Guns Boom for Idaho Sugar.

The Dawn of an Important Epoch Being Enthusiastically Observed This Afternoon—Large Crowds, Warm Reception to Factory Builders, Words of Good Cheer From And For Them and a Time of General Rejoicing.

(Special to the "News.") Idaho Falls, April 14.—This is a gala day for Idaho people and contributory to the dawn of an important epoch in the development of Idaho—the inauguration of a new industry—that of sugar.

Gov. Morrison was unable to get here and telegraphed his regrets to the committee in charge. His place was filled by Hon. James E. Steele, president of the Bingham stake, who was named to deliver the address of welcome. It also transpired that Hon. W. E. Borah, who was to speak on "Idaho's First Sugar Plant," could not be present.

THE COMMITTEES. For days, in fact for weeks, preparations have been going on for the laying of the corner stone of the foundation of the new factory. It was recognized as an event of far-reaching importance and the fore-runner of other events that are calculated to do much toward the development of Idaho.

At the conclusion of the recital at 8:30, the distinguished visitors were driven back to their special train and whisked away to Ogden, to continue the journey east.

At the meeting it was stated that the ministers of the various churches of the different countries have received instructions issued by the state department to facilitate the special commissioners' work.
