

IF YOU DON'T TELL the people through the newspapers what you have to sell, you can't sell your goods. Our subscribers read the ads.

LAST EDITION.

Celebration of Pioneer Day.

People of Salt Lake Tie Themselves to the Resorts, Where The Day is Spent in Feasting and General Merry-making—Pioneer Park Thrown Open to the Public—Historic Spot Where Citizens May Enjoy Rest.

FEATURES OF THE DAY.

- 2:00 p. m.—Horse races at Calder's park, with numerous features throughout the day.
- 2:30 p. m.—Horse races at Fair grounds.
- 3:00 p. m.—Pacific National Baseball league at Walker's field, Salt Lake vs San Francisco.
- Special attractions at Salsair with 20 trains to transport patrons to and from the resort.
- Special features at Lagoon. Augmented train service.
- Salt Palace—Vaudeville, dancing, and other features all day with bicycle racing on the saucer track at 3:30 p. m. until 10 p. m.

The fifty-sixth anniversary of the arrival of the Pioneers in the valley of the Great Salt Lake, is being celebrated today. All the stores, business houses and banks remained closed while the employees spent their holiday at the resorts, in the surrounding canyons and other places. The city in consequence has worn a holiday air with the Stars and Stripes flying from the breeze from the flagpoles surmounting a number of big buildings down town.

The veteran artilleriers were out bright and early on Capitol hill and fired the customary salute that went booming across the valley.

The most important event of the day was the throwing open of Pioneer square and its dedication as a public park. The spot on which the advance guard of the Pioneers camped this morning looked very inviting with its shady trees, neatly trimmed hedge and green lawns.

All the resorts commenced early in the day to do a rushing business while the train to Park City was loaded with pleasure seekers bound for Parley's canyon resorts. The same can be said of Provo and Ogden trains.

The Salt Lake & Los Angeles this afternoon hauled big trains out to Salsair and all indications point to an immense crowd at that resort. Owing to the pressure Manager Langford borrowed a number of handcar coaches from the Oregon Short Line so that every one was transported in comfort. The rush at the bath houses was very pronounced this afternoon. The Salt Palace also caught the public fancy with its special attractions, while Articultural Park drew a good crowd this afternoon to witness the races and other features.

The people of Granite snake early migrated to Hill's park where a program of sports and exercises was carried out.

PIONEER PARK.
Historic Spot Thrown Open to the Public This Morning.

For the second time within the past five years historical Pioneer square was today set apart as a public park and thrown open to the public as a place of recreation for the citizens in general and particularly those in the western and southwestern parts of the city. Unlike the dedication of the park on July 25, 1848, there were no special dedicatory ceremonies today. The gates were unceremoniously thrown open by the parkkeeper this morning and those who were privileged to do so.

Benches have been provided and are in place so that the weary may have an opportunity to rest. As yet the trees about the park are too small to offer much inducement in the way of shade and the walks, lawns and flowers are not as well kept nor as attractive as they will be after a few weeks of careful attention. At the same time it is a park and is one which should be duly appreciated in years to come, not only for its beauty, but by reason of its historical connection with the Pioneers who made this beautiful city and valley what it is today. It was on Pioneer

NEXT YEAR'S POLITICAL SLOGAN

Interviewed in Washington, D. C., Judge W. H. King Says it Will be, "Turn the Rascals Out"—Says Utah Democrats Favor Judge Parker or Mr. Olney.

Washington, D. C., July 23.—Bids were opened today at the Indian office for building a stone dormitory, mess hall and employes' quarters, school-house, water and sewer system for the Fort Hall Indian reservation. The bidders were as follows: Jas. H. Owen, Minneapolis, for all buildings, $70,240; water and sewer system $12,090; J. B. Lovel, Minneapolis, Minn., sewer and water system, $14,782; A. Matcham, Chicago, Ill., all complete, $32,830; C. A. Gray, Salem, Ogn., $48,900.

Captain Kettle Won.
London, July 24.—Captain Kettle, the favorite, won the Liverpool cup of 120 sovereigns, a handicap for three-year-olds and upward, one mile and three furlongs, at the Liverpool July meeting today. Palmie II was second and Handicapper third. The betting against Captain Kettle was 7 to 1.

United Brothers of Friendship.
St. Louis, July 24.—At the final session of the National convention of the United Brothers of Friendship, a colored organization, the following resolutions were adopted:

"Resolved that the United Brothers of Friendship in convention assembled, express its appreciation of the brave, generous and humane attitude of President Roosevelt on all questions affecting the rights of Afro-Americans under the federal constitution and his declaration that the door of opportunity should be closed against no man on account of his race, color or previous condition; and be it further

Peter Killing Brazilian Army.
New York, July 24.—A letter from the Acree territory says, according to the London Standard, that the Brazilian army is persisting in its fever attacks. Six hundred officers and men are dead and 400 are ill. The detachments of troops are without medicine.

FERDINAND OF BULGARIA.
Stories that He Has Left Because of A Revolution, Unfounded.

Belgrade, July 24.—Prince Ferdinand, accompanied by his children, passed through this city on his way to Vienna.

Vienna, July 24.—The reports that a revolution has broken out in Bulgaria, and that Prince Ferdinand has fled are semi-officially characterized here as unfounded. It is recalled that July 25 is the anniversary of the death of Prince Ferdinand's father and it is thought that the immediate object of his present journey is to visit his grave at Sabis, which is his annual custom.

As near as it can be ascertained here the report of Prince Ferdinand's flight from Bulgaria is unfounded.

An official in Vienna said to the Associated Press this afternoon: "The story published by the Stampa and other Belgrade papers, that a revolution had broken out in Bulgaria, that Prince Ferdinand is about to flee or had fled to Belgrade, and that there had been 54 night assassinations, mostly of soldiers on duty at Prince Ferdinand's palace at Sofia, is a malvoient political trick designed to compromise the prince and his prince and to attract public attention from the present conditions in Serbia."

Another Lockjaw Victim.
Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 24.—Miss Jessie Bradler, aged 19, died last night from tetanus. She is the eighth victim of lockjaw in this city since Fourth of July.

Danish W. I. Treaty Dead.
Washington, July 24.—The treaty providing for the acquisition by the United States Danish West Indies officially died today. If Denmark should conclude to sell the islands to the United States it would be possible to revise the provisions of the treaty which has just failed; meantime the position of the state department is comfortable, for having done its part toward completing the bargain, the American government of course could not sanction the sale of the islands by Denmark to any other government.

Benj. J. Hill Hanged.
Washington, July 24.—Benjamin J. Hill, who killed his wife last November, was hanged at the United States jail here. Hill was a Grand Army veteran.

Swygart Will Broken.
Valparaiso, Ind., July 24.—The jury in the George S. Swygart will contest case today returned a verdict favorable to the plaintiff and breaking the will. Swygart was a wealthy citizen of South Bend, who left a will giving the bulk of a quarter of a million estate to his sons. The daughters contested.

Ex-It. Gov. Lee's Letters.
St. Louis, July 24.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from a staff correspondent says:

James J. Kelly, indicted agent of the baking powder trust, announced today that he had decided to send the letters of former Lieut.-Gov. John A. Lee, to the writer of this column, in the care of D. J. Kelly and that she will leave for St. Louis Saturday night.

Harvest Home Celebration.
On Aug. 15, 1848, the first harvest home was celebrated in the fort, when a large power was erected in the center under which tables were spread and the grateful settlers partook of a feast of the products of their labor and enterprise. When President Young returned there was such an increase in population that only 100 were laid out and people began to settle upon them.

In the winter of 1849-50 there was quite a number who remained inside the fort but gradually from year to year it was deserted until at length it became a public square.

GRANTED TO RAILROADS.
Several times has the square been granted to railroad corporations to be used as a depot, but the terms of the grants have never been complied with and it has reverted back to the city. About two months ago an ordinance was passed by the city council again dedicating the square as a public park and setting today as the date for it to be thrown open. On last Monday night a resolution was passed by the council authorizing the parkkeeper to open the gates of the park to the public this morning. This was done, and again the city extends a hearty greeting to its citizens and invites them to partake of the pleasures and comfort afforded by another public breathing spot—Pioneer park.

Funeral of Archbishop Katz.
Milwaukee, July 24.—The funeral of the late Archbishop Frederick Xavier Katz took place this city today from St. John's cathedral. Among the guests were Archbishop Ireland of St. Paul and Archbishop Quigley of Chicago, several bishops and many priests. The services were also attended by Gov. LaFollette and staff and Mayor Ross and the city council, judges and other officials.

Bishop Schweibach of LaCrosse. celebrated pontifical high mass. Bishop Henry of Wichita, Kan., preached the funeral sermon, in which he reviewed the life work of the noted prelate.

Burial was in the family lot of the little cemetery at St. Francis, where rest the remains of the archbishop's parents.

Shores Case Postponed.
Butte, Mont., July 24.—Because of the absence of D. Gay Stivers, the important witness for the defense, the Shores case was postponed today until September 5, upon consent of both parties.

The Denver Breaks the Record.
New York, July 24.—The steamer Denver has broken the record between Denver and New York. Her actual running time between the Texas port and Sandy Hook was four days and 22 hours. The former record was five days and two hours.

Rag Pickers' Union Organized.
New York, July 24.—A rag-pickers union has been organized in this city. There were 250 persons present at the first meeting, one-third of whom were women. The union will be a branch of the United Hebrew trades and its headquarters will be on the lower East side.

Struggle For The Papacy.

Rampolla is Now Central Figure—If He Can't be Elected Will Throw His Support to Gotti, Who Inspires Great Distrust—Anti-Rampolla Forces May Center on Capaceto—Prussian Minister Favors Vannutelli or Agliardi.

CARDINAL OREGLIA, WHO MAY SUCCEED POPE LEO XIII.

Cardinal Luigi Oreglia di Stefano, who is camerlengo or chamberlain of the Roman Catholic church, was created cardinal by Pius IX. In 1873 and assisted in the election of Pope Leo XIII, who was camerlengo when Pius IX. died. He is dean of the college of cardinals, archbishop of the Roman university and prefect of the congregation of ceremonies.

Rome, July 24.—The nearer the conclave approaches, the more two distinct tendencies are shown in the sacred college, especially among the cardinals of the curia, that is to say those living in Rome, but in which the cardinals from the provinces as well as the foreign cardinals cannot help participating. These two tendencies spring from the personality of Cardinal Rampolla, as the great struggle continues to be in his favor or against him. If Rampolla finds that on the first ballot he has a considerable number of votes he will try again. If he has few votes and one of his opponents has many, he will resign his chance and he and all his friends will support, first, Cardinal Gotti, with whom he now has come to some such agreement, and attempt to raise Gotti to the supreme office with Rampolla as an ally. This would mean the maintenance of Pope Leo's policy on exactly the same lines and entrusted to the same men. But Gotti inspires great distrust because as he belongs to the religious orders he would render the situation of the papacy extremely difficult at the present moment, considering the conditions prevailing in France, Spain and the Philippines. It seems therefore, almost sure that if at the first ballot it is probable that Gotti can count on the two Sicilian cardinals. One of them, however, Cardinal Celestia, bishop of Palermo, is so old (almost 80), that his relatives strongly oppose his being to Rome. For political reasons all Spanish cardinals are favorable to Rampolla besides a dozen Italians, thus making a total of 28. But to be elected pope it is necessary to get altogether over 40 votes, as of the present 44 cardinals not more than two or three will be absent from the conclave.

The anti-Rampolla forces, such as Cardinals Oreglia, Vannutelli, Stotelli and Agliardi, which will cause difficulty in arriving at an agreement on any one of them.

It is understood that should the success of their opponents be probable in this group, center all their votes on Cardinal Capaceto, bishop of Capua.

A cardinal who seems to have considerable chance of success was Cardinal Sarto, the patriarch of Venice but now he is scarcely thought of because he does not know French and is not likely to learn it at 70 years of age.

It is understood that the Prussian minister accredited to the vatican has received instructions to favor the election of Cardinal Serafino Vannutelli or Agliardi. Cardinal Konigsmann, bishop of Breslau, who arrived yesterday, has been approached to the same effect.

Cardinal Celestia, in an interview on the subject of the conclave, said: "Now more than ever we need an energetic pontiff but at the same time he must be prudent. With extreme measures we cannot rule. With a middle course there is always something to gain. I never have juggled with my conscience or the duties of my office but I have maintained most friendly personal relations and the cordial official relations with all the authorities with whom I come in contact. This is the secret of success. This was the policy of Cardinal Gibbons, who, with the help of God it will be that of his successor."

GIBBONS OPPOSES RAMPOLLA.
Latter May Lose Election As Pope Because of American Opposition.

Paris July 23.—The Rome correspondent of the Paris edition of the Herald telegraphs that if Cardinal Rampolla is not elected it will be due to the action of Cardinal Gibbons, who, it is asserted, in writing the French cardinals in vatican circles, remained in Paris in order to unite the French cardinals against him. The correspondent further asserts that Cardinal Gibbons has succeeded in uniting the French cardinals around Cardinal Richard, archbishop of Paris, with a view of supporting a candidate whose policy will be a reaction against the present moment, considering the conditions prevailing in France, Spain and the Philippines. It seems therefore, almost sure that if at the first ballot it is probable that Gotti can count on the two Sicilian cardinals. One of them, however, Cardinal Celestia, bishop of Palermo, is so old (almost 80), that his relatives strongly oppose his being to Rome. For political reasons all Spanish cardinals are favorable to Rampolla besides a dozen Italians, thus making a total of 28. But to be elected pope it is necessary to get altogether over 40 votes, as of the present 44 cardinals not more than two or three will be absent from the conclave.

The anti-Rampolla forces, such as Cardinals Oreglia, Vannutelli, Stotelli and Agliardi, which will cause difficulty in arriving at an agreement on any one of them.

It is understood that should the success of their opponents be probable in this group, center all their votes on Cardinal Capaceto, bishop of Capua.

A cardinal who seems to have considerable chance of success was Cardinal Sarto, the patriarch of Venice but now he is scarcely thought of because he does not know French and is not likely to learn it at 70 years of age.

It is understood that the Prussian minister accredited to the vatican has received instructions to favor the election of Cardinal Serafino Vannutelli or Agliardi. Cardinal Konigsmann, bishop of Breslau, who arrived yesterday, has been approached to the same effect.

Cardinal Celestia, in an interview on the subject of the conclave, said: "Now more than ever we need an energetic pontiff but at the same time he special to the Associated Press:

"I can assure you that the talk of war between Russia and Japan is an invention. Japan has not the least intention of taking that course; she proposes to wait and maintain her attitude of watchfulness. Japan and America are acting on the same lines and it would be absurd to suppose any power to withstand the pressure. They and Great Britain could apply."

It is said that Japan intends to do away with the Goshu when the final evacuation of Manchuria must occur. The failure of Russia to withdraw from Manchuria would be followed by a serious move on the part of Japan.

The Russian navy here regrets the confusion which has arisen in consequence of the report that Prince Ching, head of the Chinese foreign office, has written to Minister Genger refusing to open ports in Manchuria. The Russian officials at Washington believe that the note was sent before China gave her consent to allow her navy to assist positively that Russia intends to carry out to the letter the assurances she has given and will not interpose obstacles in the way of China observing her pledge to Secy. Hay.

SHOT FROM AMBUSH.
Mrs. Anna Bailey and Mrs. Mary Woods at Lake City, Colo.

Lake City, Colo., July 24.—Mrs. Anna Bailey and Mrs. Mary Woods were shot from ambush last night about a mile from town, when returning from Lake-shore. Mrs. Gattis is now recovering and Mrs. Woods is in a serious condition. The assassin, who was concealed among rocks on the mountain side, fired a shot at the women as they drove past. The charge struck Mrs. Bailey on the right side of the face, neck and shoulders, cutting her windpipe, tearing away part of her nose and destroying her eyes. Many of the bullets penetrated Mrs. Woods's body.

The shooting caused the horse to run away and both women were thrown out of the buggy, receiving further serious injuries.

Mrs. Wood's husband, who had quarreled with her, has been arrested charged with the shooting.

Baron de Bush Killed.
London, July 24.—Baron de Bush fell before a train this morning near Northampton and died shortly after. He was traveling to Scotland, accompanied by his wife, who was Miss Pauline Joram, the American prima donna.

The President in the Saddle.
Sayville, L. I., July 24.—President Roosevelt started from his uncle's home for Sagamore Hill at 4 o'clock this morning. He was on horseback and was accompanied by his son and nephews.

YOUNG MURDERERS EXECUTED.
Claude O'Brien and Earl Whitney Pay Penalty for Their Crime.

Lexington, Ky., July 24.—Claude O'Brien and Earl E. Whitney, boys in years and whose faces indicated nothing of the criminal, were hanged here at 8 o'clock this morning for the murder of A. B. Chinn.

The boys ate hearty breakfasts and at 7:30 were dressed for the scaffold. Both were so calm that they elicited comment from the officials. Two priests at 6 o'clock administered communion. Both the condemned said they felt better and were ready to die.

Whitney said from the scaffold that he regretted his part toward completing the bargain, the American government of course could not sanction the sale of the islands by Denmark to any other government.

Whitney said from the scaffold that he regretted his part toward completing the bargain, the American government of course could not sanction the sale of the islands by Denmark to any other government.

Whitney said from the scaffold that he regretted his part toward completing the bargain, the American government of course could not sanction the sale of the islands by Denmark to any other government.

Whitney said from the scaffold that he regretted his part toward completing the bargain, the American government of course could not sanction the sale of the islands by Denmark to any other government.

Whitney said from the scaffold that he regretted his part toward completing the bargain, the American government of course could not sanction the sale of the islands by Denmark to any other government.

Whitney said from the scaffold that he regretted his part toward completing the bargain, the American government of course could not sanction the sale of the islands by Denmark to any other government.

Whitney said from the scaffold that he regretted his part toward completing the bargain, the American government of course could not sanction the sale of the islands by Denmark to any other government.

Whitney said from the scaffold that he regretted his part toward completing the bargain, the American government of course could not sanction the sale of the islands by Denmark to any other government.

Whitney said from the scaffold that he regretted his part toward completing the bargain, the American government of course could not sanction the sale of the islands by Denmark to any other government.

Whitney said from the scaffold that he regretted his part toward completing the bargain, the American government of course could not sanction the sale of the islands by Denmark to any other government.

Whitney said from the scaffold that he regretted his part toward completing the bargain, the American government of course could not sanction the sale of the islands by Denmark to any other government.

Whitney said from the scaffold that he regretted his part toward completing the bargain, the American government of course could not sanction the sale of the islands by Denmark to any other government.

Whitney said from the scaffold that he regretted his part toward completing the bargain, the American government of course could not sanction the sale of the islands by Denmark to any other government.

Whitney said from the scaffold that he regretted his part toward completing the bargain, the American government of course could not sanction the sale of the islands by Denmark to any other government.

Whitney said from the scaffold that he regretted his part toward completing the bargain, the American government of course could not sanction the sale of the islands by Denmark to any other government.

Whitney said from the scaffold that he regretted his part toward completing the bargain, the American government of course could not sanction the sale of the islands by Denmark to any other government.

Death Struggle In Salt Lake.

Frightful Experience of Ross Wells and Roy Larkin in Being Carried by the Waves from Salsair to Antelope Island—The Latter Missing and Surely Dead—Former Found Unconscious on Rocky Shore.

As a result of venturing beyond their depth in the waters north and west of Salsair yesterday afternoon, Ross Wells, a young Salt Lake, aged 24, and his 14-year-old cousin Roy Larkin, were borne by the rising wind to a point where they were unable to make their way back to the bathing pavilion.

Then came one of the most terrible struggles for life that man or beast ever had in the mysterious saline sea.

And when the struggle was ended the younger of the two swimmers was missing and the other was rescued wild-eyed, distracted and bleeding, upon the rocks of Antelope Island this morning, where he was found by Capt. D. L. Davis and party who, at day-break steamed out into the deep in search of the unfortunate twin, while anxious relatives watched, waited and prayed that he might bring back their loved ones safe and unharmed.

But such was not to be their happy lot. As stated, Wells was not found. From him it was learned that he kept his young relative afloat until about three o'clock this morning when it became impossible to continue his brave task any longer. With the darkness of night everywhere about him and the darkness of what appeared certain death around them both the last sad separation came with the wind carrying them on towards the island where Wells was today picked up and where the Larkin boy's lifeless remains are probably lying exposed to the rays of the day's scorching sun and to birds and beasts of prey, though it is fondly hoped that his body will in no way be mutilated.

TO ISLAND BY TEAM.
One of the lamentable incidents of the tragic affair was the accident of the nearly distracted father of Mr. Wells. After being up all night, he started out with a team for Antelope island this morning just 40 minutes prior to his son arriving at Salsair. As soon as the news was received in the city of the return of the party Walter Curling started out after him on a bicycle, but was obliged to give up the chase and returned this afternoon without catching Mr. Wells.

RESTING AT SALSAIR.
Soon after the arrival of the young man at Salsair he laid down and fell into a troubled doze in the shooting gallery. His father-in-law, Mr. Donaghy, insisted that she should not be awakened and he was sleeping, this afternoon instead of being brought into the city on the 1:30 train as was first intended.

ANOTHER RESCUE PARTY.
This afternoon another party went out from Salsair to search for the body. According to the estimate made by Capt. Davis the body will either be found northeast of the south point of Antelope island or it will drift back to the main shore north of Salsair.

MERRY BATHING TRIO.
It was about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon that Ross Wells, Miss Mary Pomeroy, his sister-in-law, and his 14-year-old cousin, Roy Larkin, went in to bathe at Salsair. The three waded in to comparatively deep water and their commenced to doat on their backs. Roy Larkin, who is Mrs. M. P. Wells' sister's child came here some few months ago from Michigan and was not acquainted with the waters of the lake. Despite the fact that he could not swim he trustfully lay on the water and enjoyed himself as much as the rest. A breeze was blowing and they did not notice that they were drifting out further into the lake every minute.

THE STIFFENING BREEZE.
But as the breeze stiffened, they were horrified to find how far they had drifted, and they decided to return. The Larkin boy being unable to swim, hampered their movement, and Ross Wells urged his sister-in-law, who is a good swimmer, to make for shallow water, and said he would hold up Roy, and try and get him ashore. Miss Pomeroy had a serious time in getting back to shallow water, and three times the waves dashed over her face and nearly strangled her. But she kept bravely on, and finally reached a point where she could get a foothold. By this time she was well nigh exhausted and made her way slowly to the nearest knot of bushes, and gave the alarm. At this juncture the others were not to be seen anywhere from the shore, and with the rising breeze, they drifted further and further away into the deepening twilight. It was nearly dark when Capt. Jensen started out with his boat to search for the missing boys. But as previously stated, after being out until 2:30 in the morning, he returned without having discovered any trace of them.

LOYAL TO THE LAST.
Ross Wells could easily have abandoned his cousin and reached shore comparatively unharmed. But for 19 hours he remained heroically with him, at the last, so blinded by the salt spray, and racked with cramps that he cared not when the end would come, or what it would be.

OTHERS IN DANGER.
These three were not the only ones who were in distress yesterday. Duway Davis, the son of Capt. Davis, was kept very busy with his business, blew up in getting bathers out of trouble. The first cue was that of a tourist who weighed 200 pounds. He had floated out beyond the Cambria and when Mr. Davis first saw him, was watching the water wildly and trying for help. Mr. Davis succeeded in getting to him in time to save him from being strangled. When the stranger found his voice, he thanked him and promised never to get beyond his depth again. In the Great Salt Lake. Finally had Mr. Davis got his charge into shallow water, when he observed a lady and gentleman dressed in bathing suits drifting far out into the lake in a row boat. They were al-

FINDING OF WELLS.
In relating the details of the search, Capt. Davis said that Dr. Olson, shortly after landing, noticed a number of marks on the sand and finally came to a spot where someone had apparently sat down. A little further along he

DR. McLEAN DEAD.
Brother of Salt Lake Physician Passes Away in Detroit.

Detroit, July 24.—Dr. McDonald McLean, one of the most noted surgeons in the state, died today from gastro-enteritis. In 1870 Dr. McLean became professor of surgery at the university of Michigan and held the chair until 1883. In 1883 he was president of the American Medical association.

Dr. McLean was a brother of Dr. A. C. McLean of the city and, as the dispatch states, was an eminent medical man. His brother here had not heard of his demise until apprised of it by the Deseret News, and while the news came as a profound shock it but verified the contents of a letter received from his wife several days ago which stated that the doctor was quite seriously ill.

JAPAN WILL WAIT AND WATCH
Will Adopt Towards Russia Policy Advocated by Great Britain, and Urge China to Carry Out Assurances Given the United States—War Talk Only an Invention.

London, July 24.—Japan has decided to adopt the policy of waiting and watching Russia, and will endeavor to obtain the opening of additional ports.

At the Japanese legation here the following statement was made by an official to the Associated Press:

"I can assure you that the talk of war between Russia and Japan is an invention. Japan has not the least intention of taking that course; she proposes to wait and maintain her attitude of watchfulness. Japan and America are acting on the same lines and it would be absurd to suppose any power to withstand the pressure. They and Great Britain could apply."

It is said that Japan intends to do away with the Goshu when the final evacuation of Manchuria must occur. The failure of Russia to withdraw from Manchuria would be followed by a serious move on the part of Japan.

The Russian navy here regrets the confusion which has arisen in consequence of the report that Prince Ching, head of the Chinese foreign office, has written to Minister Genger refusing to open ports in Manchuria. The Russian officials at Washington believe that the note was sent before China gave her consent to allow her navy to assist positively that Russia intends to carry out to the letter the assurances she has given and will not interpose obstacles in the way of China observing her pledge to Secy. Hay.

The shooting caused the horse to run away and both women were thrown out of the buggy, receiving further serious injuries.

Mrs. Wood's husband, who had quarreled with her, has been arrested charged with the shooting.

London, July 24.—Baron de Bush fell before a train this morning near Northampton and died shortly after. He was traveling to Scotland, accompanied by his wife, who was Miss Pauline Joram, the American prima donna.

Sayville, L. I., July 24.—President Roosevelt started from his uncle's home for Sagamore Hill at 4 o'clock this morning. He was on horseback and was accompanied by his son and nephews.