

NEWS OF THE SPORTING WORLD AT HOME AND ABROAD

TIMELY GOSSIP ON BOXING EVENTS

Two Rattling Bouts Arranged For Local Fight Fans.

THE DALY-McARTHY "GO."

Both Boys Have Been Working Hard And Are In Tip Top Condition For The Mill.

Local fight fans have had plenty of food for thought during the week and they will have as much to talk about for a month to come. The Jeffries-Corbett heavyweight championship fight, which takes place at San Francisco on the 14th, is exciting no little interest. Both of the big fellows have many local admirers and all are speculating as to the outcome. After the big battle is over, they will all try to explain to each other how it was done. How the lucky blow was landed, if it is landed—how it could have been prevented and whether or not the fight was a fake. No matter who wins, the cry of fake is sure to be raised in some part of the country in spite of the fact that not one bout in a hundred is crooked. Just at present, discussion is rife as to the comparative condition of the two big bruisers. Some believe Jeffries has been going the pace that kills and will not make good. Others think Corbett is working too hard and will go stale before the fight comes. Some believe he will win over the big boiler maker while others equally as well posted, contend that he hasn't even a look in at any stage of the proceedings.

But just now, local ring followers are giving and receiving "dope" on the bout scheduled to come off at the Grand theater on Monday evening. Two of the hardest weightweights in the business, Jerry McCarthy and "Chicago" Jack Daly, will box for the championship of the state, and those who have been watching the work of the two men in their training quarters, predict it will be a hard and fast fight. Jack Daly, who will box for the championship of the state, and those who have been watching the work of the two men in their training quarters, predict it will be a hard and fast fight.

LOCAL BRIEF

Yesterday's maximum temperature was the lowest that has been in 30 days. Mrs. D. C. Robbins is recovering rapidly from her operation at St. Mark's hospital. J. C. Hay of Park City is being treated for a severe attack of rheumatism. The local chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star will give a basket of Monday afternoon, Monday, at 8 p. m. sharp.

The local signal corps is engaged in telegraphing this evening. The signal corps is engaged in telegraphing this evening.

John Hertz, manager of Benny Yanger and Harry Forbes, goes to the coast in a few days to arrange for the Harry Forbes-Frankie Nell bout. He will look after Forbes out there and incidentally he will see the big fight on Aug. 14.

"I am going out and claim for him the 123-pound championship of the world. If anybody wants to fight with him at that weight, ring-side, we will take them on, I don't care who it is. Forbes will continue to claim the bantamweight championship against all comers at 116 pounds and will be matched accordingly, if there is any money in it for him. I saw him on the scales yesterday and he weighed 119 pounds.

"I think Yanger will beat Hanlon when that pair meet again. Yanger's right hand was gone in the last battle and that is the only way you can fight that fellow. Yanger was drawing back and letting the right straight in between his gloves, hard to the face and that slowed the Californian up some and kept Yanger in the fight all the way.

In view of the above, there seems to be but little prospect of a match between Forbes and Kid Price.

George Gardner has posted $2,500 in Buffalo as a forfeit for a match with Fitzsimmons. The Lowell fighter seems confident that if the match is arranged he will deliver the goods and be the one man not in the heavyweight division to lower the colors of the famous Red Robert.

While Gardner may think so, there are at least a score of experts throughout the country who are ready to go down "hook, line and sinker" on the chances of Fitz. Gardner may think that his chances against Fitz are all that they seem to be, but you will find he faces that wonder of the roped arena. He will find that he never tackled a job of that kind in his life.

He will find that he was never hit so hard or so often and he will be the most mistaken man in the world when he wakes up. Gardner is still young and has lots of time to wait. Just why he seems so anxious to pick a tough game when there are plenty of easy marks around the country, is a mystery that Gardner himself must solve.

Fitz expressed himself as glad to see the Gardner meant business and said he did also.

"I will meet Gardner just as soon after the Jeffries-Corbett fight as I possibly can," said Fitz. "I'd like to have the fight take place the same week, but of course this can't come off in San Francisco. Nevertheless I will go east after the fight on August 14, and draw up articles to fight Gardner. I will also include a title belt.

S. J. KELLY, Manager Shamrock Athletic Club.

Another lively mill for local ring followers to think about, is the match between Clarence English and Jack Clifford. In the opinion of the fight fans that fight will be worth going miles to see. These little fellows are certainly evenly matched and ought to set a pace that would keep the spectators in a state of delight throughout the go. Both are strong, clever, hard punchers and able to stand the pace. Neither man smokes, chews or drinks, and they are always in good condition. They are both working consistently to get in the best possible condition, and each is confident of being returned the winner. This bout will be held in the Armory building sometime between the 11th and 14th of August, and already there is considerable interest worked up over the affair. English has made many friends since he came here and in the matter of betting will stand about an even break with Clifford. The latter is well known here and has a host of friends who will back him to win. In the past they have seen many good ones from this country and have wanted to see the ability of our fighters. It will until they get a glimpse of Gans and they will forget about all the rest. Not only will Gans box but he can hit and his generalship is something wonderful.

JACK DALY'S RECORD.

Has Had Sixty-Nine Fights and Never Been Knocked Out.

Following is a complete and accurate record of "Chicago" Jack Daly, the Table listing Jack Daly's fight record with columns for Name, Rounds, and Result.

WHAT JERRY HAS DONE.

His Most Notable Work Here - Has Had Thirty-Seven Contests.

Following is the record of Jerry McCarthy, known as the "Walkerville

Table listing Jerry McCarthy's fight record with columns for Name, Result, and Location.

"CHARLEY" DWYER AND HIS HORSES

Something of the Young Man's Success on the Turf.

AFRICANDER BRIGHT STAR

By Fox the Horse That First Brought Him Into Prominence Among Turfmen - The Future.

A little less than 20 years ago, when such horses as Hanover and Tremont were making turf history and winning dollars for the stables of the Dwyer brothers, there might have been seen about the paddock at times a small boy. This last apparently was one of the most interested observers of the thoroughbreds there. The boy himself was something of a pet of the racegoers, for he was the son of M. F. Dwyer, one of the foremost horsemen and greatest pluggers of his day.

Time has made his changes, and the boy that day is known to turfites of this time as Charles F. Dwyer, one of the owners of the Hampton stable, in whose colors runs that good three-year-old, Africander, that we have seen and heard so much about.

While 28 years of age, "Charley," as he is most familiarly known, is still a most boyish looking person in appearance, and so quiet and unostentatious is he in all his ways that he is by no means known to all the followers of the race course. He is not a man that would attract any particular attention in any place, but if you do observe him, you will mark him as a man of method and not one to do any impulsive act.

Young Mr. Dwyer knows his Shakespear, and the net but not gaudy line appeals to him.

Around New York very little is heard of Charley Dwyer until Sly Fox began to win races in his colors during the season of 1898. Sly Fox won nine races, was second three times and third once during his three-year-old career. The time he finished third to Ornament and his season all known to the country.

It was the season of 1898 that Charley Dwyer first came to the attention of the public. He was then a young man of 20, and he had just won a race at Newmarket, England, with a horse named Africander.

He had lost more than $100,000 on this cut, all of which he had won on horses of Englishmen, ridden by Tod Sloan. Young Mr. Dwyer's faith in Sloan about that time was unshaken. Upon one occasion, when the jockey had mounted on a horse which eventually won, Sloan asked Dwyer if he had any suggestion to offer. Dwyer's reply was "You wouldn't take any suggestion, anyhow, so what's the use asking me? You ride that colt as your judgment dictates, and I'll be satisfied, no matter what the result."

There was a filly named Peaches which raced under the colors of the younger Dwyer in England. Attached to Peaches there is a hard luck story. Peaches was entered in a race at Newmarket, Tod Sloan having exercised the filly, and had advised Dwyer to have a bet on her. On the day of the race, Mr. Dwyer, through a miscalculation, missed the last train for Newmarket, and Peaches won at odds of 20 to 1. At the time Charley was just a trifle behind the game, and he undoubtedly would have recovered all his losses on this one race. However, some of his friends bet on Peaches. Eddy Hall was one of these, and he had a "pony" on the winner.

Mr. Dwyer's experiences abroad have not been a matter of fact, but he has been particularly fortunate. The money that he made on his first trip to England was the result of wagers made upon other people's horses. When he began betting on his own horses, he lost persistently, just as his father did when he sent Harry Reed, Banquet and other horses that ran under the "all white and gold" colors of Michael F. Dwyer in England.

It is Charley Dwyer's doing in his own country, and those of today that make his interesting to the public. He comes of a family of owners and breeders of thoroughbreds. His father, who has owned and raced some of the greatest horses this country ever saw. He is one of the oldest owners on the turf, and in partnership with S. Delmeo, owns Hampton stable. The bright particular star of this stable is Africander.

Mr. Dwyer almost sign a contract for nothing if a club would agree to get his living bills.

It is just such affairs as this that demoralize a club and bring the game into disrepute. The players feel contempt for those over them and as a consequence they become careless both on and off the field.

Tumor has had it that the squabble would result in Reynolds selling out to local enthusiasts who would be willing to take charge of the team. It is said that everything is now for the transfer and that the club will be placed upon a better financial basis. Two new pitchers and a couple of new infielders have been signed and it is said the team will be one of the strongest in the league upon its return.

It is just such affairs as this that demoralize a club and bring the game into disrepute. The players feel contempt for those over them and as a consequence they become careless both on and off the field.

Tumor has had it that the squabble would result in Reynolds selling out to local enthusiasts who would be willing to take charge of the team. It is said that everything is now for the transfer and that the club will be placed upon a better financial basis. Two new pitchers and a couple of new infielders have been signed and it is said the team will be one of the strongest in the league upon its return.

It is just such affairs as this that demoralize a club and bring the game into disrepute. The players feel contempt for those over them and as a consequence they become careless both on and off the field.

Tumor has had it that the squabble would result in Reynolds selling out to local enthusiasts who would be willing to take charge of the team. It is said that everything is now for the transfer and that the club will be placed upon a better financial basis. Two new pitchers and a couple of new infielders have been signed and it is said the team will be one of the strongest in the league upon its return.

It is just such affairs as this that demoralize a club and bring the game into disrepute. The players feel contempt for those over them and as a consequence they become careless both on and off the field.

ATHLETICS AT ST. LOUIS.

Olympic Games a World's Fair Feature - $75,000 in Prizes.

St. Louis, For the first time in the history of any exposition physical culture or athletic sports, this country will be the scene of a world's fair at St. Louis in 1904.

With a large appropriation, $75,000, of which is to be awarded in prizes, an excellent program of events is assured. The gymnasium, to be a permanent one, is now being erected, and is also a stadium with a seating capacity of 25,000. Here will be held during the season of 1904, the country's feature of the program will be the Olympic games. It will be the first time that these games, which are a revival of the famous Olympic games of Greece, were ever held on American soil. They will last one week and will consist of running, jumping, hurdlings, boxing, wrestling, throwing the discus and hammer, and the like.

The day during the season will be devoted to the Amateur Athletic union of the United States, to decide the national championship. A cross country championship will be given. Bicycling will have three days. Two days will be given the National Interscholastic championship in which all the preparatory schools and high schools throughout the country will take part. The national swimming championship of America, which will include plunging, short and long distance racing, diving and water polo, as well as college aquatic championships, will take place. Lawn tennis will be well taken care of and the tournaments will last two weeks. Many crack foreign teams will compete in the latter contests. Mr. J. E. Sullivan, secretary of the American Athletic union, has been appointed chief of physical culture for the world's fair. He has been connected with American athletics for over 25 years and was for many years an active athlete himself. He is connected with many athletic associations and has been the manager of more athletic meetings than any other man in America. Mr. Sullivan was America's assistant director of sports for the Paris exposition and director of athletics for the Pan-American exposition at Buffalo.

What will be the outcome of the recent Squabble. We have certainly had strenuous times this week in baseball matters. Ever since the local team tried to institute a new order of things and almost succeeded. For a time it looked as though a manager were to be considered little less than a figurehead. Seven players looked because the manager did not care to go to the expense of sending one of their number to Seattle and thus avoid an unnecessary outlay of money. The management and the strikers proceeded on to Seattle. If that sort of thing is permitted, the manager will soon have to consult his men and ask their consent to get a fair cut from a dog, or fishing, or have a shirt "down-up." Manager Reynolds would have taken the proper course had he fired the whole bunch and given them to understand that as long as he managed the team he would be boss. He imposed a fine of $100 and sent the men, but when they consented to go north, he raised both fines and suspension.

It is just such affairs as this that demoralize a club and bring the game into disrepute. The players feel contempt for those over them and as a consequence they become careless both on and off the field.

Tumor has had it that the squabble would result in Reynolds selling out to local enthusiasts who would be willing to take charge of the team. It is said that everything is now for the transfer and that the club will be placed upon a better financial basis. Two new pitchers and a couple of new infielders have been signed and it is said the team will be one of the strongest in the league upon its return.

It is just such affairs as this that demoralize a club and bring the game into disrepute. The players feel contempt for those over them and as a consequence they become careless both on and off the field.

Tumor has had it that the squabble would result in Reynolds selling out to local enthusiasts who would be willing to take charge of the team. It is said that everything is now for the transfer and that the club will be placed upon a better financial basis. Two new pitchers and a couple of new infielders have been signed and it is said the team will be one of the strongest in the league upon its return.

It is just such affairs as this that demoralize a club and bring the game into disrepute. The players feel contempt for those over them and as a consequence they become careless both on and off the field.

Tumor has had it that the squabble would result in Reynolds selling out to local enthusiasts who would be willing to take charge of the team. It is said that everything is now for the transfer and that the club will be placed upon a better financial basis. Two new pitchers and a couple of new infielders have been signed and it is said the team will be one of the strongest in the league upon its return.

It is just such affairs as this that demoralize a club and bring the game into disrepute. The players feel contempt for those over them and as a consequence they become careless both on and off the field.

Tumor has had it that the squabble would result in Reynolds selling out to local enthusiasts who would be willing to take charge of the team. It is said that everything is now for the transfer and that the club will be placed upon a better financial basis. Two new pitchers and a couple of new infielders have been signed and it is said the team will be one of the strongest in the league upon its return.

It is just such affairs as this that demoralize a club and bring the game into disrepute. The players feel contempt for those over them and as a consequence they become careless both on and off the field.

Tumor has had it that the squabble would result in Reynolds selling out to local enthusiasts who would be willing to take charge of the team. It is said that everything is now for the transfer and that the club will be placed upon a better financial basis. Two new pitchers and a couple of new infielders have been signed and it is said the team will be one of the strongest in the league upon its return.

It is just such affairs as this that demoralize a club and bring the game into disrepute. The players feel contempt for those over them and as a consequence they become careless both on and off the field.

Tumor has had it that the squabble would result in Reynolds selling out to local enthusiasts who would be willing to take charge of the team. It is said that everything is now for the transfer and that the club will be placed upon a better financial basis. Two new pitchers and a couple of new infielders have been signed and it is said the team will be one of the strongest in the league upon its return.

It is just such affairs as this that demoralize a club and bring the game into disrepute. The players feel contempt for those over them and as a consequence they become careless both on and off the field.

Tumor has had it that the squabble would result in Reynolds selling out to local enthusiasts who would be willing to take charge of the team. It is said that everything is now for the transfer and that the club will be placed upon a better financial basis. Two new pitchers and a couple of new infielders have been signed and it is said the team will be one of the strongest in the league upon its return.

It is just such affairs as this that demoralize a club and bring the game into disrepute. The players feel contempt for those over them and as a consequence they become careless both on and off the field.

Tumor has had it that the squabble would result in Reynolds selling out to local enthusiasts who would be willing to take charge of the team. It is said that everything is now for the transfer and that the club will be placed upon a better financial basis. Two new pitchers and a couple of new infielders have been signed and it is said the team will be one of the strongest in the league upon its return.

It is just such affairs as this that demoralize a club and bring the game into disrepute. The players feel contempt for those over them and as a consequence they become careless both on and off the field.

Tumor has had it that the squabble would result in Reynolds selling out to local enthusiasts who would be willing to take charge of the team. It is said that everything is now for the transfer and that the club will be placed upon a better financial basis. Two new pitchers and a couple of new infielders have been signed and it is said the team will be one of the strongest in the league upon its return.

THE BASEBALL SITUATION.

What Will be the Outcome of the Recent Squabble.

THE BASEBALL SITUATION.

We have certainly had strenuous times this week in baseball matters. Ever since the local team tried to institute a new order of things and almost succeeded. For a time it looked as though a manager were to be considered little less than a figurehead. Seven players looked because the manager did not care to go to the expense of sending one of their number to Seattle and thus avoid an unnecessary outlay of money. The management and the strikers proceeded on to Seattle. If that sort of thing is permitted, the manager will soon have to consult his men and ask their consent to get a fair cut from a dog, or fishing, or have a shirt "down-up." Manager Reynolds would have taken the proper course had he fired the whole bunch and given them to understand that as long as he managed the team he would be boss. He imposed a fine of $100 and sent the men, but when they consented to go north, he raised both fines and suspension.

It is just such affairs as this that demoralize a club and bring the game into disrepute. The players feel contempt for those over them and as a consequence they become careless both on and off the field.

Tumor has had it that the squabble would result in Reynolds selling out to local enthusiasts who would be willing to take charge of the team. It is said that everything is now for the transfer and that the club will be placed upon a better financial basis. Two new pitchers and a couple of new infielders have been signed and it is said the team will be one of the strongest in the league upon its return.

It is just such affairs as this that demoralize a club and bring the game into disrepute. The players feel contempt for those over them and as a consequence they become careless both on and off the field.

Tumor has had it that the squabble would result in Reynolds selling out to local enthusiasts who would be willing to take charge of the team. It is said that everything is now for the transfer and that the club will be placed upon a better financial basis. Two new pitchers and a couple of new infielders have been signed and it is said the team will be one of the strongest in the league upon its return.

It is just such affairs as this that demoralize a club and bring the game into disrepute. The players feel contempt for those over them and as a consequence they become careless both on and off the field.

Tumor has had it that the squabble would result in Reynolds selling out to local enthusiasts who would be willing to take charge of the team. It is said that everything is now for the transfer and that the club will be placed upon a better financial basis. Two new pitchers and a couple of new infielders have been signed and it is said the team will be one of the strongest in the league upon its return.

It is just such affairs as this that demoralize a club and bring the game into disrepute. The players feel contempt for those over them and as a consequence they become careless both on and off the field.

Tumor has had it that the squabble would result in Reynolds selling out to local enthusiasts who would be willing to take charge of the team. It is said that everything is now for the transfer and that the club will be placed upon a better financial basis. Two new pitchers and a couple of new infielders have been signed and it is said the team will be one of the strongest in the league upon its return.

It is just such affairs as this that demoralize a club and bring the game into disrepute. The players feel contempt for those over them and as a consequence they become careless both on and off the field.

Tumor has had it that the squabble would result in Reynolds selling out to local enthusiasts who would be willing to take charge of the team. It is said that everything is now for the transfer and that the club will be placed upon a better financial basis. Two new pitchers and a couple of new infielders have been signed and it is said the team will be one of the strongest in the league upon its return.

It is just such affairs as this that demoralize a club and bring the game into disrepute. The players feel contempt for those over them and as a consequence they become careless both on and off the field.

Tumor has had it that the squabble would result in Reynolds selling out to local enthusiasts who would be willing to take charge of the team. It is said that everything is now for the transfer and that the club will be placed upon a better financial basis. Two new pitchers and a couple of new infielders have been signed and it is said the team will be one of the strongest in the league upon its return.

It is just such affairs as this that demoralize a club and bring the game into disrepute. The players feel contempt for those over them and as a consequence they become careless both on and off the field.

Tumor has had it that the squabble would result in Reynolds selling out to local enthusiasts who would be willing to take charge of the team. It is said that everything is now for the transfer and that the club will be placed upon a better financial basis. Two new pitchers and a couple of new infielders have been signed and it is said the team will be one of the strongest in the league upon its return.

It is just such affairs as this that demoralize a club and bring the game into disrepute. The players feel contempt for those over them and as a consequence they become careless both on and off the field.

Tumor has had it that the squabble would result in Reynolds selling out to local enthusiasts who would be willing to take charge of the team. It is said that everything is now for the transfer and that the club will be placed upon a better financial basis. Two new pitchers and a couple of new infielders have been signed and it is said the team will be one of the strongest in the league upon its return.

It is just such affairs as this that demoralize a club and bring the game into disrepute. The players feel contempt for those over them and as a consequence they become careless both on and off the field.

Tumor has had it that the squabble would result in Reynolds selling out to local enthusiasts who would be willing to take charge of the team. It is said that everything is now for the transfer and that the club will be placed upon a better financial basis. Two new pitchers and a couple of new infielders have been signed and it is said the team will be one of the strongest in the league upon its return.

It is just such affairs as this that demoralize a club and bring the game into disrepute. The players feel contempt for those over them and as a consequence they become careless both on and off the field.

Tumor has had it that the squabble would result in Reynolds selling out to local enthusiasts who would be willing to take charge of the team. It is said that everything is now for the transfer and that the club will be placed upon a better financial basis. Two new pitchers and a couple of new infielders have been signed and it is said the team will be one of the strongest in the league upon its return.

It is just such affairs as this that demoralize a club and bring the game into disrepute. The players feel contempt for those over them and as a consequence they become careless both on and off the field.

SPORTING NOTES.

Some Time Ago It Was Proposed to pull off a big national circuit meet at the saucer, but Manager Stohfeldt finds that he cannot arrange for it this season.

At the rate the local ball players are performing, there is no great and immediate danger of the top of the percentage column flying down and hitting them in the face.

They say that when "Bug" Holliday made his first decision as a National league umpire he yelled: "You're out

Advertisement for Ringling Bros. World's Greatest Shows, featuring Jerusalem and the Crusades. Includes details about the show, ticket prices, and location in Salt Lake City.

JERRY McCARTHY.