

DEBATE ON ANTI-TRUST BILL

Just Crowds Listen to De Armond and Littlefield.

Trusts Not New Things.

debated in England two and a half centuries ago—History of Combinations Traced.

Washington, Feb. 6.—General debate on the anti-trust bill closed in the Senate shortly before 6 o'clock this morning. The debate had proceeded for 20 o'clock this morning. More interest was aroused as it proceeded and closing speeches by Mr. De Armond (Rep., Mo.) and Mr. Littlefield (Rep., Wis.) were delivered to crowded galleries and to a very full attendance on the floor. The closing, however, was void of brilliant pyrotechnics and emotional clashes.

Other speakers today were Messrs. Lawrence (Rep., Mass.), Parsons (Rep., N. J.), Tamm (Rep., Mo.), and Mr. Littlefield (Rep., Wis.).

Mr. Littlefield closed the debate for the majority. He said that no one in the majority believed that with the constitutional limitations a bill could be passed that would fully and adequately deal with the situation. But he believed that the situation was a "measure," and that he hoped it would address itself to the members of the house.

Mr. Littlefield created much amusement by reading a most extravagant and exaggerated account of the situation and then speaking of any gentleman on the other side, but from a speech of the John Calhoun, delivered in the House, he said, "just as we have been told. I call your attention to the fact that there was no protective tariff in those days."

He traced the history of combinations back to 2500 B. C., to show, he said, that combinations had always existed and that there had been an outbreak against them. He showed further that the right direction, helpful to the public in the three connections are corporations touched the people, as investors, creditors, and as consumers.

Mr. Littlefield said that he did not believe Congress should make over-capitalization. To do so, he said, would be to make a "measure" of the facts and the evils of over-capitalization would be a "fairly reasonable" measure.

Kansas for Canal Treaty. Topeka, Kan., Feb. 6.—A resolution directing the United States senators in Kansas to vote for the Cuban treaty and the Colombian canal bill passed both houses of the legislature today. No opposition to the treaty was shown in either house.

VERDICT IS S. W. PERRICK. Operates Conductor Parker and Blames Operator Clough. Tucson, Ariz., Feb. 6.—One of the jurors, the Culver jury, today rendered a verdict in the matter of the Southern Pacific wreck at Esmond. The jury found that 14 bodies were taken from the wreck, three of which were able to identify, and 11 of which are unknown to them. It completely exonerated Conductor Parker and passenger Clough, and placed the responsibility upon Operator Clough of the train crew of No. 7, the west-bound passenger train.

Bonds for Idaho Academy. Boise, Ida., Feb. 6.—The house today passed a bill authorizing an issue of $100,000 of bonds for the academy of Idaho. The bill provides that the bonds shall be secured by a portion of the land owned by the academy. The bill was passed by a vote of 21 to 10. The bill was introduced by Mr. Alfred Tennyson to the House on Feb. 4.

End of a Royal Romance. Geneva, Feb. 6.—The sudden end of the royal romance of Princess Louise of Saxony is said to be due to the refusal of the Saxon court, influenced by Emperor Francis Joseph, to consent to a divorce. It is reported that the princess sought her father's pardon in order to get permission to see her children, but was refused everything unless she left M. Girou. Her lawyer visited Dresden, but failed to get any concession beyond the promise of a small yearly allowance and the promise, if the crown princess gave up Girou and returned home that no legal proceedings would be taken against her. The princess, realizing at last her actual position, became ill and apparently was willing, if approached in a proper manner, to agree to any terms. On the return of her lawyer from Dresden today a prolonged interview between the parties took place, in the course of which the princess, in a torrent of tears, cried: "I must see my poor children again." Her parting with Girou is said to have been very affecting.

Great Meteor Seen in New York. New York, Feb. 7.—Many persons in different parts of the city whose view was unobstructed by high buildings were startled last night by meteoric fire which burst into a flame immediately over their heads and sped swiftly toward the south. From a point directly over the center of the city it sped south with marvelous speed, its first white lightning away to a fine point of flame.

Big Fire in Cincinnati. Cincinnati, O., Feb. 7.—The building occupied by the Frank Unwehrer cigar factory at the southwest corner of Seventh and Chay streets, was entirely destroyed by fire this morning. Loss $75,000.

Mrs. Frank E. Shaw of Butte Dead. Denver, Colo., Feb. 7.—Mrs. Frank E. Shaw of Butte, Mont., is dead at St. James hospital in this city from the effects of an operation. Mrs. Shaw was a sister of the late Mrs. William A. Clark, Jr., who died at Butte recently. Her illness was watched at the bedside of Mrs. Shaw during her illness was William A. Clark, Jr., the son of Senator William A. Clark of Montana. The remains will be taken to Butte on Sunday next.

Mary McLane Declines an Offer. Boston, Mass., Feb. 6.—Mary McLane of Butte has declined an offer from an eastern publishing house to go to Europe and write her impressions as published. The young Montana author is living quietly in the Black Bay district and is engaged in literary work. Her book, "The Mountain," which she thinks will attract more attention than her book and will bring her a larger pecuniary reward.

Rapid Transit in London. New York, Feb. 7.—A royal commission has been appointed to consider the question of rapid transit in London. The commission is very comprehensive, and the work of investigation will probably last four or five months. The most important point to be considered is the question of establishing some authority or board for consideration of all railway schemes of a local character.

Chamberlain's Confers with Boers. Bloemfontein, Feb. 6.—Colonial Secy. Chamberlain today had a two-hour conference with a deputation of about 40 Boers of the extreme party, including Christian De Wet. The deputation presented an address, which, it is understood, Mr. Chamberlain rejected, at the same time rebuking the delegates for presenting the address, which he regarded as insulting, inasmuch as it argued the good faith of himself and the government.

Christian De Wet, who referred to Piet De Wet and Chris Botha as scoundrels, accused the government of contravening the terms of the Vereeniging agreement especially as regards the amnesty.

firm here and the Tobacco company which controls the British-American company. It was only a few weeks ago, however that the negotiations which led directly to the present deal were begun. The New Orleans handling plant, the largest under the control of the American Tobacco company at the present time will be transformed here and will be merged with the Matthews plant. Other business of a similar nature also will be transferred to Louisville. The new owners of the plant will incorporate, the capital stock being placed at about $2,000,000.

TO SAVE TOM HORN. Bill for That Purpose Introduced in Wyoming Legislature. Cheyenne, Wyo., Feb. 7.—An innocent appearing bill introduced in the Wyoming legislature on Jan. 31, is now credited with having for its purpose the saving of the life of Tom Horn, convicted of the murder of Willie Nickel, and who is now under sentence of death. The bill abolishes capital punishment for crimes now punishable by death to life imprisonment, against all sentences of death already pronounced and not executed at the passage of the act. The bill changes the punishment for crimes now punishable by death to life imprisonment, but seems to apply it only to crimes to be committed in the future. It is claimed by some that should it pass Horn could be released from prison on habeas corpus proceedings because the life imprisonment clause is not retroactive, as is the clause abolishing capital punishment and there would be no law under which Horn could be held. The bill is in the hands of the judiciary committee, the chairman of which was one of Horn's attorneys at the time of his trial.

AMERICA AND ENGLAND. Westminster Gazette Regrets That Should be Any Misunderstanding. New York, Feb. 7.—Referring to the arbitration of the Venezuelan difficulty, the Westminster Gazette says, according to the Tribune's London correspondent, it is a pity a serious quarrel between the two great friendly English-speaking powers cannot be amicably settled, and then remarks: "If, as seems likely, the United States each year, extends the scope of her diplomacy, her ministers will find themselves increasingly hampered by the power which the Constitution gives the senate."

Expensive Automobile Wrecked. New York, Feb. 7.—An $18,000 automobile was wrecked in Floral Park, L. I., yesterday, and its five occupants were injured, three of them severely. The machine was running along the Jericho turnpike, at a rapid rate, when it suddenly "skidded" and its occupants were thrown into the deep ditch by the side of the road. The automobile rolled and bumped through this ditch, and up on the other side it finally being stopped by a telegraph pole. It was completely wrecked. Two of its occupants had each his left shoulder fractured and another sustained a deep scalp wound.

A NEW CATTLE DISEASE. It is Making Havoc Among the Herds of Wyoming. Cheyenne, Wyo., Feb. 7.—State Veterinary Seabury has returned from the northern part of the state where he has been battling with unknown diseases among cattle and glanders among horses. Near Alladin in Crook county, 404 head of cattle died of an unknown disease, which it is believed has been checked. In Big Horn county, Mr. Seabury killed a number of sheep affected with glanders. Twice the officer had started home when he received telegrams announcing the appearance of the disease at other places than the one just visited, and he returned to stamp out the contagion.

Big Tobacco Plant Absorbed. Louisville, Ky., Feb. 7.—The Courier Journal this morning says: "The enormous plant of W. S. Matthews & Sons of this city, the largest re-handling tobacco establishment in the world, has been absorbed by the British-American Tobacco company, Mr. John V. Matthews, the head of the Matthews plant will leave today for New York to complete the final details of the deal which is the biggest of the kind for some time. All the main terms have been agreed upon, the purchase price being a number of millions of dollars."

Chances of New Department of Commerce Waning. WAIT FOR NEXT CONGRESS.

President Does Not Draw Color Line in Giving Out Offices—Cushman As a Humorist.

Special Correspondence. Washington, Feb. 7.—The chances are waning for the bill for a new department of commerce. This does not mean that it will not pass finally, but simply that every delay means that the probability of it becoming a law grows less as time goes on. The fact that it was not sent to conference directly after it passed the house was a tendency in the direction of defeat. It looks as if there was to be considerable discussion after the commerce committee of the senate reports it back, and such discussion is likely to be postponed as the business of the session become more and more congested. While the new department is considered of very great importance, it is not so necessary that it cannot wait for another congress, and the difference between the two houses continues or the opposition to the bill decides that it shall go over, then there is little hope for it. Being necessary for the government, it may be allowed to wait.

NO COLOR LINE. A flutter of talk was caused by the appearance at the White House of a few colored persons of both sexes. The reception was official, and, though it was considered social to a certain extent, yet the invitation was mostly to persons in official life, and the colored men were not or had been holding official positions in Washington. In giving them invitations the president, who has talked with him on the subject, emphasized to a great extent that in official life he sees no distinction in color. He has made appointments on that basis and has made it plain to men who have talked with him on the subject that no color line shall be drawn in his administration.

CUSHMAN'S LANGUAGE. When Representative Cushman of Washington talks, he is sure to give a demonstration of what the English language can do. Recently in supporting a bill for a dog and cat tax, Cushman came quite up to expectations and made a speech that ought to make Alaska famous. In closing the panegyric upon the territory he said: "Alaska, with its 600,000 population, composed of the cream of the Anglo-Saxon race, has no delegate on this floor, and the only legal tie that binds them to the stars and stripes is a federal tax collector in the midst of their domain."

SAD FATE OF "ICICLE IKE." "Then he told the story of an Alaskan prospector who was returning to the States, and he said: "He started for New York City. He had got along very well with the weather in Alaska, but when he started across the northern end of the United States in January, then he discovered, in a climatic sense, that he was getting next to the business end of the real thing. He was cold when he got to St. Paul, Minn., and he was colder when he got to Chicago, and he was frozen to death, stiff as an alpenstock, by the stove in the smoking car. (Cries of laughter.) The Chicago man, is a truthful recital of the sad and shocking end of 'Icicle Ike, the Coldest of Alaska.'" (Renewed laughter.)

"The gentleman allow me a question?" asked Representative Payne of New York. "Does he think it would be kind to bring a gentleman down from Alaska to such a cold country as this?" "If he did not have to go through the state of New York," said Cushman. "He would be all right." (Renewed laughter.)

"He would have to come through Washington state," said Payne, which Cushman replied: "The state of Washington—that is, the human body, is a beautiful thing, the orange blossom grow." (Renewed laughter.)

CANNON ON PHILIPPINES. Representative Cannon was asked why the Republicans did not treat the Philippines the same as they did Porto Rico and answered: "Because Porto Rico is not on all fours with the Philippines. Because aloes is good for a horse when he has the colic, does it follow that aloes is good for a horse when he is sick all over with bots and everything else?"

HOAR ON TELLER. During the early days of the deadlock in the Colorado legislature Senator Hoar, among others, was very much interested in Teller's recent speech in Massachusetts senator, "that Senator Teller is not to return. The senate would not seem natural with Mr. Teller's absence. He needs me, and he needs the senate, but notwithstanding, I would be very sorry no longer to have him in the senate."

MORTUARY REPORT. January Deaths Fewer in Number Than in December—Other Figures. The mortality in Salt Lake City shows a favorable decrease as compared with the month of December, the deaths in January numbering 59, or 9.4 per 1,000 of the population as against 73 for December, which is equivalent to an annual death rate of 11.68 per 1,000. The births reported for January were 1,200, as against the month preceding, there being 51 males and 46 females, all whites, representing an annual birth rate of 16 per 1,000.

According to sex, the greatest mortality was among males, 23 of that sex having died as compared with 27 females; one death occurred in the colored population while 58 whites were reported deceased. There were 28 deaths among unmarried persons and 23 married; 5 deaths occurred among those in the widowed state, 2 males and 3 females. Fourteen deaths were re-

INFLAMMATION OF THE BLADDER.

Mr. Michel Blandypos, Secretary Marlowe Club, New Orleans, Who Suffered From Inflammation of the Bladder, Cured By Warner's Safe Cure. The Only Absolute Cure for All Diseases of the Kidney, Liver, Bladder and Blood.

Mr. Michel Blandypos. Gentlemen: It affords me the greatest pleasure to testify to the merits of Warner's Safe Cure, as I consider it was the sole means of restoring me to health. I suffered for nearly three years with inflammation of the bladder, causing me severe pains, also the most terrible headaches, and at times I was unable to attend to my regular duties. It seemed as if there was not a sound organ in my body when I began using it, but I gradually improved and felt much encouraged. It took seven months to fully restore me to health, but during that time I used no medicine but the Safe Cure and therefore know that I owe my recovery and good health of today entirely to it, and am pleased to endorse it, very truly, MICHEL BLANDYPOS, 107 Harris St., New Orleans, La. Dec 8, 1902, Secretary, The Marlowe Club.

BISHOP WHITNEY'S POEM. New York World Gives it a Column Review and Praises it Highly. The New York World of Sunday, Jan. 25, contains a column article devoted to praise of Bishop Whitney's new poem entitled "Elias, an Epic of the Ages." The work was fully described in a page article of the "News" some time ago and the World writer has copied extensively from it, describing the various divisions into which the poem is divided, printing various extracts from the poem and explaining that the avowed purpose of the author has been to construct a "Mormon poem" from a "Mormon" standpoint upon the subject of the "Mormonism." The whole article is very complimentary to the author and the World writer says the poem is pronounced as a most lofty and sublime literary production.
