

MAY BE COUNTESS.

Miss Padelford, considered the next American woman in line for a title, is the daughter of the Mrs. Padelford who early this summer married Ernest Cunard, a very wealthy man.

The Third Street Card club met Wednesday with Mrs. Clarence Warner.

Mrs. A. H. Tarbet will give a luncheon at the Commercial club next Thursday in honor of her guest, Miss Lavell.

Mrs. T. R. Ellerbeck entertained the Ladies' Aid society of the High M. E. church at her home last night.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wilkinson will entertain at a Halloween party on Friday night, at which all the deputies of the sheriff's office, and the ladies will be guests of honor.

The girls at Rowland Hall will give a masquerade dancing party on Halloween.

Mrs. John Wilhart and daughter, Mrs. C. H. Billings, are now at home to their friends on Tuesdays at the home of Mrs. Wilhart on Thirteenth East.

The J. G. W. club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. M. Miller, 629 South Main street.

Miss Jessie Miller will give a 4 o'clock tea next Wednesday.

Mrs. C. E. Richards entertained the Sewing club at her home on Tuesday.

A dancing party is being planned by the young ladies of the Unitarian united in marriage, the event taking place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Price, on north State street.

A wedding announcement of the week was that of Miss Grace Holmes and W. R. King of Omaha, the marriage having been consummated at Farmington on Sept. 7.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ure announce the engagement of their daughter, Belle, to Horace E. Garner of Ogden.

Many Salt Laker were interested in the marriage which united Miss Edith Ferry and Lieut. D. T. Merrill this Friday in the event taking place at the bride's home in Grand Haven, Mich.

Mrs. Charles Walker was hostess at a pretty luncheon on Tuesday at her home in the Holmes flats, 10 guests enjoying the affair.

Mrs. Thomas B. Davis entertained at an informal luncheon on Tuesday, her guests being the members of the Sewing club to which she belongs.

Mrs. W. G. Sharp was guest of honor at a charming luncheon on Thursday given by Mrs. George Downey, covers being laid for 14.

The ladies of the First Congregational church will give a reception in honor of the new pastor, Rev. Elmer I. Goshen, at the church parlors next Tuesday evening, Oct. 27.

An event of this evening in which great interest is centered is the wedding of Miss Nellie Walker and Murray Stewart, which will take place at the home of the bride, Rev. Pinkerton of the Central Christian church performing the ceremony.

Mrs. Morton French is in town from the Annie Laurie mine, and is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Dunford, at 885 First street.

N. H. Harriman of Cleveland, O., is in the city and will be the guest for a time of Dr. and Mrs. A. D. Melvin.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Greenwood have returned to their home in Beaver, after spending the past few days with Prof. and Mrs. Orson Pratt.

A CHARMING TOQUE.

This becoming black toque is made of the new taffeta silk braid, draped with velvet between brim and crown, and trimmed with a cluster of white and black little bird's breasts, two of which fall over the brim in front.

Dr. S. H. Pinkerton has returned from a three weeks' visit in Louisville, Cincinnati and other eastern cities.

Mr. George Curtis is in town from Del Norte, Colo., spending a month with his brother and sister, Mr. J. W. and Miss Eliza Curtis.

Mrs. Virginia Taggart of San Francisco, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. E. E. Heywood, during the summer, has returned to her home.

Rev. Elmer Goshen is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gorham.

Mr. George Casey of Butte, Mont., came down to attend the wedding of Miss Walker and Dr. Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Allen will leave next week for Los Angeles where they expect to make their home for some time.

Mrs. Walter Lewis of Butte came down on Thursday for the wedding of her sister.

Capt. Creary has been spending several weeks at the post.

Mrs. Jack Jevne of Los Angeles is expected in the city about midwinter to visit her sisters, Mrs. Flagg and Mrs. Murray.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Sweetzer, of Yale, Ida., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Snow.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mulford and little daughter, Ivy, have returned from a four months visit with relatives and friends in England.

Miss Alice Leap, from Chetopa, Kan., is visiting her friends, Misses Fannie and Eulalia Neale, 209 East Seventh South.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander from Indiana are at Mrs. D. La Forge's, on east First South street.

Miss Noble and Miss Mamie Noble will spend a part of the winter in New York.

Mr. Fred Dern is expected home some time during the week from Arizona.

Mr. H. O. Young has returned from a stay in Europe with his daughter, Mrs. D. C. McLaughlin. The latter leaves Paris shortly for Cairo.

Mrs. Julia Allen left for a trip of combined health and pleasure during the week.

Miss Virginia Houtz of Ogden has been visiting Mrs. Rowe this week.

Mrs. Tripp leaves tomorrow for a brief stay in California.

Mrs. P. C. Shelton is a guest at the home of A. B. Sawyer for a short time, prior to her departure for the east.

Miss Stella Abrams of Laramie is in the city, a guest of Miss Edith Betts.

Mrs. A. C. Smith left this week for a visit with the Duncan family in Kansas

SOCIETY

Every year, Vern Sears, Mr. and Mrs. Eber Case, Victor Fohlin, Geo. Randall, Sid Hampton, Geo. Payne, Will Bain, Almer Gunn, Ray Nonham, Mr. and Mrs. Will Cole, J. B. Ritter, Ray Castleton, Chas. Dearoff, Provo; A. R. Poulton, and Misses Katie, Bertie, May, Irene Smith, Emily Feveryear, Myrtle Castleton and Burt Smith.

A large dancing party will be given at Christensen's hall next Friday night by Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Reed, and Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Snow.

Mrs. George Brice has cards out announcing a tea to be given at her residence, 710 east South Temple, on November 4.

Mrs. Thomas Kearns will entertain at luncheon on Thursday, Nov. 5.

Mrs. Byron Cummings entertained the Home Protective league at her residence yesterday.

About 20 guests enjoyed the musicale given by Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lamb at their rooms at the Fifth East hotel on Thursday night. A delightful program was given, the evening being altogether an enjoyable one.

Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Perkins will entertain at an ante-Halloween party on next Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Williams have issued invitations for an evening party to be given at their home next Friday.

Mrs. Dorsey Ash entertained at euchre this afternoon.

Miss Creary entertained at an informal rabbit party at the post on Tuesday night in honor of her brother, Capt. Creary. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lamb, Mrs. Coray, Miss Saltsburg, the Misses: Bubb, Miss Schwagler, Lieuts. Platt, Farrar and Berry, and Messrs. Leonard, Moyer, Overfield and Hutchins.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Kinney entertained at dinner on Tuesday, in honor of Prof. and Mrs. W. W. Campbell of California.

The Fencibles give their ball at the Armory next Friday.

A Halloween party will be given by the Thistle Social club next Friday and a program will be rendered by Thos. Ashworth, John James, Mrs. John Edwards, Simon Grieve, D. Henderson and others.

Miss Sadie Merrill entertained at a Kensington this afternoon, a number of her friends being present to enjoy the pleasant affair. The rooms were prettily decorated, and dainty refreshments were served.

On Monday, Nov. 23, the Samsate club will give its first party of the season and the event will be followed by a series of others which promise to be as enjoyable as those of last year.

Miss Leona Taylor will entertain at a Halloween party next Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wetzell will entertain at a Halloween party next Saturday night, and the affair promises to

SOCIALS AND GAT

Wednesday was the eighteenth wedding anniversary of Mrs. D. S. Fulop, and the date was celebrated with a large card party, about 60 guests being present to enjoy the affair.

A notably interesting event is planned for next week in the musicale to be given by Miss Mary Olive Gray, Miss Esther T. Allen and Miss Isabel Monahan on Wednesday night at the First Congregational church.

On Monday evening last Mrs. A. D. Smith entertained at her home, 622 Second street, a number of the friends of her son Frank at cards, it being his twenty-first birthday anniversary.

WEDDING BELLS

An event of this evening in which great interest is centered is the wedding of Miss Nellie Walker and Murray Stewart, which will take place at the home of the bride, Rev. Pinkerton of the Central Christian church performing the ceremony.

COMING AND GOING

Mrs. Morton French is in town from the Annie Laurie mine, and is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Dunford, at 885 First street.

N. H. Harriman of Cleveland, O., is in the city and will be the guest for a time of Dr. and Mrs. A. D. Melvin.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Greenwood have returned to their home in Beaver, after spending the past few days with Prof. and Mrs. Orson Pratt.

Advertisement for Cohn's Great Black Dress Goods Sale. Features a large decorative border with floral motifs and a central banner. Text includes: 'A Phenomenal Early-Season Event.', 'THE HANDSOMEST and SMARTEST FABRICS that LOOMS HAVE EVER PRODUCED', and a list of fabric types and prices such as '44-inch nophe Melrose, $1.00 a yard' and '44-inch nophe Crispines, $1.00 a yard'. It also contains a testimonial and the slogan 'BLACK DRESS FABRICS of CHARACTER.'