George J. Gould coming. Party of Missouri Pacific and D. & R. G. Officials bound this way. Chairman George J. Gould of the Rio Grande lines, accompanied by several Missouri Pacific and Rio Grande officials, and a private party of friends, is expected to arrive in this city tomorrow, or Friday at the latest. The special bearing the distinguished party is proceeding slowly and traveling by daylight and the exact time of its arrival here is problematical. OFFICIALS SCATTER: Railroad Men Leave Salt Lake for Their Various Headquarters. The last of the visiting railroad officials left Salt Lake at an early hour this morning, going over the Union Pacific for the East in a special train and inspecting the Aspen tunnel en route. In this party were President Burt and the Union Pacific and Chicago and Northwestern officials. The Southern Pacific and O. R. & N. parties left last evening after the close of the conference. Mr. W. W. Ewing, second vice-president of the Missouri Pacific, and Mr. Harding is general manager of that system. They succeeded J. Edward Simmons and Richard T. Wilson, who were elected to the Denver & Rio Grande board of directors. A meeting of the board for the election of officers will be held in New York early next month. Mr. Gould, who attended the meeting, today said that no change would be made in the officers of the company. He denied the rumors that he is interested in the Colorado & Southern, Colorado Midland or the Colorado and Rio Grande and Rio Grande and Rio Grande Southern. Mr. Gould and party, accompanied by President Jeffrey left this evening for Salt Lake and Ogden. Several stops will be made en route, and Mr. Gould will thoroughly inspect the Denver & Rio Grande and Rio Grande Western roads. Mr. Gould expressed a desire to do everything possible to stimulate transportation and encourage the industrial growth that is evident in Colorado on every hand. "Any efforts in Colorado and Utah will be devoted to the Rio Grande roads," said Mr. Gould. "We expect to place the Denver & Rio Grande and Rio Grande Western upon a standard as high level as can be attained on mountain railroads. I have always maintained a progressive policy, and believe that by always keeping up to date in rolling stock and round off I am increasing the value of the property."

Gus Desky, a bartender, was arrested last night for kicking up a row at his home, on Third South and Ninth East street. It is said while in a fit of mental aberration he went home last night and, dropping on his knees, began praying to his mother, who is in Germany. When his mother told his wife that he was going to kill himself, but first he would cut her throat, as she had to die also. An officer was sent to the scene and placed Desky under arrest and sent to jail. After he had been in jail some time Mrs. Desky appeared and secured his release. FAMILY TROUBLES. Mrs. McKee Says Her Husband Stole The Children. Greatly excited and crying piteously Mrs. James McKee rushed into the police station last night and started the desk sergeant with the intelligence that her husband had stolen her two children and was making an attempt to leave the city with them, and she implored the police to run him down and arrest him at once. According to the unhappy woman's story, she has been living with her husband ever since he was released from the state prison where he served three years for a burglary. When she found that while away from home yesterday he stole the children and was making away with them. She wanted the police to go out at once and arrest the man. The woman was informed that the little ones were as much her husband's as her's and that they had no legal right to interfere in the matter. Mrs. McKee then sought the advice of an attorney, going to the home of J. H. Moyle in a hack. She was told there that the only thing to do was to institute divorce proceedings and secure possession of the children through the courts. She took the attorney's advice, but declared her husband would not leave the city and she would prevent it and she thought she could. MRS. S. C. EWING GONE. Wife of the Landlord of the Cullen Dies of Cancer. Mrs. Lenora Myers Ewing, wife of Samuel C. Ewing, landlord of the Cullen hotel, passed away at the Holy Cross hospital yesterday after gradually sinking deeper into the shadow of death for the past few months. The great enemy of her life was a cancer in the stomach and the immediate cause of her demise was an operation on Monday preparatory to the removal of the cancer. She was not devoted to the gravity of her illness. She knew that she was undergoing an operation there was one chance in a thousand for her life, and she took that one chance without a tremor. When she died she had a serene smile upon her face she bade her husband and relatives a final adieu. Mr. S. C. Ewing was a very devoted husband and the taking of his companion has stricken him very deeply. The entire community extends to him its heartfelt sympathy. Her death was surrounded by Mrs. Emma Skages, of Sacramento, a sister of Mrs. Ewing, Mr. and Mrs. George Parks, Miss Alice and Frank Foote and Mr. Ewing. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from St. Mary's cathedral. Mrs. Ewing was born in Whesling, West Virginia on January 7, 1837, and in 1858 she married Samuel C. Ewing with her father, David Myers. She met Samuel C. Ewing in Virginia City, Nevada, and in 1865 she became his bride. The young couple went to White Pine, Nevada, where they lived for some time and when the Cullen opened in October, 1887, they assumed charge of that hotel, and have remained there ever since. Mrs. Ewing is survived by her husband, a sister, Mrs. Skages, and three adopted children, Mrs. George Parks and Miss Alice and Frank Foote. She was a good and charitable woman with a warm sympathetic nature which she mourned by all who knew her.

Wyoming Ranges. Sheepmen Are Jubilant Over the Good Grazing Prospects. Late reports from stock ranges of Wyoming are very encouraging. In all parts of the state there seems to be an abundant supply of grass, late rains having placed the range in prime condition for winter feeding. Cattlemen say the ranges are in better shape at the present time than ever before and are taking advantage of the condition. The prospect of higher prices in the spring will result in many cattlemen holding over until this fall. Rising prices for horses has caused the ranchmen of Wyoming to pay more attention to the animals, that formerly were permitted to run at large and rustle for themselves. A better grade of horseflesh is being raised now than formerly and as there is a home demand for draft horses many ranchmen are importing thoroughbred stallions and will breed up on this class of horses. Then the demand of the English and home governments for cavalry horses has had a stimulating effect upon the industry and the Wyoming horse of the future is commanded much higher price and will return to the grower handsome profits.—Laramie Boomerang. CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY Saved His Boy's Life. "I believe I saved my (nine-year-old) boy's life this winter with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says A. M. Hoppe, Rio Creek, Wis. WITH THE JUSTICES. Yesterday afternoon in Justice Kroeger's court, Charles Nickols, an aged man who was arrested several days ago, was tried on the charge of stealing a tent from J. E. The defense was that the tent was the property of the old man and was accused in order to shield the boy. A jury composed of Thomas Nott, John Brown, Oscar Greshell and Frank Hyde found the defendant not guilty. It Girdles the Globe.
