

DESERET EVENING NEWS

WEATHER REPORT.

Record at the local office of the weather bureau for the 24 hours ending at 6 a. m. today:

Barometer reading at 6 a. m., 35.06 inches. Temperature at 6 a. m., 25 degrees; maximum, 27; minimum, 23; mean, 24, which is 6 degrees below normal.

Excess of daily mean temperature above the first of the month, 53 degrees. Excess of daily mean temperature above Jan. 1, 236 degrees.

Precipitation for the 24 hours ending at 6 a. m., trace.

Precipitation since the first of the month, 1.25 inch, which is 11 inch below normal.

Accumulated deficiency in precipitation since Jan. 1, 4.34 inches.

FORECASTS TILL 6 P. M. SATURDAY.

Local forecast for Salt Lake City and vicinity:

Fair tonight and Saturday.

For Utah: Forecasts taken at Denver, Colo.

Fair tonight and Saturday; warmer in north portion Saturday, colder in south portion tonight.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The storm is now central over Oklahoma. The crest of an area of high pressure now covers the Great Basin.

Excitement has occurred over Washington, Oregon and northwestern Montana. The range of temperature this morning is from 12 degrees at Calgary to 64 degrees at Galveston.

L. E. BARDOCK, Section Director.

TODAY'S TEMPERATURE.

Table with 2 columns: Time and Temperature. 6 a. m., 25; 7 a. m., 26; 8 a. m., 27; 9 a. m., 27; 10 a. m., 28; 11 a. m., 28; 12 noon, 28; 1 p. m., 28; 2 p. m., 28.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS.

is issued Mondays and Thursdays and contains of the cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

THE GREAT COUNTRY PAPER OF THE WEST.

is issued Mondays and Thursdays and contains of the cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

To-day's Metals:

SILVER, Bar, 45 5/8 cents. LEAD, $3.50. CASING COPPER, 10 3/4 cents a lb.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Rabbi Reynolds preaches tonight at the synagogue, taking as his text, "The public is invited." The public is invited.

Tonight the reception and ball in honor of the Stanford Weller will be given at Christensen's, and the event promises to be a successful one in all ways.

Mrs. Jacob Hamberger and Mrs. Sol Hugel yesterday remembered the patients at the Holy Cross hospital to the extent of a quantity of fruit and ice cream.

The Consolidated Railway & Power company has put an extra car on the seventh South line with the result that it is anticipated that better service will now be in order.

The fraternalism of stories and poems submitted for the Christmas "News" prize competition have commenced to arrive, and from now until Dec. 3, when the competition closes, the mail rush may be looked for.

A dispatch received from Elders L. F. Whitney and George Weller yesterday that they landed in Boston yesterday after 17 days on the water between Naples and that city. They are returning from a mission to Holland and expect to be home Wednesday night.

Dr. Henry F. Hoyt of this city left for St. Paul, Minn., Thanksgiving evening to attend the funeral of his youngest brother, Chas. C. Hoyt, a young mining engineer who died of typhoid fever at El Paso, Texas, Nov. 25. The doctor will accompany the remains from Omaha.

News of the accident to Percy H. Knight, formerly of this city, and later superintendent of an electric power plant at Seattle, says he was trying to rescue a workman from death after the latter had come in contact with a live wire, and the two men were horribly burned. The workman afterwards died so that after all Mr. Knight's sacrifice was in vain.

After following Dr. Lorenz from Rawlins to Salt Lake and from Salt Lake to St. Louis, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Bell were rewarded a few days ago. The anxious parents followed the eminent surgeon with the hope that he would operate upon their little daughter for congenital dislocation of the hip joint.

From a dispatch received it is learned that the child was successfully operated upon last Friday.

"Bob" Smith, formerly a well known waiter in Salt Lake, whose relatives and friends believed dead and buried, surprised everyone yesterday by showing up very much alive. About a year ago Smith was working in Patateo, Ia. He left for Butte one night and the next day the mangled remains of a man were found beside the track. They were identified as being those of Smith.

There were some disgruntled people on the east bench last evening after the football game. After contracting children through standing or sitting out to see some stars while watching the game, they were exceedingly surprised to find a string of open cars waiting to transport them back to town. After vying the snow off the westing crowd in the view of Great Salt Lake until the cars got ready to start, and then enjoyed the exhilarating breezes in their way down town, all for a zlick.

Zion's Savings Bank and Trust Company was established in 1874, and has since opened more than 25,000 savings accounts. Have you an account? If not, start one NOW.

JOSEPH F. SMITH, President. GEORGE M. CANNON, Cashier.

THE COMMERCIAL AND SAVINGS BANK.

Interest paid on savings. W. F. Armstrong, pres., Byron Groo, vice-pres., J. E. Cassler.

CHICAGO EXCURSION.

November 25th to 30th Inclusive. Round trip only $44.50. For particulars call at city ticket office, 201 Main Street.

LOW RATES EAST.

Chicago and return, $44.50. Selling dates Nov. 25th to 30th.

THE BEST ROCKY MOUNTAIN SCENERY.

Colorado Midland Railway Pullman Observation Cars Across Rockies by Daylight. Ticket Office, Dooty Block.

WARD ENTERTAINMENT.

Everybody is invited to see the magnificent cantata "Father Time," and the side splitting farce, "The Old Maid's Association." Nineteenth Ward meeting-house, tonight and tomorrow night at 8:15. Admission 25c and 10c.

LANDREAU'S School for Dancing.

No. 25—near 37, Third South. We dance to live. We live to dance. There are many dances and dancers.

WILL BE COMPILLED AND FULLY PICTURED FOR THE CHRISTMAS "NEWS." Issued Saturday, Dec. 20.

BLACKSMITH HELD UP.

Neil Nelson has an Experience With Two Highwaymen.

Neil Nelson, a blacksmith, residing at 834 Green street, was the victim of a hold-up on Wednesday night between 7 and 8 o'clock. The hold-up occurred on Sixth South street between Second and Third East streets, when Nelson was returning home from town.

He was walking rapidly along Sixth South and when near the middle of the block two men stepped out from the shadow of a tree and poked a gun in his face and ordered him to throw up his hands. He told the men that they must be pretty hard up, that he didn't have a cent. The man replied that they "needed the money" and they commenced to search him.

They seemed determined to find something of value, so after searching his pockets one of the men struck a match and looked to see if Nelson had any jewelry upon his person. His eyes noticed an imitation diamond scarf pin so he took that and handed it to his companion, saying that they needed half a dollar and if the pin was worth that amount Nelson could go. Nelson immediately hurried to his home.

Yesterday he called at the police station to see if he could identify any of the suspects held as the men who held him up, but he was unable to identify them. He did not report the affair until yesterday when he called to identify the men. He said that if the robbers had held him up when he was on his way to work he would have secured a good sum of money, as he had taken the money up town to pay off some men who were working for him and he was unable to return home when the robbers stopped him.

For a Bad Cold.

If you have a bad cold you need a good reliable medicine like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to loosen and relieve it, and to allay the irritation and inflammation of the throat and lungs.

The soothing and healing properties of this remedy and the quick relief which it effects make it a favorite everywhere. For sale by all druggists.

A HAPPY EFFORT.

Salvation Army Cleared My Hearts With Its Thanksgiving Dinner.

The Salvation Army made a most happy effort yesterday afternoon at their Thanksgiving dinner given in the army shelter on Franklin avenue. A decided feature was the big plum pudding for the newboys furnished by the waiters at the Tavern. The waiters passed around the hat and collected $5 in coins, which they distributed throughout the pudding. The division of this pudding "created intense excitement" among the newboys, and when one of the waiters handed out a slice from his slice—a four-bit piece, he gave a "wild hooray" and fell back almost in a state of coma. The other boys crowded around and there was "a hot time in old town tonight." After the newboys were delighted. There were many interesting episodes during the day, and some were very affecting.

One of the newboys, a young fellow, was dressing and cranberry sauce, cream potatoes, gravy, celery, pickles, jelly, bread butter, coffee and pudding. Of these 300 persons fed between 75 and 80 were newboys. After the dinner the Salvation Army sent out hot food to all the poor people living in the avenue and vicinity.

Stepped Against a Hot Stove.

A child of Mrs. Geo. T. Benson, when getting his usual Saturday night bath, stepped back against a hot stove which burned him severely. The child was in great agony and his mother called for nothing to pacify him. Remembering that she had a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in the house, she thought she would try it. In less than half an hour after applying it the child was asleep and asleep, and in less than two weeks was well. Mrs. Benson is a well known resident of Cedar, Va. Pain Balm is an antiseptic liniment and especially valuable for burns, cuts, bruises and sprains. For sale by all druggists.

For Over Sixty Years.

Mr. Wenzel's SCORPION BALM has been used for children's teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums and relieves the pain. 25 cents a bottle. The Laxative for Diarrhoea. 25 cents a bottle.

HAD A TIME.

James Connors and Wife Have a Thanksgiving Jubilation.

James Connors and his wife, Minnie, took on a cargo of fire water yesterday to celebrate Thanksgiving. They were separated from each other during their spree but late in the afternoon there was a Connors family reunion at the city jail. Connors was arrested first by an officer and lodged in jail on the charge of drunkenness. In addition to an hour later another officer arrested Mrs. Connors and took her to jail. When she was taken into the corridor she at once recognized her husband, who was endeavoring to sleep off his drunk and seemed very pleased to see him even if it was behind the bars. Connors and his wife will answer to the charge of drunkenness this afternoon before Judge Diehl.

Royal Bread.

Everybody who is Nothing beats it. Look for the label and ask your grocer for it every day. Health follows.

Dr. Henry F. Hoyt, Physician and Surgeon, 560 McCormick Block, Tel. office 235, K. Res. 1143 X.

EAST-BOUND EXCURSION.

Chicago and return, $44.50. Selling dates Nov. 25th to 30th.

THE BEST ROCKY MOUNTAIN SCENERY.

Colorado Midland Railway Pullman Observation Cars Across Rockies by Daylight. Ticket Office, Dooty Block.

WARD ENTERTAINMENT.

Everybody is invited to see the magnificent cantata "Father Time," and the side splitting farce, "The Old Maid's Association." Nineteenth Ward meeting-house, tonight and tomorrow night at 8:15. Admission 25c and 10c.

LANDREAU'S School for Dancing.

No. 25—near 37, Third South. We dance to live. We live to dance. There are many dances and dancers.

WILL BE COMPILLED AND FULLY PICTURED FOR THE CHRISTMAS "NEWS." Issued Saturday, Dec. 20.

PRIZES FOR THE CHRISTMAS "NEWS."

The Deseret News offers the following cash prizes for contributions to its Christmas edition to be issued Saturday, Dec. 30, 1922.

First, $50 for the best Christmas story, not to exceed 8,000 words (about seven columns of the "News" type).

Second, $25 for the best Christmas poem, not to exceed 1,200 words.

All contributions to be in the "News" office not later than Dec. 3, 1922. Nothing received later than that date will be considered. Contestants are requested to sign their contributions with an initial letter or a non de plume, to conceal their identity, and to forward in a separate envelope securely sealed, their real names and the initial or non de plume used. "Proper name of article." On the outside of the envelope should be written "Proper name of article." Here indicate the initial or non de plume used. All members of the "News" staff will be excluded from the contest. The awards for the story and the poem will be made by competent judges, to be announced later.

NO BUNNIES.

Consignment by J. Wash Young Failed Totally to Materialize.

That Thanksgiving rabbit deal between the mighty Nimrods of J. Wash Young and the Salvation Army of this city failed to materialize last evening, and thereby hangs a tale. The army representatives with two large box wagons were at the depot ready to gather in the bunnies for distribution to the poor when the train pulled in from the west; but, horrible to relate, there was not a single rabbit in sight. The army officials were thunderstruck, and when Capt. Young and his series column of Nimrods were seen, they appeared to be thunderstruck also. They just couldn't make it out, now. The army officials looked at the hunters, and the hunters looked at the army officials, and then everybody looked at each other and at everybody else. How did it happen? No one could tell. J. Wash and his cohorts declared "con migo vigore" and proceeded to run a bluff on the hunters, high with bunnies when the party left the bloody battlefield. But alas, attack and all failed in the attack and atmosphere.

There were those present unkind enough to aver that J. Wash and his nighty men of valor never shot any rabbits, at all, and that they were trying to run a bluff on the Salvation Army. But this was "vigorously denied." Then some one started a dim and misty story about unrecognized and high unalloyed bunnies having been seen at the R. G. W. crossing, dumping out the rabbits into the roadway. But no one could be found willing to swear that the story was true. Then it was claimed that the hunters on the Leamington out-of-stole the rabbits after the kind-hearted hunters had worked hard all day long to shoot them for the suffering poor of Salt Lake City. Anyhow, there were no rabbits, and the Salvation Army officials drove away empty of wagon and heart, and the suffering poor of Salt Lake City who had been sitting up all night, thinking of the glorious rabbit feast awaiting their yearning stomachs, experienced a sinking of the same in disappointment which will require several days of miscellaneous feeding to abate. Among the noble Nimrods who went out into Tooele valley yesterday, to sniff the brisk winter atmosphere and hunt for bunnies, were Jake Tateh, Will Harmon, John Taylor, John Back, John Samson, T. G. Clark, W. H. Sid-dons, T. C. Powell, R. W. Smith, Sr., and Richard Payporth, Jr.

Joe Enzensperger and his party had better luck at Cedar Fort, where they killed several hundred rabbits. This party was led by the late Capt. Fred, Lee Ranchoff, Lester Fred, A. D. Tobin, E. D. R. Thompson, William Barnett, John Langley, L. W. Dittman and Frank Mangum.

Mason Coal Co., 78 W. Second South. All kinds coal. Phone 173.

Big 4 Advertising Co., Tel. 1501. Signs, all sorts. 64 W. Third South.

CHICAGO EXCURSION.

November 25th to 30th Inclusive. Round trip only $44.50. For particulars call at city ticket office, 201 Main Street.

THE BEST ROCKY MOUNTAIN SCENERY.

Colorado Midland Railway Pullman Observation Cars Across Rockies by Daylight. Ticket Office, Dooty Block.

JOHNSON IN PRISON.

Sad Thanksgiving for a Young Man Convicted of Grand Larceny.

Edward P. Johnson was brought down to the state prison yesterday from Brigham City to serve a two year term for grand larceny. Johnson, who is only 30 years of age, has had rather an exciting criminal career for the past few months. In addition to the crime for which he stands convicted, he will also have to face a charge of forgery in Davis county on Saturday and will then have to face the same charge in the district court here. In last August Johnson was arrested here for forging the name of Joseph McLaie, a sheepman, on a check for $12.50, which he passed on a Commercial street clothing store. At the same time the Davis county sheriff was looking for him on the same charge, he having forged the same name to a check which he cashed at a Bonifant saloon. The man was arraigned before Judge Leihl and bound over to the district court under $200 bonds. The bond was furnished and Johnson was released. Shortly afterwards he went to Bountiful and induced his sweetheart, a 17-year-old girl, to elope with him. They came to Salt Lake and lived here several days and then went to Brigham City, where he stole a horse and buggy and the couple drove to Elko, Nev. The woman, who is not very serious, an ideal remedy for children. 2 C. M. I. Drug Store, 112-114 Main Street.

Chicago and return, $44.50. Selling dates Nov. 25th to 30th.

THE BEST ROCKY MOUNTAIN SCENERY.

Colorado Midland Railway Pullman Observation Cars Across Rockies by Daylight. Ticket Office, Dooty Block.

WARD ENTERTAINMENT.

Everybody is invited to see the magnificent cantata "Father Time," and the side splitting farce, "The Old Maid's Association." Nineteenth Ward meeting-house, tonight and tomorrow night at 8:15. Admission 25c and 10c.

LANDREAU'S School for Dancing.

No. 25—near 37, Third South. We dance to live. We live to dance. There are many dances and dancers.

WILL BE COMPILLED AND FULLY PICTURED FOR THE CHRISTMAS "NEWS." Issued Saturday, Dec. 20.

AMUSEMENTS.

It was pleasant to see the Tabernacle choir attract a big share of the patronage of the public for its California concert last night. The audience, while not a heavy one, was rather than the average turnout at Tabernacle entertainments. Equally pleasant to see that the choir of the standard strains of "Il Trovatore," which has delighted the last two generations of music lovers, still retained its charm, and that the undoubted gems of the work went for with as much applause and as keen a discrimination as ever. There was a tendency to drift back into the old tardiness in beginning, and there were some yawning choruses and vacant seats on the main side of the choir, but these were the only drawbacks, and everything else moved with delightful readiness, while the choir, ever if it was light in the male voices, did its work beautifully.

The soloists, who had the really difficult work to render, proved delightful surprises. Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and in the "Back to the Mountains" number with Miss Coomer's big voice was heard in fine advantage, especially in the opening "They took the poplars" rendered in noble style the familiar "Tempest of the Heart," for which he was heartily cheered. Another encore was given by Mr. Best, especially so, as his thoughtful and delicate high ringing work of the tenor part. In the prison scene however, and