

RACE IS HOT FOR CONGRESS

But Daniel Harrington Says He Will Win on Second Ballot.

ABOUT OTHER CANDIDATES.

Ogden Convention Will Tell the Story On Sept. 11, that Many Would Like To be Able to Read Now.

The Republican state convention at Ogden promises to develop some interesting situations. Of course, the principal fight is centered in the congressional nomination, which, up to date, no less than half a dozen candidates claim. Those in the field for the nomination are Daniel Harrington and James Devine of Salt Lake, Joseph Howell of Cache, W. D. Livingston of Sanpete, and a number of receptive candidates among whom are mentioned George A. Smith, Receiver of the United States land office and George L. Nye, city attorney of Salt Lake. A few others are incidentally mentioned, but these are the men whose names are receiving anything like serious consideration. The first four claim sufficient support to nominate, the only question with them being the size of their respective majorities. For instance, one of the gentlemen, Mr. Harrington, said today: "I feel absolutely certain that I shall win out in the convention, as my friends have rallied to my support to such an extent that with me it is only a question of majority. I expect to win on the second ballot."

The friends of some of the others were heard to make similar statements, all of which goes to show that the Republicans are by no means a pessimistic aggregation. In fact, the very contrary is true, for all expect to win, despite the fact that there is room for but one of them. Therefore it will be an interesting fight, with honors at present about even. As stated in the "News" several days ago, the order of business in the convention will cut some figures in the congressional nomination. If the supreme judgeship comes first and goes to an outside man, then Salt Lake, it is said, will sail in and demand the nomination for Congress. If otherwise the contest will be open to all comers with odds in favor of the most popular man. It is stated on good authority, and, in fact, quite generally believed, that Judge McCarty will be nominated for a seat on the supreme bench. This being so, Salt Lake should stand a good show for congressman, although it is said that Joseph Howell will not only bring a solid delegation from the north, but will also get a good deal of support from Salt Lake. Daniel Harrington, as already shown, considers his chances the very best as he has had assurances both locally and from the south that he is looked upon as the most logical candidate and that in consequence, he will receive all the support necessary to win. So also with Fire Chief Devine, who likewise with eastern vigor is vying for the nomination. It is stated on good authority that the delegates to the convention, for the most part at any rate, will go to Ogden absolutely unpledged. This being so, it is hard to conceive whom comes the assurance the respective candidates seem to be indulging in. If the delegations go unpledged it will simply mean that the fight will be a sort of free-for-all, out of which the best man will emerge the conqueror. For the past few days leading members of the party have been working on the Republican platform. This will commend President Roosevelt and his policy, it is said, and will especially mention the irrigation bill and the opening of the Indian reservations as federal acts, for which the people of the west are truly grateful. The platform is being prepared with considerable care.

POLITICAL POINTERS.

The meeting of the Democratic county committee, announced for today, has been postponed till Tuesday night next, to be held at the office of Judge Henderson. The friends of Fire Chief Devine met last night and discussed his Congressional candidacy. Ben Harris, Democrat, is reported to be out for sheriff. Amos S. Gabbott of Farmers ward, is mentioned as a probable candidate for county commissioner. Mr. Gabbott is a Republican. The Republican county committee was booked for a meeting at the Knutsford at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Congressman James E. Watson of Indiana was a visitor to Salt Lake yesterday. Mr. Watson is an out-and-out Republican and is recognized as an aggressive and fearless worker. Aelia Newkerk, it is now said, has assurances that she will get the Democratic nomination for Congress. Chairman Roylance of the Democratic state committee, was expected back from the east this afternoon.

DEATH OF JOHAN MYERS.

Friendly German Passes Away at County Infirmary. Johan Myers, a German 46 years of age, died at the county infirmary Thursday night of Bright's disease and was buried at the expense of the county. It is said he came here from Idaho about two months ago and has only been in the United States about a year, having come from Berlin. He was boarding at the American house, 45 east Second South street, and has been in poor health ever since he came to the city. He was unable to pay his expense, and on Thursday, parties connected with the rooming house applied to the board of county commissioners for assistance for the unfortunate man. He was accordingly taken to the infirmary on Thursday afternoon, but was in a dying condition when he was moved, and died that night. No trace can be found of any of his relatives and it is presumed that he had none. After his death it was discovered that he had a small amount of money over and above his funeral expenses. The commissioners are desirous of locating the relatives of the dead man so they can be informed as to his death.

FINE ORGAN RE-ITAL.

There was a fine concert given yesterday afternoon in the Tabernacle, which was marked by the performance of Mrs. Annie Post Pink, one of the best organ-

Making a Reputation

It takes more than a loud noise to make a reputation. A single, ringing blast will be heard at the time but it is a musical note or combination of notes that is remembered and appreciated. It depends entirely on the high quality of purity of a note as it does on the same features in a standard article. Take Baking Powder. It isn't because the Three Crown baking powder is sometimes very effective, but because it is always reliable that most people want it. Here are more excellent features combined in a single article than you often find contained in several viz: Strength, purity and economical in price. Your grocers sell Three Crown Baking Powder at following prices: 5 ounce can, 10c; 8 ounce can, 15c; 12 ounce can, 20c; 16 ounce can, 25c. Why not give it a trial?

COURT NOTES.

In the divorce case of Patrick Lynch vs Margaret Lynch, a Summit county case, plaintiff this morning submitted a proposition to Judge Stewart wherein he agreed to pay all expenses of defendant from Phoenix, Arizona, to this city, so that she could be here for the trial in lieu of further suit money. The court entered an order that, upon the payment of the expenses as agreed, the plaintiff be relieved from paying further suit money. Plaintiff's attorney was instructed, however, that the order heretofore made, allowing defendant $15 per month temporary alimony, was still in effect, and that plaintiff must keep up such payments. The Utah Association of Creditmen has filed an attachment suit against J. M. Gies, Jr., to collect $396.85 alleged to be due on assigned accounts for merchandise purchased by defendant from Rieger & Lindley, Hemenway & Moser, Kahle Bros., Nolden-Judson Drug Co., McDonald Candy Co. and the New York & Utah Paper company. The ground for attachment as set out in the affidavit of plaintiff is that defendant has concealed and is about to assign and dispose of his property with intent to defraud his creditors. For a consideration of 3,000, Susanne A. Chamberlain, administratrix of the estate of J. F. Chamberlain, deceased, today transferred to the Mountain Ice Co., the west half of lot 8, block 63, plat A. The property is located in the middle of the block bounded by Second and Third South streets and Fourth and Fifth West streets. The Mountain Ice company also transferred the same property to the Salt Lake Ice company for the same consideration. The structural engineer expected from Washington to investigate the foundation soil of the Federal building will be in town Monday. Colored portraits of Past Grand Exalted Ruler Pickett and Present Grand Exalted Ruler Cronk of the Elks, on leather have been hung up at Elks headquarters. Some of the Victor, Colo., Knights of Pythias, complained this morning of restaurants that had held them up, charging $1.15 for a single meal. The memorial building of the Latter-day Saints' university is now well up to the third story, and is making an imposing appearance. The management of the Utah Light & Power company is examining different locations, with a view to settling on the permanent site of the auxiliary plant that is to be built in this city. The corner stone of the new Rowland hall will not be laid before next spring, as it is difficult to get structural steel, and the cost of building material and labor is high. Rev. E. G. Adams, one of the pioneer workers in this section of the Baptist church, is in town from Sacramento, and preaches tomorrow in the East Side Baptist church. Mr. Adams preached the dedication sermon of that church. A convention of the American Institute of Bank Clerks has been called to meet in Chicago next month, and it is expected a representative will be sent from Salt Lake. The local chapter expects to open its fall meetings next month, and accomplish a good deal the coming fall. The Canyon road apartment house being built by Mrs. Holmes is now partly under roof, and will be ready for occupancy on contract time. The excavation on South Temple street for the larger apartment house is nearly completed. The Home Fire Insurance company has sent a representative to Pleasant Grove to settle for the fire of the Pleasant Grove Mercantile company. The company received word this morning of the burning of two large hay stacks near Provo belonging to Isaac Griswold. Mrs. E. G. Tuttle has rented her east
