George Jensen of Slade's court, has been arrested at the instance of his wife, who states he is insane in consequence of an accident, and has threatened her life so that she is afraid to live with him. Jensen is in the county jail pending examination.

In the last issue of the Police Gazette, there is a row of pictures of murderers awaiting the execution of the death penalty. Among them is a very striking likeness of Peter Manson, the convicted murderer of James H. Hay. The picture was sent to the Gazette by a Salt Lake officer upon request of the manager of the paper.

F. S. Murphy, local manager of the Utah Lumber company will be manager of a new lumber company just formed at Perry, Ore., which has acquired all the plant of the Grande Ronde Lumber company of that place and 40,000 acres of timber land, including 200,000 feet of pine timber. C. E. Murphy, brother of the manager, will represent his interests in Salt Lake.

The usual rural quietness of Murray was rudely disturbed yesterday, by a fight between two men named Russell and Thomas. While these two enterprising gentlemen were churning each other in the most approved style, Walter Moore took a hand also, and fired three shots from his revolver at Russell. His intentions were good, but his aim was bad, and it was another case of "never touched me."

Flash Commissioner Sharp notes with INTEREST THE RECENT ISSUING OF A CHALLENGE BY THE BLACK SHOOT GUN CLUB TO ALL COMERS TO SHOOT DUCKS WITH THEM.

He says that in view of the law prohibiting the use of hunting machines on a certain number of birds in his possession this challenge is attended with more or less risk; and that any attempt to carry out the shooting proposition suggests a number of things to be followed by arrests and prosecutions.

The faculty of the School of Applied Design for Women in New York City notified Miss Florence B. Jessup yesterday that there was a valuable scholarship awaiting her at the school. While Miss Jessup feels quite flattered at this entirely unexpected and un-sought-for honor, she will remain at her present post, as assistant instructor of manual training in the Salt Lake public schools. This offer of a scholarship is the result of Miss Jessup's high stand while a student at the institution.

Cashier George E. Ford of the Bank National City of Pocatello, is in town today. He says that Pocatello is short on working men, both laboring and skilled, so that during the day, the center of the city seems deserted because "everybody" is off at work. The mineral outlook is improving in the line of copper, gold and lead indications, and while there is no boom in progress there is a general advance that is highly encouraging. Mr. Ford remarks that not an hour passes during banking hours without some Salt Lake man calling at the bank.

A curious mistake has occurred in the order recently sent east by the Elks club to a general advance that is highly encouraging. The foreman of the department at the factory where the parts of the badges are combined, got the Salt Lake order and a Texas order mixed, and so he beheld when Secy. Raybold opened the box this morning, to examine the contents, he found that in place of the medallion containing the colored view of the Salt Lake Temple, there was an elk head and ribbon, but with the engraved inscriptions of the Texas Elk Keepers' association, below with the "Ione" emblem. The entire contract assignment will have to be returned and made over.

The Shoshone telephone connection will be completed tomorrow, with only the loss of one working day. General Murray said today that he had been ordered by the representatives of the Salt Lake, Boise, and Great Falls unions, and that the situation showed the possibility of such action as was taken at the Boise meeting, and for a general strike. As far as he could see it did not meet with the support of the men along the line. Mr. Murray said it was legitimate to expect that the men that the strike was brought about by peripatetic linemen, who, after causing all this rumpus, had quit the field and gone to other parts of the country.

The great show window panes for the northern annex of the Z. C. M. I. were placed in position this morning, and the annex will be entirely enclosed this week. The metal ceilings look very well, and are considered a great improvement on the old style of lathing. The metal ceiling is from 18 to 27 of an inch thick and is five times lighter than plaster, and absorbs the heat of 95 per cent per square yard to 25 per cent, the advantages of a metal ceiling, so marked that the difference does not mark the metal ceilings there is never any failure of plaster from the ceilings, and the immunity of the building from fire is greatly enhanced. The ceiling of the annex is cement, paved and a model in its way.
