidence of a conspiracy now but its details must be ferreted out and if we find one we will not be compelled to hunt for any of the prisoners we have now and who might have been released tomorrow."

Chicago, Sept. 14.—"This settles it," said Chief of Police O'Neill when informed of the President's death. "We will hold every anarchist prisoner we have. No judge will release them, and we will keep them as long as we choose. We have no evidence of a conspiracy now but its details must be ferreted out and if we find one we will not be compelled to hunt for any of the prisoners we have now and who might have been released tomorrow."

Chicago, Sept. 14.—"This settles it," said Chief of Police O'Neill when informed of the President's death. "We will hold every anarchist prisoner we have. No judge will release them, and we will keep them as long as we choose. We have no evidence of a conspiracy now but its details must be ferreted out and if we find one we will not be compelled to hunt for any of the prisoners we have now and who might have been released tomorrow."

Chicago, Sept. 14.—"This settles it," said Chief of Police O'Neill when informed of the President's death. "We will hold every anarchist prisoner we have. No judge will release them, and we will keep them as long as we choose. We have no evidence of a conspiracy now but its details must be ferreted out and if we find one we will not be compelled to hunt for any of the prisoners we have now and who might have been released tomorrow."

Chicago, Sept. 14.—"This settles it," said Chief of Police O'Neill when informed of the President's death. "We will hold every anarchist prisoner we have. No judge will release them, and we will keep them as long as we choose. We have no evidence of a conspiracy now but its details must be ferreted out and if we find one we will not be compelled to hunt for any of the prisoners we have now and who might have been released tomorrow."

Chicago, Sept. 14.—"This settles it," said Chief of Police O'Neill when informed of the President's death. "We will hold every anarchist prisoner we have. No judge will release them, and we will keep them as long as we choose. We have no evidence of a conspiracy now but its details must be ferreted out and if we find one we will not be compelled to hunt for any of the prisoners we have now and who might have been released tomorrow."

Chicago, Sept. 14.—"This settles it," said Chief of Police O'Neill when informed of the President's death. "We will hold every anarchist prisoner we have. No judge will release them, and we will keep them as long as we choose. We have no evidence of a conspiracy now but its details must be ferreted out and if we find one we will not be compelled to hunt for any of the prisoners we have now and who might have been released tomorrow."

ALL MEDICINES ABSOLUTELY FREE UNTIL CURED.

If You Begin Treatment With Drs. Shores' During the Month of September, Either at the Office or by Mail.

This generous offer by Drs. Shores & Shores, the Catarah and Chronic Disease Experts, goes into effect at once, and holds good during the entire month of September to all who begin treatment either at the office or by mail.

No matter how complicated your case may be; no matter how many different medicines the case requires; no matter how expensive the medicines may be, Drs. Shores & Shores will furnish you with all medicines prepared in their own private laboratory, to suit your case, absolutely free, until cured, if you begin treatment during the month of September.

If you have catarah, or any deep seated Catarah Chronic Disease, you will not be asked to pay a cent for free treatment or medicines; you simply pay the small fee of $5.00 per month, which pays the doctors for their time and trouble. The medicines necessary for your cure will be free.

Advertisement for Dr. G. W. Shores' medicines, featuring portraits of the doctor and a list of ailments treated.

Advertisement for Dr. G. W. Shores' medicines, featuring portraits of the doctor and a list of ailments treated.

WE TREAT AND CURE Catarah and Stomach Troubles, Nervous Diseases, Kidney Diseases, Bladder Troubles, Heart Diseases, Diseases of the Stomach and Bowels, Piles, Fistula and Rectal Diseases, Female Complaints, Diseases of Women and Children, Rheumatism, Gout, Sciatica, Stomach, Bronchial and Lung Troubles, Consumption in the First Stages, Rheumatism, Hay Fever, Neuralgia, Hysteria, Eye and Ear Diseases, Gout or Big Neck, La Grippe, Lost Manhood, Blood Diseases, Special Diseases, Scrofula and all forms of Nervous and Chronic Diseases (that are curable). CONSULTATION FREE. CALL OR WRITE.

DRS. SHORES & SHORES, SPECIALISTS. Lyon Block, 56 W. Second South, Salt Lake City. Office Hours—Week days, 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. Evenings, 7 to 8 p. m. Sundays and holidays, 10 a. m. to 12 noon.

EMMA GOLDMAN SPIRITED AWAY. Chicago, Sept. 14.—Emma Goldman, who is locked up as the most important of the anarchists here, was spirited away from the woman's annex of the Harrison street police station early this morning when it was learned that the President was dead.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—Emma Goldman, who is locked up as the most important of the anarchists here, was spirited away from the woman's annex of the Harrison street police station early this morning when it was learned that the President was dead.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—Emma Goldman, who is locked up as the most important of the anarchists here, was spirited away from the woman's annex of the Harrison street police station early this morning when it was learned that the President was dead.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—Emma Goldman, who is locked up as the most important of the anarchists here, was spirited away from the woman's annex of the Harrison street police station early this morning when it was learned that the President was dead.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—Emma Goldman, who is locked up as the most important of the anarchists here, was spirited away from the woman's annex of the Harrison street police station early this morning when it was learned that the President was dead.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—Emma Goldman, who is locked up as the most important of the anarchists here, was spirited away from the woman's annex of the Harrison street police station early this morning when it was learned that the President was dead.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—Emma Goldman, who is locked up as the most important of the anarchists here, was spirited away from the woman's annex of the Harrison street police station early this morning when it was learned that the President was dead.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—Emma Goldman, who is locked up as the most important of the anarchists here, was spirited away from the woman's annex of the Harrison street police station early this morning when it was learned that the President was dead.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—Emma Goldman, who is locked up as the most important of the anarchists here, was spirited away from the woman's annex of the Harrison street police station early this morning when it was learned that the President was dead.

PATRIOTISM STIRRED AMERICAN CUT GLASS. $1,000.00 worth in this sale. You know we sell the genuine Bergen. Beginning Saturday morning, Sept. 14th, for one week.

AMERICAN CUTLERY. Made in America, by American workmen, for Americans who appreciate quality and finish. We have contracted for 1200 dozen and are showing a great assortment. We want you to see and know the difference (other stores sell imported knives). To announce you we offer for one week, beginning Saturday, September 14th.

WARRANTED KNIVES, worth up to $10, at $2.50. WARRANTED KNIVES, worth up to $15, at $3.75. WARRANTED KNIVES, worth up to $20, at $5.00. WARRANTED KNIVES, worth up to $25, at $6.25. WARRANTED KNIVES, worth up to $30, at $7.50.

AMERICAN CUTLERY. Made in America, by American workmen, for Americans who appreciate quality and finish. We have contracted for 1200 dozen and are showing a great assortment. We want you to see and know the difference (other stores sell imported knives). To announce you we offer for one week, beginning Saturday, September 14th.

AMERICAN CUTLERY. Made in America, by American workmen, for Americans who appreciate quality and finish. We have contracted for 1200 dozen and are showing a great assortment. We want you to see and know the difference (other stores sell imported knives). To announce you we offer for one week, beginning Saturday, September 14th.

AMERICAN CUTLERY. Made in America, by American workmen, for Americans who appreciate quality and finish. We have contracted for 1200 dozen and are showing a great assortment. We want you to see and know the difference (other stores sell imported knives). To announce you we offer for one week, beginning Saturday, September 14th.

AMERICAN CUTLERY. Made in America, by American workmen, for Americans who appreciate quality and finish. We have contracted for 1200 dozen and are showing a great assortment. We want you to see and know the difference (other stores sell imported knives). To announce you we offer for one week, beginning Saturday, September 14th.

AMERICAN CUTLERY. Made in America, by American workmen, for Americans who appreciate quality and finish. We have contracted for 1200 dozen and are showing a great assortment. We want you to see and know the difference (other stores sell imported knives). To announce you we offer for one week, beginning Saturday, September 14th.