

GERMANS RABID ON CHAMBERLAIN

His Edinburgh Speech Stirs Up Their Entire Press.

A WARNING FROM BELGIUM.

Danger of a Universal Anglo-Saxon Alliance—Inquiry Into Conduct of the War to be Demanded.

New York, Oct. 28.—Mr. Chamberlain's speech at Edinburgh last Friday evening, says the Berlin correspondent of the London Times and the New York Times, has evoked a perfect storm of indignation protest.

The Neueste Nachrichten says Mr. Chamberlain ought long ago to have withdrawn into private life.

The National Zeitung says that Great Britain treats the Boers, who are still in military sense, masters of the country as though they were assassins. The Tasseltalks of "Butcher" Kitchener of the barbarous hounding of defenseless women and children in the shambles of the English concentration camps.

A WARNING FROM BELGIUM.

New York, Oct. 28.—According to the Brussels correspondent of the London Times, the independence of Belgium says the nations of the continent are paving the way for a situation that is likely to breed a new universal dislike, says that newspaper, and may make a supreme effort to consolidate the Anglo-Saxon race the world over whereby Europe's commercial and industrial supremacy would be seriously threatened.

AN INQUIRY WANTED.

New York, Oct. 28.—Nothing has been heard for some time of the promise made by the government to institute an inquiry into military operations in South Africa particularly in reference to the Middel river and Natal campaigns, says the London correspondent of the Tribune. The promise was expected at a time when untoward events at the seat of war were stirring up popular feeling in England, but the cause which led to it has passed into a dead letter. An official inquiry wanted considerably. Recent revelations in the Buller controversy have awakened recollections of the promise and the matter will be raised as soon as parliament meets. The government will be asked to include in the scope of the inquiry all the operations in which British troops are being made against certain British officers in respect to their conduct towards the troops under them.

A CAPTURE OF BOERS.

New York, Oct. 28.—Discussing the recent reported capture of Boers, the London correspondent of the Tribune says: "Too much importance is not to be attached to the reported capture of 200 Boers in the Rustenberg district. The men were mostly unarmed and apparently engaged in cultivating the fields, presumably to provide food stuffs for their belligerent comrades."

TO BOYCOTT BRITISH.

New York, Oct. 28.—The Brussels correspondent of the London Times and the New York Times says the agitation among the Dutch people in Flanders in favor of boycotting British commerce has succeeded in arousing a certain amount of notice in the Dutch press. The Dutch papers are almost unanimously endeavoring to dissuade the dock laborers from attempting to put their project into execution, saying it must end in harming those whom it is intended to benefit. It is generally admitted that an attempt to boycott British vessels at Rotterdam would mean ruin for local interests.

STEAMERS FROM NOME.

They Bring 1,200 Passengers and $500,000 in Gold.

Port Townsend, Wash., Oct. 28.—Two steamers have arrived from Nome bringing over 1,200 passengers, the Senator bringing $500,000 in gold. The Senator sailed from Nome October 19 with $500,000 in gold. For several days before sailing snow was falling, ice had formed and preparations were being made for a long, cold winter. When the Senator sailed the Queen was at Nome and the Roanoke was at St. Michael and a furious northern gale was blowing. The Queen, Valencia and Roanoke will be the last steamers from Nome. They will bring about 200 people and there are many more who would return if transportation could be secured, besides the number of destitute who will be compelled to remain at Nome and face an arctic winter, depending upon charity.

There are murders added to the list of crimes in the north. A man named Johnson, who had been engaged in freighting at Chituk, was found with a hole in his head and a (verything points to murder and Johnson as Johnson was known to have a large amount of money but nothing was found on his person among his effects. The tragedy occurred at Chituk, October 14.

W. C. Beall, colored, attempted to save a woman. Her screams brought to her assistance A. J. Bescher, who saved the woman's life. He shot and killed Beall.

THE ODYSSEY OF MISS HELEN STONE

Graphic Account of the Capture by One of the Captured.

THE BRIGANDS ARE TURKS.

Lady Will be Found Within Ten Days, It Also, Says Bulgarian Chief of Police.

New York, Oct. 28.—A special to the Press from Boston says: Under the caption "The Odyssey of Miss Helen Stone," the Evening Post of Sofia, Bulgaria, copies of which have just been received in Boston, publishes a description of the capture of the American missionary. The article contains an interview with Konstantin Pishin, the Bulgarian horse keeper, whose horse was ridden by Miss Stone and her party when they were held up by the brigands from the frontier. It thus describes the capture:

"We were traveling from Bansko to Djumay (both are in Turkish territory) upon the mountain road. In the place known as Gradovo, there suddenly appeared ten men, who, covering us with mauls, called out 'teslim oluy' (Turkish for surrender)."

"We were all horseshod, six women and three men, including Grigo Tsalika (the husband of Mrs. Tsalika), and the student Dimit Kostov. All were dismounted and were driven straight up the mountain. The place was impassable. The saddles of the horses and even the clothes of the woman were scratched and torn to shreds by the heavy underbrush."

"About 500 meters from Leaning Rock our captors were joined by twenty-two more Turks and Amapas, who searched the women and took away their watches and other valuables on the spot. Miss Stone had about fifty lire Turkish with her. Then they led off Miss Stone and Mme. Tsalika and left the rest of us under a guard of fifteen men. There we remained all night under pain of being shot if we stirred. When day broke came we saw that the guard had vanished and we went to Nahonia. The brigands spoke only Turkish. On the day after my arrest in Mahonia, I was taken before the kazi, who urged me to say that the brigands were Bulgarians. This I refused to do, because I did not wish to perjure myself. Then they put me on the ground and beat me with rods and kicked me until I was unconscious."

"On the next day the Turkish soldiers captured all the wood cutters in the mountains of Gradovo and massacred the men, while the women and children were driven to Djumay in chains. After three days I was released and succeeded in making my way to the mountains and then escaped into Bulgaria."

"In another issue the Sofia Post prints an interview with a Macedonian, a countryman who made his escape from Turkish territory into Bulgaria."

The Post quotes the refugee as saying: "In the town of Gradovo, fifteen townsmen were arrested and driven in chains to Djumay where they were subjected to fearful tortures in prison. In the village of Sahnovo peasants were seized and their feet placed in vices. After each tightening of the screws they were urged to establish confession identifying the brigands as Bulgarians. In many other villages the same barbarous acts are being practiced, all on the pretext of trying to locate the captured American."

WILL BE FOUND IF ALIVE.

New York, Oct. 28.—According to the Sofia correspondent of the Journal and Advertiser, Col. Kancheff, prefect of the Bulgarian police, has made the following statement regarding Miss Stone, the missing missionary: "If Miss Stone is living she will be found within ten days. Three different parties are now enroute to establish communication with the brigands. Dickinson has sent two young men from Sofia. They are Macedonians and know the country well. A party of five has gone from Samakov with the same object. They are former pupils of Miss Stone and volunteered for the trip. Mr. Dickinson says all expenses are paid and that one sent by the Russian minister."

"This is the most mysterious affair we have had since the court photos. A soldier in the western plains would be on his guard always against the redskins, but they cannot dissemble. They may ambush a man and rush you at night, but they don't know how to play the amingo trick, as did the Filipinos."

"That the Filipino is a past master in treachery I soon learned after getting into the field over there. Consequently I decided to be as severe as

THE MASSACRE IN SAMAR.

Capt. S. O. Connor Says Americans Can't Conceive of Treachery There.

New York, Oct. 28.—Capt. S. O. Connor, a former captain in the Ninth Regiment of the national guard, who has just returned from the Philippines, where he did service as a captain in the Forty-sixth volunteer Infantry, said in an interview upon the subject of the massacre of the Ninth United States Infantry on the island of Samar: "The American people can form no idea of the treachery of the natives. Such a body of fighters as the American Indians are never would have been caught in such a trap by the Indians. The Indians never have learned to play the friend like the Filipinos. A soldier in the western plains would be on his guard always against the redskins, but they cannot dissemble. They may ambush a man and rush you at night, but they don't know how to play the amingo trick, as did the Filipinos."

VOYRON AND VON WALTERSEE

While in China Their Relations Were Very Strained.

New York, Oct. 28.—The Paris Matin, says the Paris correspondent of the London Times and the New York Times, published three letters written by Gen. Voyron, who commanded the French force in China, to field Marshal Count von Waldersee. The letters show the strained relations during the period of the foreign occupation, were the relations between the French general and the commander-in-chief of the allies. The publication remains the correspondent, is significant, because it must be by the consent of Gen. Voyron or some authorized colleague of that general. The letters show the French right to protect Catholic missions which Count von Waldersee contested. The second letter, replying to the field marshal's protest against numerous French flags run up between Peking and Pao Ting Poo, says that the French occupation does not exclude other powers except where French rights are exclusive. The third letter criticizes Count von Waldersee's schemes for organizing the government of Peking.

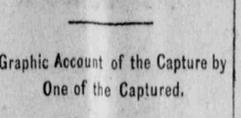

To Welcome York in London.

New York, Oct. 28.—Arrangements for the reception of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York are being rapidly completed, says the London correspondent of the Herald. The king's authorities are finding some difficulty devising a fitting welcome to their future sovereign and his wife, says the Tribune's London correspondent. The king has been consulted on the matter to ascertain whether an organized city welcome would be consonant with his majesty's desires. No decision has yet been arrived at, but it is not unlikely that there will be a banquet and ball at the Guildhall in honor of the royal tourists.

Military Roads in Andes.

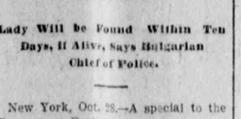

New York, Oct. 28.—The Valparaiso correspondent of the Herald says that the Chilean government has shown that the "military roads" which the newspapers of Argentina say Chile has been building in the Andes are only narrow pathways intended to facilitate the work of surveying by the boundary commission. It is claimed that the relations between Argentina and Chile are as friendly as ever.

TWENTY-FIVE INSURGENTS

Constabulary Kill Them Near Pasing, Province Of Iloilo, Panay.

Americans Are Aggressive—Manifestations in Samar Believed to be Due to Lack of Food.

Manila, Oct. 27.—The constabulary report a fight with insurgents near Pasing, province of Iloilo, island of Panay, in which twenty-five insurgents were killed and a quantity of arms and ammunition captured.

News from Gen. Hughes regarding conditions in Cebu is encouraging. Lorega has surrendered with his entire force and one cannon and seven rifles, while Gen. Hughes is negotiating for the surrender of Maxillo, who styles himself "governor politico-militar." His surrender will mean the pacification of the province.

Lack of food and the harassing effects of the aggressive tactics now pursued by the American forces are having their influence upon the natives. In many places where rice is sowed out by the government only enough is given for one meal, so that it is hardly possible for the natives to find their way to the insurgents.

It is believed that the recent manifestations in the island of Samar were chiefly due to the lack of food. The insurgents finding it necessary to make outlets to the coast in order to obtain this.

The first labor problem arising out of the new tariff has arisen in a hat and umbrella factory, employing 60 hands. It has found it necessary to close. The lawyers are making a protest to the constabulary upon the matter. The same goods from Germany can be sold at half the price it takes to manufacture them here.

Mie Lou Van Schalk reports that in an attack by insurgents on the municipal police and scouts at Sanga, one scout was killed and two of the police were wounded. The insurgents secured two Krag-Jorgensen rifles, two shot-guns and 200 rounds of ammunition.

Leut. Van Schalk has been ordered to occupy the island of Sanga. Dispatches from Calabanga, Samar, say that stringent and energetic measures are being taken to suppress the insurrection in that island. The constabulary has notified all the presidents of the pueblos that the most severe render all arms and turn over the persons implicated in the Balingas massacre before November 6, threatening that otherwise the presidents will be sent to the island of Guam. The villages destroyed and the property confiscated.

Walter has been stationed at Balangiga and Basey and ten constabulary are vigilantly patrolling the Samar coast. Most of the towns in the southern part of the island have been despoiled. Naval Cadet Loveman has been commanding the gunboat Marlin, who was ordered to occupy the island of Samar to prevent another outbreak by the insurgents. He was shot and his revolver was shot and killed.

New Witness Against Patrick.

New York, Oct. 28.—Two new witnesses have been found by the prosecution in the case against Lawyer Albert T. Patrick charged with the murder of William Marsh Rice. The district attorney refuses to give their names, but they will corroborate the testimony of Vulet Jones. One of these witnesses is learned, returned from Europe only a few days ago, on the request of the district attorney. He is a "fixer" and said to be a distant relative of Rice. Dist. Atty. Philbin will notify Patrick and Moore, counsel for Patrick, this week that he will move the case for trial the first week in December. There is a possibility that he will have the case transferred to the original branch of the supreme court.

S. F. Timmer, Rancho Killed.

Townsend, Mont., Oct. 27.—Ben Kimber, a well known ranchman, was about nine miles below here one from his ranch this morning and gave himself up to Sheriff Pool, saying that he had self-defence. Kimber had killed a neighboring rancher by the name of Jacob F. Timmer last night. Kimber was locked up.

According to the story told by Kimber, he and Timmer have been having trouble for some time, in consequence of the latter's attempts to lease of a road leading to Kimber's ranch. Yesterday afternoon Kimber, accompanied by his wife, came into the city on business, and when they returned to their home, they found that Timmer had constructed a fence across the road.

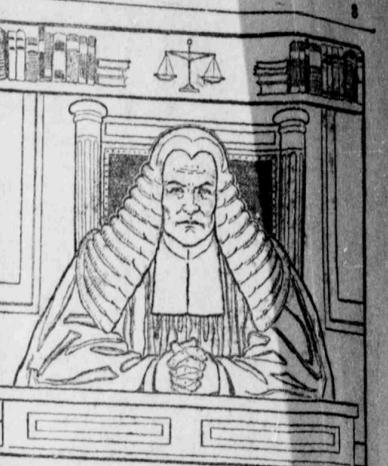

Kimber immediately went west, got an ax and a shotgun and, after dark, began to cut down the fence. He had been at work but a few minutes when Timmer appeared on the scene carrying a gun.

A quarrel immediately ensued, which ended in Kimber emptying his load of buckshot into the breast of his neighbor. Kimber then went west, leaving the body of his victim alone in the lane.

Helena Highwayman Captured.

Helena, Mont., Oct. 27.—The police tonight captured the highwayman who held up the Dewey saloon at the Haymarket square last Friday night after a running fight and after he was badly wounded by a shot in the neck.

The officers had been waiting the man for two days and on evening Acting Chief Farnum followed him to a saloon. As he was about to leave Farnum said he would like to stop for a moment. The man pulled his gun and fired at the officer, but the shot went wide. Then the highwayman started to run down Broadway, with the officer in pursuit. Farnum fired twice, when he stopped at the corner. The pursuit was taken up by Jack Flannery, lately of the Yuma jail team and now a constable here. Flannery caught the man and a severe struggle ensued. While it was in progress Farnum came on and together they overpowered the man and took him to jail. It was found he had been shot through the neck, but the wound is not considered dangerous. After his wound had been dressed the robber said his name was Frank Aken and that he lived at 321 South Arizona street in Butte. "You got the right man, all right," he said. "I was looking for another one on the sabbath in Butte Thursday night." Aken is about 23 years old, appears to be a man of education and is well dressed.

COZLOGOZ'S BELONGINGS.

After Execution They Will All be Burned Up. Agurn, N. Y., Oct. 27.—The time that Leon Cozlogoz, assassin of President McKinley, has to live is reckoned by hours now, but there has been no relaxation of the stringent rule by which the prisoner has been secluded since his arrest. The prison was closed today to any who sought the assassin, and so it will remain until the prisoner has paid the penalty that the law exacts. In fact the plan to deprive Cozlogoz living of any notoriety has been extended to deprive Cozlogoz dead of notoriety.

Immediately after the execution the clothing of the murderer, with the vast accumulation of money that came to the prisoner, will be burned, and if possible the request of the parents of the dead man for his remains will be evaded. It is feared that the removal of his body to Cleveland would lead to scenes of an unfortunate nature, and the prison officials are very anxious to avoid anything of the kind. The plan of burning the clothing and letters of the murderer will prevent the exhibition of relics by those who pander to the morbid.
