

GRAND ARMY SEES A GRAND PARADE

Of the Military, Naval and Civic Bodies of San Francisco, California.

WAS AN IMPOSING SPECTACLE

Finest Display Ever Seen in the California Metropolis, Arousing the Greatest Enthusiasm.

San Francisco, Aug. 18.—The parade of the military, naval and civic bodies of this city and state which took place this morning, furnished an imposing spectacle for the vast crowds of people who packed the sidewalks, windows, roofs and every point of vantage along the line of march. It was certainly one of the finest displays ever seen here, and the utmost enthusiasm prevailed among the spectators, who greeted their special favorites in each branch of the service with rousing cheers as they passed in the procession. The scene, as the troops, both regular and state, in their natty uniforms, passed along the gayly decorated streets with banners flying and bands playing was one which will be long remembered by those who saw it. A sharp upon the appointed hour the bugle gave the signal to advance, and following orders from headquarters the military, naval and civic organizations headed into line in their appointed positions in the parade. There was no disorder of any kind in the way of forming up the different bodies of men on march, the arrangements being complete and with a military precision which had guarded against confusion of any kind.

LED THE ADVANCE. Grand Marshal Col. J. B. Fuller, in Grand Army uniform, led the advance, his chief of staff, Col. W. Edwards, and chief aid, Col. F. Bergin, both dressed in fatigue uniform of the national guard of California. Following came the first division, which was composed of detachments of United States troops, sailors and marine, including the Seventh Infantry, three battalions of field artillery, the First and Second battalions coast artillery, United States marine and sailors, the latter under command of Lieut. J. P. Morton. The senior commanding officer of the regular troops was Lieut.-Col. T. C. Woodbury.

SECOND DIVISION. The second division, which made a fine showing and met with hearty reception as body after body of the divisions passed, was made up of regiments of the California national guard led by Maj.-Gen. John H. Dickinson and Brig.-Gen. T. F. Muller. The first detachment was made up of the second brigade, N. C. G. Col. T. F. O'Neil commanding; the first and fifth infantry regiments, first battalion of artillery, troop A cavalry and the signal corps dismounted.

NAVAL BATTALION. The naval battalion came next, attracting much attention from the crowds of spectators as they swung past dragging their galling batteries. The veteran reserve company A, followed as special escort to a body of ex-Union prisoners of war. Then came a line of carriages in columns two abreast, with the guests of the day and dignitaries, military and civic. Gov. George C. Pardee of the state of California was in the first carriage, accompanied by George Stone, chairman of the executive committee of the annual encampment of the G. A. R., and Maj.-Gen. MacArthur, commanding the department of California.

SHAFTER, STEWART, MILES. In the next carriage were Maj.-Gen. W. R. Shafter, commander of the department of California and Nevada, G. A. R., and Gen. T. J. Stewart, commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., Lieut.-Gen. Miles, retired, who occupied a carriage with Chief Justice Beatty of the supreme court of California, who had followed along the line of march, the friendly feeling being cordially acknowledged by the gallant officer, who appeared highly pleased by the reception he received. In other carriages were Mayor Schmitz of San Francisco, Alden Anderson, lieutenant governor of the state, the heads of civic departments, supervisors of the city and Mexican war veterans.

THIRD DIVISION. With the third division, marshaled by Col. Charles Brixton, marched the drum corps of the National association of civil war musicians and the Spanish American war veterans in their khaki suits, under command of Maj. H. T. Lane.

SOUTH DIVISION. The south division, made up of the First regiment of the League of Cross cadets, was followed by Col. O. E. Long's garrison No. 101, Army and Navy union led the fifth division, which had in line Phelps' Squadron, United States veterans, and the Spanish American Naval veterans of Vallejo; Fremont Signal Corps of Vallejo; the Gen. Lewiston camp of Spanish-American war veterans, Hopkins' Squadron, No. 11 of Los Angeles and naval post No. 49 of Philadelphia, Commander W. Simmons, commanding.

ORDER OF RED MEN. A representative body of the Improved Order of Red Men in their picturesque attire of the old time braves of the forest and plain made up the sixth division, followed by local military and benevolent organizations forming the seventh, eighth and ninth divisions. Among these were the Independent Blues, California Volunteer Veteran associations, Veterans of the National Guard and the Austrian Military company.

ROUTE OF MARCH. The route of march was covered in quick time with little or no delay or interruption owing to the perfect arrangement which had been made to secure clear streets for the parade. Passing up Market street which was brilliant with color from the decorations, the parade wheeled into Van Ness avenue, passing in review before George Stone, chairman of the executive committee of National Encampment of the G. A. R. This immense thoroughfare was lined with many blocks past the reviewing stand to a point where the parade was finally dismissed and the troops of all descriptions were given a most enthusiastic reception, many of the veterans in line meeting with special recognition.

MERCHANTS' PRINTING. Turned out on short notice at the Deseret News. A big shipment of new types and supplies for the perfecting of letter heads, bill heads, tags, envelopes, pads, etc., are unexcelled by any establishment in the West.

Chicago, Aug. 18.—A dispatch to the Record-Herald from Omaha, Neb., says: "The Hamburg-American Steamship company will invade the Pacific ocean and together with the Orient and Wabash railroads will encircle the earth," said Vice President Edward Dickinson of the Orient railroad, who has just returned from London, where he, together with President Stillwell of the Orient line, negotiated the traffic agreement between the railroads and the steamship company. "The night before I left London we concluded a contract with the Hamburg-American line for a line of steamers from Port Stillwell to China, via Hawaii and Japan. That company already has steamers plying to all points in the orient via Suez."

KIDNAPPED A WOMAN.

Wealthy Farmer's Wife Held for Ransom but Escapes. Davenport, Ia., Aug. 17.—Report comes from Sunbury, Ia., of the kidnapping late last night of Mrs. John Hilsrow, wife of a wealthy farmer, and an attempt to extort $50,000 ransom from her husband. Mr. and Mrs. Hilsrow were deceived from their home by a man who stated that their son was ill in a nearby town. While they were driving along a lonely road with the strange man, it is said, Hilsrow, who is aged and feeble, was thrown from the buggy and was told that his wife would be held until he brought the money to a certain secluded spot. Mrs. Hilsrow was imprisoned in the cellar of a deserted farm house. During last night, while her captor was away from the house, she made her escape, running to a farm house of the neighborhood. In the meantime her husband had communicated with the county authorities, but no trace of the kidnapper could be found. Mrs. Hilsrow is in a critical condition from exposure.

MURDERED BY NEGROES.

They Surround a Deputy Sheriff in Alabama and Kill Him. Anniston, Ala., Aug. 17.—A gentleman arriving tonight from Piedmont told of the murder of Deputy Sheriff Price of Cherokee county in the camp of a grading gang on the Seaboard Air Line. Mr. Price had gone to the camp looking for a negro, and while seated in one of the tents was surrounded and killed by other negroes. A posse has been hunting for the perpetrators of the deed, and a lynching is likely to follow. Mr. Price leaves a family.

RESOLUTION ADOPTED.

Street Railroad Company Must Comply With Terms of Sandy Franchise. The board of county commissioners adopted a resolution yesterday which was introduced at a meeting last week, notifying the Consolidated Railway & Power company, that the franchise granted them last year for the construction of an electric road from Murray to Sandy would be taken away from them unless they filed a bond within ten days, and begun work on the road within one year. At the time the franchise was granted, last November, the company promised to begin work at once.

WONT MIX

Bad Food and Good Health Wont Mix. The human stomach stands much abuse but it won't return good health if you give it bad food. If you feed right you will feel right for proper food and a good mind is the sure road to health. "A year ago I became much alarmed about my health for I began to suffer after each meal no matter how little I ate," says a Denver woman. "I lost my appetite and the very thought of food grew distasteful with the result that I was not nourished and got weak and thin. My home care was very heavy for beside a large family of my own I have also to look out for an aged mother. There was no one to shoulder my household burdens and come what might I must bear them and this thought nearly drove me frantic when I realized that my health was breaking down. I read an article in the paper about some one with troubles just like mine being cured on the Food Grape-Nuts and acting on this suggestion I gave Grape-Nuts a trial. The first dish of this delicious food told me I had struck the right thing. My uncomfortable feelings in stomach and brain disappeared as if by magic and in an incredibly short space of time I was again myself. Since then I have gained 12 pounds in weight through a summer of hard work and realize I am a very different woman, all due to the splendid food Grape-Nuts." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Trial will prove.

SUNDAY SCHOOL UNION MEETING.

Well Attended and Highly Profitable Session Held in Barratt Hall Last Night.

PLANS FOR COMING CONFERENCE

Badges to be Worn by all Sunday School Workers—Secretaries Consider Local Record Book.

Promptly at 7:30 last evening the Salt Lake Stake Sunday School Union was called to order in Barratt hall, opening with the hymn, "Sweet Sabbath School." Prayer was offered by Elder John L. Johnson of the Twenty-fourth ward followed by singing, "Far, far away on Judea's plains." The roll call of the stake was responded to by very creditable representations from all the schools of the stake except Center and North Point.

A singing exercise was conducted by Chorister Beesley. "Our Home in the Mountains" and "Peace Be Still," being rendered with life and feeling. "The Beatitudes" were again recited by the assembly by way of preparation for the coming conference, marked improvement being noticeable over the rendition of a month ago.

Board Member and Instructor Osborn Widtsoe was honorably released by a unanimous vote, the change being necessary by reason of the gentleman leaving to prosecute his studies in the east.

THE COMING CONFERENCE.

Supt. Josiah Burrows made brief explanation of the progress of affairs pertaining to the conference Aug. 30, read the notice which is to be published for several evenings prior to the gathering, and offered a few general suggestions and explanations, laying especial stress on the necessity of punctuality and proper decorum on the part of the boys. He said the committee on reception would leave the body of the house not later than 9:55, and that schools not seated before that time would have to arrange for themselves. The Sunday morning session will be called to order by a chord on the organ promptly at 10 a. m. an standing roll call will be the order at each session during the day. Badges are to be furnished by the stake board and worn by all officers and teachers, blue by the superintendent and red by the others, the board officers and members wearing a white badge. All are to be distributed at the first meeting of the conference, Aug. 28, in the B. Y. Memorial hall.

DEPARTMENT WORK.

Four questions were asked of the superintendents for the purpose of holding of regular preliminary meetings, superintendents' council meetings, local conferences and results obtained from the use of the lesson statements, all with very gratifying results. Changes were reported in the twenty-ninth ward school, July 12, and Pleasant Green, July 15. Alex Swan and John T. Jacobs being sustained as second assistant superintendents in the two schools respectively. Superintendents Burrows and Burton both gave further detailed information relative to the conference arrangements including several requests. The schools were asked to bring their own song books and copies of "Peace Be Still" so to be prepared to state number in line. Superintendents were asked to occupy the home missionaries' seats at both sessions in the Tabernacle. They were also requested to hand in at the first opportunity the names of their oldest and youngest enrolled members.

A very interesting and profitable session was held by the secretaries, the time being consumed in considering a local record which is designed to comprise a historical record of officers and a minute record, including quarterly and annual summaries. A committee of 10 was selected to consider carefully and revise the same. The present matter to the stake and general board for their approval and report at the September meeting.

Brother Maeser made a very interesting talk on method before the theological department.

The second intermediate considered September lessons and indulged in a discussion of methods of interesting pupils in reading the Book of Mormon text.

The first intermediate discussed the importance of love of teacher towards pupils, and proper position of teachers. The primary and kindergarten conducted appropriate model lessons with profit to their well attended departments.

The department work was concluded at 9 p. m. and meeting reassembled, closed by singing "Catch the Sunshine," conducted by Chorister Thomas Butler of the Fourteenth ward. The benediction was pronounced by Elder Jesse G. Stratford of the Weber stake.

BELONGS TO AMERICA.

Honor of First Cutting Vermiform Appendix Goes to Denver Physician. A recent investigation started by the New York Sun to discover the pioneer in the medical world who first performed the operation for appendicitis has resulted in the establishment of the fact that to a Denver physician belongs that peculiar honor.

The Davenport Democrat announces that the first surgeon in the world to open the abdomen and remove the appendix was at the time a resident of that city, as was his patient, who now lives in Chicago. The surgeon to whom this honor is due is Dr. W. W. Grant of Denver.

In the discussion carried on by the newspapers and medical journals the honor was claimed for Dr. McBurney of New York as the first surgeon to operate for appendicitis, giving the date as 1888. "A Philadelphia paper claims that Dr. Morton of that city, ante-dated Dr. McBurney nearly a year. The date of the operation performed by Dr. Grant was Jan. 4, 1855, and the details have been carefully studied, which give Dr. Grant the priority." Dr. C. L. Wheaton of the Denver-Gross college of Medicine, writing in the Colorado Medical Journal on "The Importance of the Early Recognition of Appendicitis," says:

"It is recorded in the surgical history of appendicitis that W. W. Grant ligated the appendix Jan. 4, 1855. This is the first recorded operation. It should be a source of pride to every American physician to know that his countrymen have been leaders in this field of medicine and surgery."

LEILICH MUST GO; WILL LEAVE UTAH.

Methodist Conference Lets Him Down Easy, as He May Bide His Time Here.

GOING BACK TO PENNSYLVANIA.

Local Church Members Wouldn't Have Him and Cranston Wouldn't Have Him Attacked.

The Rev. Mr. Leilich, champion manufacturer of groundless sensations, and wrecker of his own church in Utah, is to be sent back to Pennsylvania, whence he came. The opposition to him among the Methodists was such that even Bishop Cranston, with all of his desire to strangle the trouble, was compelled to take cognizance of it. There was talk of him being retained here permanently—talk that caused many Methodists to say they would quit the church for all time if that were done. In fact, some have already done so.

While Bishop Cranston wouldn't permit Leilich to be "kicked out," he was apparently willing that he should be "let out," providing it were done decently. And that it is considered, has been done, as while Leilich stood in most overlooked, but it will not be long before the reverend gentleman will quietly slip away whispering a not over-fond farewell to Utah.

CLOSING EXERCISES.

The annual session of the Utah Methodist mission conference came to an end yesterday afternoon. The most interesting part of the closing session was the appointments for the ensuing year. In making the announcement Bishop Cranston stated that the changes were made at the request of the respective ministers, and were satisfactory all round. When Rev. J. L. Leilich's name reached the bishop he said that at his own request Mr. Leilich wished to return to the conference from whence he came, that of central Pennsylvania, and that he was at liberty to do so when that conference met, or before if he saw fit. In the meantime he was appointed as presiding elder of Salt Lake district. In other words, it is the course of time he will quietly disappear and cease to be an element of discord in the community.

WAS RUSHED THROUGH.

It is a subject worthy of remark right here that the anti-Mormon resolution report that was passed yesterday, did not meet with the approval of many of the members of the conference, and it is a fact that some of them did not know that any such resolution had been passed until they read it in the "News," or in this morning's papers, which copied the "News" account. The report was an orthographic curiosity, and if published verbatim in literature, would have caused many a hearty laugh. As a sample of the spelling it contained one illustration will suffice. The word "stake" was spelled "steak," but it didn't say whether it was tenderloin or sirloin or plate rump. It was really worthy of Artemus Ward or Petroleum V. Nasby, only these worthies could spell correctly. The report was taken up in the midst of other business, hurriedly read and quickly passed without any comment whatever.

THE BISHOP WINKED.

When the "News" representative spoke to Bishop Cranston about it, he winked his eye and shrugged his shoulders, and said nothing. The bishop is a much shrewder man than most of his fellows. When he has anything to say he says it with emphasis and directness, and he also knows the value of "a still tongue in a wise head." He made a great hit here and the conference paid him the compliment of passing a resolution requesting the board of bishops to appoint him to succeed himself. They also passed resolutions expressing confidence and esteem in him unanimously by a standing vote.

MINISTERIAL APPOINTMENTS.

The appointments are as follows: Highfield district—E. E. Mork, presiding elder. Brigham, North Ogden—H. I. Hanson. Fairview, Spring City—E. E. Mork. Marysville, Elmore and Monroe—J. M. Hanson. Mr. Pleasant, Moroni—J. H. Worrall. Salt Lake, First Scandinavian—C. J. Hecker. Salt Lake district—J. L. Leilich, presiding elder. Beaver, Milford—Supplied by G. E. McGargat. Provo, Spanish Fork, Heber—To be supplied by John W. Bain. Salt Lake—First church, J. C. Bickel; Health church, to be supplied; High church, D. M. Helmick; Liberty Park church, W. B. Burton. J. H. Worrall, Thomas Johns, H. W. Parker, Joseph Willis, L. H. Keetzel, Joseph Scarborough, E. T. Kelley, Geo. R. Jayne, Wildman Murphy, returned to their conferences. J. W. Clifton, transferred to the Wyoming mission and stationed at Havelock. H. G. Kemp, transferred to the Wyoming mission and stationed at Douglas, Wyo. G. S. Womer, returned to his conference and stationed at Holidayburg, Ia. The Synoptic also appointed on the board of examiners J. C. Bickel, D. M. Helmick and Samuel Blair, to fill vacancies caused by those who were leaving the mission.

LEILICH'S TROUBLES.

Talks with several Methodist clergymen today brought out the fact that they considered that Superintendent Leilich was "let down easy," and that some time before March next he will return to his conference in central Pennsylvania. The man is a great sufferer from kidney troubles; in fact he is so ill, it was stated today, that his memory of even the conference just closed is imperfect, and events not very remote he has forgotten entirely. Mr. Leilich is in no physical or mental condition to attempt to manage the affairs of the Utah Methodist mission, and it is understood that while he is continued in charge it is really only in name, and that the actual superintendent in Presbyterian Elder Mork. In times past Mr. Leilich has acted largely on rampant order and was ready to show fight. Today, he is reported to be as docile as a lamb, and the bishop remarked that at the cabinet meetings he had nothing to say but appeared to merely look on.

Moreover, Mr. Leilich's troubles are not only mental and physical, but also financial; and a well known Methodist clergyman says that the superintendent was really without a dollar, having lost all of his savings in unprofitable mining speculations. It is hoped by his friends that from contributions and salary enough can be raised before long to send him back to his Pennsylvania home in comfort, and where his declining days can be spent peacefully. While there was a strong hostility to Mr. Leilich, there is none against the superintendent in view of his unfortunate condition, which shuts off further hostile criticism. Even those in the mission who felt the bitterest against the man, now experience only sorrow for him, and wish him only good.

WHO WILL SUCCEED HIM?

Just who will be the next regular superintendent of the Utah Methodist mission cannot now be stated, as Bishop Cranston has the matter in immediate charge and is not taking the press or the public into his counsel. He retains the direction of affairs in this mission until the next meeting of the house of bishops in the east, when the bishop who is to preside over the 1904 conference will be chosen. There is a strong feeling of relief among Utah Methodists today, in view of the coming change, and the expectation by many that Bishop Cranston will pick out a man who is of a conciliatory nature, and who will command the respect and attention of all of the members of this conference both clerical and lay.

MEDICAL EXAMINER

Of the United States Treasury Recommends Pe-ru-na.

DR. LLEWELLYN JORDAN, Medical Examiner of the U.S. Treasury Department, graduate of Columbia College, and who served three years at West Point, has the following to say of Peruna:

Dr. Llewellyn Jordan.

"Allow me to express my gratitude to you for the benefit derived from your wonderful remedy. One short month has brought forth a vast change and I now consider myself a well man after months of suffering. Fellow sufferers, Peruna will cure you."

The Women also Recommend Pe-ru-na.

Miss Blanch Grey, 171 Alabama street, Memphis, Tenn., a society woman of Memphis, writes: "To a society woman whose nervous force is often taxed to the utmost from lack of rest and irregular meals I know of nothing which is of so much benefit as Peruna. I took it a few months ago when I felt my strength giving away, and it soon made itself manifest in giving me new strength and health."—Miss Blanch Grey.

Mrs. X. Schneider, 240 Thirty-seventh Place, Chicago, Ill., writes:

"After taking several remedies without result, I began last year to take your valuable remedy, Peruna. I was a complete wreck. Had palpitation of the heart, cold hands and feet, female weakness, no appetite, trembling, sinking feeling nearly all the time. You said I was suffering with systemic catarrh, and I believe that I received your help in the nick of time. I followed your directions carefully and can say today that I am well again. I cannot thank you enough for my cure."

Peruna cures catarrh wherever located. Peruna is not a guess nor an experiment—it is an absolute scientific certainty. Peruna has no substitutes—no rivals. Insist upon having Peruna.

A free book written by Dr. Hartman, on the subject of catarrh in its different phases and stages, will be sent free to any address by The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio.

Catarrh is a systemic disease curable only by systemic treatment. A remedy that cures catarrh must act directly on the diseased nerve centers. This is what Peruna does. Peruna thoroughly investigates the nerve-centers which give vitality to the nervous system. When catarrh disappears, then catarrh is permanently cured. If you do not receive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
