The first regular general meeting of the Commercial club is called for next Saturday night, when general matters of profit Henry will be discussed.

Prof. Henry J. Cox of Chicago, who is in charge of the weather station there, is expected in this city shortly, en route to the Yellowstone park on a vacation.

The shipping of the new engine and considerable machinery for the Z. C. L. Co. is delayed considerably by the labor strikes in Milwaukee.

It reports are true, Fred D. Ulmer, has given his friends a little matrimonial surprise. He took a vacation trip to El Paso, Texas, and now it is stated that he is en route back to Salt Lake with an El Paso girl who has changed her name to Mrs. Ulmer.

Last night the council committee on irrigation voted to recommend the adoption of A. J. Davis' resolution authorizing the construction of a pipeline from the nearest point of the Parley's canyon conduit to the city canal at the intersection of Eleventh East and Twelfth South streets.

Rev. I. N. Clark and family of Kansas City, are visiting in this city for a few days. The doctor is the southern district missionary of the American Baptist union of Boston, and his field of operations extends over Kansas, Oklahoma, Indian Territory, Colorado and Utah. He will preach in the First Baptist church Sunday morning.

Ben Trapp and W. H. Vandoren have returned from a camp out at Grand Encampment, Wyo. They report the fishing so good that it is no chore to catch 100 fish in one day, and every body in that country is eating the best and finest fish obtainable. Grand Encampment is becoming quite a settlement, although 60 miles from the railroad, the mining interests there are decidedly promising.

A telegram received at the office of President Joseph F. Smith from the Dominion Steamship company announces the arrival of the steamship New England at Queenstown at 2 p. m. This morning the passengers were Serge E. Campbell, K. A. Cushman, Frank Foster, of Salt Lake; Oluf Peterson of Brigham; A. A. Robinson of Provo; H. A. La Font of Logan, and other Utah passengers.

The meetings will have a barbecue at Laagoon on Aug. 29. This was decided at a banquet held last night. The expectation is to make it one of the biggest days of the season. Feathers will be barbecued and something like 1,000 pounds of beef will be taken out. There will also be arranged a program of sports and amusements. Arrangements will be perfected on Aug. 29, and the general committee at Marriott's market.

Rev. Dr. Paden at last evening's mid-week meeting in the First Presbyterian church, expressed his belief that McCaslin was not insane, and that he was perfectly responsible for his actions. Those who appointed McCaslin as Mar Peters. The doctor took no stock in the temporary insanity plea so often urged in extenuation of murder, and said that if there were a few temporary insanities to accompany this temporary insanity doctrine, it would be better for the country.

There will be a civil service examination in this city Sept. 9-10 for the position of acting assistant surgeon in the marine hospital service. The appointees to be stationed at Shreveport, La., at $900 per annum; also, for the position of interpreter in the German, French, Polish and Italian languages for the immigration service, at $1,200 per year; also Oct. 21, for the position of junior architectural draftsman, at $400 per annum in the office of the supervising architect of the treasury.

There will be no inquest over the remains of Peter Jones, the hostler's helper, who was killed while loading coal in a chute at the Short Line depot late Wednesday night. An investigation as to the method of his death was made yesterday, developing the fact that he probably met death by falling from the top of the fender and striking his head on a rail, rather than by being struck on the head by a falling piece of coal, as first believed. Acting Coroner Nielsen decided that an inquest would be necessary, that the case was plainly one of accident. The body will be shipped tomorrow morning to Springfield for burial.

The Twelfth and Twenty-second batteries stationed at Fort Douglas, marched to the mouth of Little Cottonwood canyon this morning for an extended season of target practice. There is no fair show for artillery work in the immediate vicinity of the post, so this trip is taken to secure the desired practice, and the commanding officer of the battalion, Major Callif, is satisfied that good work will be done. According to the new regulations, the size of a light battery is six guns, 50 horses and 100 men, so the two batteries with all the equipment, were sent to the canyon, and duly impress the residents of Granite stake.

"BIVALVES" TO ARRIVE TOMORROW

Big Herd of Baltimore Elks Due In the Morning.

FIRST OF THE REGULARS. The first bunch of real live Elks to browse into Salt Lake will be the bucks from Baltimore. They are coming 100 strong and are expected to arrive about 8:30 in the morning.

HE DREW A KNIFE. This morning John Buford, a colored porter with too much whiskey aboard, staggered into John Barnhart's restaurant on Commercial street and demanded breakfast. Barnhart was wise and informed the colored man that he could get nothing if he did not have the money with him.

FOUND COUNTERFEIT COIN. Wednesday afternoon B. R. Haddock, watchman at the Woolen mills on Fifth North and Third West, found six counterfeit $1 pieces. They were lying on the ground where some one had evidently been taking a rest and dropped them out of his pocket.

OTHERS EXPECTED. It is expected that the Saratoga Springs and Des Moines delegations from the Elks on the grand lodge officers' special train and the herd from Baltimore. It is anticipated that visitors and delegates will arrive in small numbers on the regular train from Salt Lake until the first day of the reunion.

CARRIAGES ORDERED. The executive committee has ordered the carriages for the governor, state officials, and other officials and the grand lodge officers can review the two street parades. After the carriages containing those dignitaries have traversed a portion of the route, the grand lodge officers, they will fall out at a designated place, and from their seats in the vehicles review the column as it passes by.

WILL HEAD PARADE. Chief of Police Paul has notified the executive committee that he and a platoon of mounted police will head both parades. The chief will ride a horse and direct the movements of his men. The parades will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday mornings.

HAD BRAIN FEVER. Concerning the sickness of Elder Leslie C. Atwood of Vernal, Utah, which terminated later in his death, Elder W. B. Erickson writes from Ackland, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was cured without having a doctor. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world."

HAD SKELETON KEYS. Ira Smith, the man upon whom was found a set of very fine skeleton keys, was a member of the Elks club in Salt Lake. He was tried this morning on the charge of having burglar tools in his possession.

GOT WHAT HE WANTED. Geo. Mellen, a laborer, started out this morning with the avowed intention of setting a fight and got it sooner than expected, although it was somewhat short and decisive. He was pretty well holed with lead and was carried roughly into a man in front of the Lincoln house.

CALL FOR TEACHERS. President Paul of the Latter-day Saints University says that he has lately received more calls for school teachers in various country districts than he has been able to supply.

HEADQUARTERS REMOVAL. This evening the executive committee will move its headquarters from the main building to the new building on Commercial street.

THE SATURDAY "NEWS" Will Contain an Interesting Article on The Smith Genealogy.

Topfield and the Smith Family Genealogy, is the subject of an interesting article which will appear in tomorrow's issue of this paper. The article is profusely illustrated, showing the old home of the Smiths in Massachusetts, and gives verbatim, copies of wills and other documents drawn up by members of that historic household as early as the seventeenth century. It is the direct result of a recent visit to the east of Joseph F. Smith, Jr., and L. A. Wilson, and as it deals largely with family history will be of especial interest to thousands of Latter-day Saints. Besides this and other special features, the paper will contain its regular local and telegraphic news, making the issue as a whole one well worthy the consideration of the reading public generally.

BINGHAM STAKE. Members of First Presidency Will Attend Conference at Lewistville. Members of the First Presidency, it is expected, will attend the Bingham stake conference, which convenes at Lewistville, Idaho, on Sunday and Monday next. Those going will likely leave here on Saturday night.

END OF LONG ILLNESS. George M. Dallas Released From His Suffering. George M. Dallas, brother of Architect S. E. Dallas, died this morning at the home of his mother, 116 North First West street. Mr. Dallas was 38 years old, but had been an invalid for 50 years.

FOUND COUNTERFEIT COIN. Wednesday afternoon B. R. Haddock, watchman at the Woolen mills on Fifth North and Third West, found six counterfeit $1 pieces. They were lying on the ground where some one had evidently been taking a rest and dropped them out of his pocket.

AMUSEMENTS. There was the anticipated rush for "Corianton" seats when the box office opened this morning. A big crowd was in attendance, and up till the hour of 10 o'clock, there was no cessation in the demand for tickets. The highest priced seats, in the $1.50 sections, were those in which there was the liveliest traffic, and the demand was distributed over the entire week.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL. Last Wednesday at noon, President Winder of the Salt Lake Temple performed the ceremony of uniting Hazel Jones to Mr. Geo. W. Bailey. Miss Jones is the daughter of Bishop Geo. R. Jones of the Twenty-third ward, this city. Mr. Bailey is a graduate of the D. S. college and returns to his home, Juarez, Mexico, to accept an important appointment in the Stake academy of Juarez. The evening preceding the wedding, members of the Sunday school, Y. L. M. A. and a choir assembled at the meeting house and presented their departing friend and co-worker with a silver cake dish, on which was inscribed their compliments and good wishes. On Wednesday afternoon a pleasant reception was tendered the happy couple by Mr. and Mrs. Jones at their residence in the Twenty-third ward, where a dinner was served and the guests were entertained to the reception were the following: Mr. and Mrs. Albert Unger, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Barlow, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. David Jones, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. M. A. and Mr. P. S. Pennington, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Starley, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lundin, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Mueller, Mrs. Carrie Flowers, Mrs. Annie H. Hicks, Mrs. Julia and Ella Folom, Ella Herridge, Hannah Lundin, Hattie Barlow, Mary Barlow, Pearl Barlow, Naomi Unger, Mrs. Alf. Lindstedt, J. Hicks, Jos. White.

Diminished Vitality. Some people talk very flippantly about diminished vitality. They don't stop to think that vitality is the principle of life—that it is that little understood something on which every fiber of their bodies depends. Diminished vitality is early indicated by loss of appetite, strength and endurance, and Hood's Sarsaparilla is the greatest vitality.

Not Over-Wise. There is an old allegorical picture of a girl seated at grasshopper, but in the act of heedlessly trodding on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose cyclone finds outworn those of the cyclone first.

A Worm Killer. J. A. J. Montgomery, Pueblo, Wayne Co., Mo., writes: "I have had my twin girls with it for several days. Both worms all their lives. I tried everything to relieve them which failed until I used White's Cream Vermifuge; the first two doses brought out four worms, one of them measuring twelve inches; the other child was only relieved of four worms. It is a most excellent medicine for children. It not only destroys worms, it helps the child to perfect growth, wards off sickness. 25c at Z. C. M. I. Drug Store.
